of the courts; Hospital Steward Joe Baumeister, defendant's attorney; Corporal Ike Brown, district attorney; Sutler A. Porter, assistant district at-torney. Captain Gilman was prosecutor. The defense tried to work the insanity dodge and mesmerism game, but it didn't go with the intelligent jury which had been impanelled.

FINE HEADQUARTERS.

Headquarters is now under canvas and Lieutenant W. J. Tracey has secured the barn for his commissary department. His room is the finest and most attractive in camp. Rich draperles of horse blankets festooned with tasselated clothes-line form the principal decorations.

The total wealth of the camp is estimated at $4.28. W. J. Haggerty, The Tribune's business representative, has $4 of this amount. If taps hadn't sounded, he says, he would have had the other 28 cents.

G. A. Hoffman, of Company D, was colonel's orderly today.

Private Ike Saville was excused last night to get married. He was drummed out of camp, as was Private Gibbs, the night before, and as he boarded the car the drum corps played "I can't get him up, I can't get him up, I can't get him up in the morning." Owing to the hard-heartedness of the military arm of the state, Saville's honeymoon will last just four days, his orders being to return next Monday.

Private Charles Cowell, of Company B, has twice been chosen as headquarters orderly.

A range has been mapped out and a match arranged between the officers of the Thirteenth and Ninth. Captain Robling and about ten men were excused Tuesday. The chief is wanted at criminal court. He will return Saturday.

Company F did outpost duty today and tonight. One of the stations is on a culm dump and is anything but inviting on a cold, windy night.

No idea can as yet be gained as to when the order to return will be given. It is quite likely there will be no such active in the market moved scarcely at all. The Vanderbilts were again a centre of strength on the reports of large increases in earnings and most of them advanced a point or more in the day's trading. New York Central advanced 1%. Lake Shore also was taken in hand by the bull element during the final hour of trading and rushed up 2% per cent. The same element was instrumental in hoisting the price of Pennsylvania 3% points, the subsequent reaction being about 1/2. A jump of 20 points in Consolidated Gas was also a sensational feature in the market. General Electric rose at one time nearly 2 points. There were conspicuous exceptions to the strength of the market, such stocks as Missouri Pacific, Atchison preferred, Northern Pacific preferred, Louisville, Southern preferred and Chesapeake and Ohio lagging quite heavily in the advance in some cases, closing below yesterday. A number of the industrials were conspicuously including Sugar preferred, weak. Leather preferred, Illinois Steel, Tennessee Coal and Bay State Gas. Sugar common, which sold ex div. today, lost all of its early gain before the close. The coalers were somewhat heavy during the day, but improved slightly before the close, apparently in sympathy with the lively advance in Ontario and Western and S. and W. preferred, Chicago Gas and Laclede Gas were quite strong, the former advancing nearly

The camp is enjoying good weather and the best of health. Three sick men were sent home and there is none in the hospital.

COMPANY F NOTES.

Company F had its usual good luck on its arrival in camp. It was the first company to have its mess table up, as well as the officers' tent floors in. Captain Fellows was officer of the day for the first day's duty. The boys all take their day's duty in a cheerful way. Quartermaster Carling is receiving praise for the good table he is setting. Sergeants Freeman and Carling's tent still seems to be the favorite for the story tellers of the regiment.

The three Coz's are quartered very nicely on the street and catertain in royal style. Foot races have been very popular for

The few days the boys have been here. Sergeant Decker has captured two of the first prizes, which consisted of a lunch of onions. The lieutenant always was fond of such fruit. The Phillips boys have their hands full

The Finings boys have their hands fun-trying to satisfy the boys' hunger and have done so up to date. Corporal Williams joined the company at Hagleton. He has been stationed at Mcadoo for the past year.

COMPANY C NOTES.

Company C men were never in better shape than they are during this tour of duty The health of the members of Company

' is of the best. Privates Frank Moir, Joseph Burk-house and William Beckman dined yes-terday at Hotel Farley. Sergeant Edward Burkhouse is getting to be quite expert with the lariat. He lassoed a consumptive mule while three privates held to e mule's head. There are several members of Company

C who are anticipating enlisting in the United States cavalry, Sergeant Burkhouse was detailed as sergeant of the guard yestorday. Lieutenant Wallace Moir was detailed as officer of the guard Monday.
