Hungarians Show a Disposition to Work but Are Chased off the Culp Dump by Strikers at Honey Brook.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Hazleton, Sept. 17.—2.30 a. m.—Hungarian strikers are stealing dynamite from Turnback's magazine at Audenried.

Hazleton, Sept. 16.—"It was disa-vay," said a young Italian slate picker, Giovanni Michelli, when The Tribune representative asked him to tell about the one big feature of yesterday in the strike region.

The women, it appears were set up to the attack by their husbands who feared to march, but who had read in the Clearfield district the women paraded unmolested after their husbands were enjoined from parading.

AN EXPLOSION THREATENED.

Later they marched on the Honey Brook strippers of the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre company and by throwing huge stones from the top of the breaker down at the miners in the stripping and also onto the roof of the powder house, threatening an explosion.

Colonel McGee, with a battalion of the Eighth infantry, which was patrolling the region thereabouts, did not arrive until after the whole affair was over.

subject of uniform wage scale meeting, wires as follows: "I am not sufficiently advised about the meeting referred to, to express an opinion at this time."

John Markle, of G. B. Markle & Co., says: "We have a uniform wage scale which has been in vogue since 1875. As far as I know, all other companies are paying the same wages, especially for inside men. There is no prospect of a meeting as far as I know, and no meeting has been called."

The American Federation of Labor is to take a hand in the strike. At a mass meeting to be held here Saturday night, Eugene V. Debs and the president of the Carpenters and Joiners' union will make addresses.

FEDERATION JOINS THE FIGHT.

Mass Meeting to Be Held on Saturday Night.

Hazleton, Pa., Sept. 16.—The American Federation of Labor, with a membership of half a million, has taken up the cause of the mine workers in this region.

At the mass meeting fixed for next Saturday night at Old Park, Peter J. Maguire, vice president of the Federation, and secretary general of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, of Philadelphia, will make an address.

Concerning the story that Eugene V. Debs will speak at the Saturday night meeting, the strike leaders say that if he comes, it will not be at their solicitation.

The peace prevailing during the past few days was broken today by a conflict between striking and working miners which for a time threatened to be serious.

executive's answer had not yet come this evening. Another attempt to resume work will be made at these collieries tomorrow.

Colonel McGee, of the Eighth regiment, reported an incident that occurred at 6 o'clock this morning. While most of the weary warriors were slumbering on their couches of earth, the guard line was thrown into a ferment by the appearance of a blood-stained Hungarian.

Colonel McGee further said that he had placed a guard of one hundred men at the pumping station which supplies the regiment with water and has sentinels stationed all along the pipe lines which carry it within.

The First battalion of the Ninth regiment accompanied the postmaster's wagon over to Harwood today and left Company B there to keep a general watch.

There was no material change today in the situation of the strike beyond that already mentioned. The mayor called the Cranberry colliery men had quit work proved to be baseless, but there was no resumption. It is said that some of the men are anxious to go back to work, but fear violence from the others if they attempt to do so.

SHERIFF MARTIN IN TOWN.

Sheriff Martin came over from Wilkes-Barre again today. He is very moody and seems to feel his position keenly.

THE CAMP POSTMASTER.

Attorney Robert Peck is postmaster. He has been sworn in as a United States mail carrier and travels between Hazleton and Lattimer with the extra protection of Uncle Sam about him.

A regularly established and modernly equipped signal corps is one of the probable results of the encampment.

One of the interesting sights of yesterday was Prothonotary Baker, of Susquehanna county; Tax Collector Conklin and Shoe Merchant Enoch Smith, of Montrose, digging ditches on Company G street.

Uncle John Anneman already has a speaking acquaintance with every man, woman and child in Lattimer. Yesterday he met Calvin Pardee, sr., who went out with him in '61, and as can be believed the meeting was a hearty, if not to say affectionate one.

Major Oakford, provost marshal, rode up from Hazleton today and was the guest of Colonel Mattes until evening.

Every single man in the regiment is going to be married next week if it is true for themselves. That is about the only excuse which is effectual in securing a furlough.

Tommy Murphy, of Company C, has written to Chairman George Sweeney, of the vice and immorality committee of common council, complaining of certain [Continued on Page 2.]

PROSY DAY AT CAMP LATTIMER

Life Under Restraint Becomes Very Monotonous.

MANY ARE TORTURED BY SUSPENSE

The Uncertainty of the Situation Worries the Business Men Whose Interests at Home Suffer from Their Absence--Rife Practice Will Form One of the Features of Camp--Notes of the Various Companies.

Hazleton, Sept. 16.—This has been neither dull nor prosy day at Camp Lattimer. Nothing of an exciting value occurred to break the wearisome monotony. Routine work and camp larks keep the boys' from getting rusty, but with all this employment they are galled not a little by the severe restraint entailed by General Gobin's stringent order.

It is something definite was only known as to how long the regiment will be kept here there would be little discontent. At present the boys, it must be confessed, are beginning to grow uneasy.

These uncertainties and hardships of the very severe encampment are not however dampening the spirit of fun which is all prevailing in the Thirteenth. What the boys don't do would be easier to relate than what they actually do. An ordinary set of men penned up in a two acre lot for a week, with prospects of resuming that work for a month, will create a fun which is all prevailing in the Thirteenth.

What the frolic loving Thirteenth is doing under these conditions may be imagined possibly but never fully told. The man who can get up the most ridiculous habit is the most envied. The man with the most shaggy and outlandish beard is the most admired.

RIFE PRACTICE.

Rife practice is to be inaugurated tomorrow. Colonel Mattes and Lieutenant Cox today selected a site for a range in the valley five hundred yards to the west of the camp on a plot of ground kindly placed at the disposal of the regiment by Superintendent Drake, of the Calvin Pardee & Co. mines.

A pistol range has been laid out adjacent to the camp and officers are already qualifying. Yesterday four of them made the necessary fifty out of seventy-five and received the much coveted credentials. Their names and scores follow:

First Sergeant Scott, Co. B.....59
Sergeant Major Cousen.....62
First Sergeant Branda, Co. D.....63
Lieutenant Crisman, Co. G.....64

Tomorrow morning at 9.30 o'clock the officers' pistol match, which was to have been shot at the Dickson range, Saturday last, will take place at Drake range.

LOUISE AGAIN EXPELLED

The Famous French Anarchist Driven From Brussels.

Brussels, Sept. 16.—Louise Michel, the notorious French anarchist, was expelled from the city today by the police. She arrived this morning from Paris accompanied by Charlotte Faville and Broussens. They were sent on a fortnight's speechmaking tour in aid of the families of the anarchists executed at Montjuich Fortress, Barcelona, for the bomb throwing during the celebration of Corpus Christi at Barcelona in June of last year and in aid also of anarchists exiled for complicity in the crime. The tour was to be undertaken on the theory that the prevailing labor disputes make the present time advantageous for spreading anarchist doctrine.

NEGRO POSTMASTER SHOT.

He Was Appointed in Opposition to White Partisans.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 16.—United States District Attorney E. A. Angier received a telegram from Hogansville, Ga., today stating the negro postmaster at that place, whose name is Lofton, had been shot. No details were given, and it is not known whether the negro is dead or not. A postoffice inspector has been ordered from Chattanooga to investigate the case. Lofton was appointed shortly after the late war, in direct opposition on the part of the white patrons of the office, and it is supposed that politics had something to do with the appointment.

RAVAGES OF YELLOW JACK

Work at the Detention Camp Goes on Rapidly--Several Southern States Quarantined Against Atlanta.

Washington, Sept. 16.—The daily report of Surgeon Murray, in charge at Ocean Springs, Miss., is substantially as follows: "The yellow fever epidemic goes on rapidly. The Scranton call for a physician has been met by Dr. Dunn today and the controversy between the county and state boards settled. Dunn reports five cases at Scranton and Grant reports that the sick doctor has recovered and that the fumigation and disinfection at Perkinson has been properly attended to. Murray's request for statistics from Biloxi has not been responded to. It is fair to report fifteen cases and one death (a Biloxi) since the beginning of the epidemic. Weather is improving. No reliable reports of new cases."

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 6.—Antone Hagan, first yellow fever case died this afternoon. One new case is reported.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 16.—The city of Montgomery has quarantined against points in the state of Mississippi.

TROUBLE AT RAWAT PASS

Gallant Defense is Made by Fort Gulistan's Garrison.

BRITISH DEFEAT TRIBEMEN

News of the Latest Engagement on the Frontier.

Tribesmen Repeatedly Repulsed With Bayonets--Bravery of British Native Officers--Relieved by Gen. Yeatman-Biggs After Thirty Hours' Continuous Fighting.

Troops Commanded by Gen. Jefe Troops Under Fire Six Hours--Two Lieutenants Killed.

Simla, Sept. 16.—The Second Brigade of the Mohmand punitive force, commanded by General Jeffrey's reached the foot of the Rawat Pass on Tuesday last. During the night the British troops were attacked by the enemy, who kept up a heavy fire for six hours. Lieutenant Tompkins and Bailey were killed. Lieutenant Harrington was dangerously wounded, two privates were wounded and twenty-five horses and mules were killed.

The garrison of Fort Gulistan made a most gallant defense. The enemy appeared before the place at noon Sunday last, and by one o'clock the water tanks were filled, and other preparations were made to resist a siege. The garrison was composed of 165 Sikhs, commanded by Major Des Voeux and Lieut. Pratt, Surgeon Prall and Mrs. Des Voeux, her four children and two nurses were also in the fort. At four o'clock in the afternoon the enemy closed around the place to within ten yards of the walls, and, at times, rushed right up to them. The garrison repeatedly repulsed the tribesmen at the point of the bayonet, and there were some remarkable exhibitions of bravery. A Havildar (native Sergeant) with sixteen Sikhs, charged into the midst of 300 tribesmen and captured three standards. Another Havildar, with ten men, rushed out to help the first party when the latter was hard pressed by the enemy, and before returning, they captured three more standards. A Subahdar (native Captain) and two Sikhs, dashed to the rescue of a wounded comrade, cut their way through the enemy and brought him safely into the fort.

There was similar hard fighting throughout Monday last, and until the artillery of General Yeatman-Biggs finally scattered the Afridis. When this was done, the garrison of the Fort Gulistan had been at their posts for thirty consecutive hours. The casualties of the British force were twenty men killed and thirty-eight wounded. The women of the garrison attended the wounded under an unceasing heavy fire.

It is reported that the Afridis and Orakzais left the Samana territory for their homes.

KILLED AT TWO MILES' RANGE.

English Field Guns Do Remarkable Work in India.

Simla, India, Sept. 15.—The insurgents have been driven back by the English troops and the police post at Saranath taken. Fort Lockhart was relieved on Tuesday morning, and Fort Gulistan was relieved the same evening. The field guns, which upon this occasion were used in a range of 200 yards, were so effectually handled that they scattered the enemy investing Fort Gulistan.

The tribesmen did not oppose the advance of the troops under General Yeatman-Biggs, whose deadly artillery and Lee-Metford rifle fire sent them in full retreat.

Fort Gulistan was hard beset when the reinforcements arrived. A large force of Afridis had advanced to within 600 yards of the fort.

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN.

Senator Thurston Reports Favorably on Republican Prospects.

Washington, Sept. 16.—Senator Thurston of Oregon, who has been making a speech-making campaign in Ohio, spoke hopefully today of the chances of Republican success in Senator Hanna's state. His own assignment was to a part of the state where the Republicans are weakest, and the reception accorded him was not very cordial. He believes, however, that if proper attention is given to the large centers of population the party will carry the elections generally.

Secretary Sherman has announced that he will make no political speeches during his coming visit to Ohio, on the ground that it is not customary for the secretary of state to engage actively in campaign politics.

An Engineer Killed.

March Chunk, Pa., Sept. 15.—Allen Sittler, aged 40 years, a Lehigh Valley railroad engineer, was instantly killed today in the Packerton yards. He got off his engine to get a drink of water and was run down by the Black Diamond express and his head was cut off. He leaves a widow and four children.

The Herald's Weather Forecast.

New York, Sept. 16.—The Herald's weather forecast for the Middle States and New England today, fair to partly cloudy; warmer and sultry weather will prevail till afternoon in the eastern districts, with fresh southwesterly winds, shifting to westerly and followed by rain and falling temperature and in the western districts cooler, southerly winds, but in New England, partly cloudy, warmer weather, followed by cooler, with local rain. On Saturday, in both of these sections, cloudy to partly cloudy, much cooler weather and west and northwesterly winds will prevail, with rain; followed by sharp frosts in the northern and western districts.
