DIAMOND DUST.

"Kid" Nichols has won the most games of any pitcher this season. He has won 22, Klobedanz and Corbett each 21. From Baltimore comes the announcement that Hughes Jennings, the Orioles' great shortstop, will be married to Miss Lizzie Dixon, of Avoca, during the second week of October.
Frank Bowerman, the Baltimore catcher, may reverse positions and blossom as a pitcher next season. "Bowerman" says Frank Killen, has the queerest slow ball I ever saw. It is something like Phil Ebert's. You can almost count the stitches on the ball as it floats up to the plate, then it suddenly drops as it reaches you. If he could control that ball he'd make a better pitcher than he is a catcher.
Toronto has signed Sanders of Buffalo, Dinesen, the best pitcher on the Toronto staff, has gone bad from overwork and Irwin is left without reliable pitchers. Williams is not reliable, Gaston is inexperienced. Norton, Maine and Sanders are likely to do most of the work in Toronto for the rest of the season. Irwin has no postponed games to play except two with Rochester at Rochester, which he will probably play off at Montreal—Syracuse Standard.

AMATEUR BASE BALL.

MOOSIC CLUB DEFEATED.
The much-mooted question of superiority between the representative teams of Minooka and Moosic was decided yesterday at Athletic park in a game that was somewhat remarkable, as the Minookas took an early lead and up to the seventh inning the terrific onslaught of the Populars were unable to solve O'Neill's delivery but once.

In the seventh the Moosicites bunched their hits and sent four men across the plate, which rattled their opponents, as the latter part of the contest was listless. Kelly handled the sphere for Moosic and his great pitching was one of the features of the game. Hayes, Shea, Flannery and O'Neill put up their usual good game for Minooka. Score: MINOOKA.

The Lackawanna Stars challenge the West Side Marines to a game of base ball Sept. 15, on the West Side grounds. The Dunmore Nonpareils will challenge the West Side Browns to a game of ball, Sept. 15, on the West Side grounds. The team will meet at Luzerne street, John J. Coleman, manager.

The Oliphant Browns claim they are ready to meet any first-class team on the Oliphant park. Why not accept the Dunmore Nonpareils' challenge for Saturday, Sept. 17? Are you afraid of defeat? This is the third time for me to challenge you. We are big boys up as any amateur team in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Answer in tomorrow's Tribune if challenge is satisfactory. Right J. Coleman, manager of the Dunmore Nonpareils.

The Alerts accept the challenge of the People for Sept. 25, at 6 o'clock sharp. Answer if satisfactory. L. Lewis, manager. In answer to the Nonpareils, of Priceburg, the reason for my not coming to play on Friday, Sept. 16, was that we had a game arranged for that date. In regard to the challenge that was accepted for a game for 25 side, we, the Taylor Reds, respectfully accept the challenge, and will play at the Athletic park, Scranton, on any date suitable. Homer E. Davis, manager.

The Taylor Reds would like to know the reason the West Side Browns do not give them their return game, as they promised. The reason is because if the Browns could play them tomorrow (Saturday) on the Taylor grounds. Please answer in the Tribune for tomorrow morning's paper. Homer E. Davis, manager.

The Sliders challenge the Anthracites for a game Saturday at 4 o'clock. Will give a return game. E. A. Tropp, captain. The Sliders challenge the Anthracites for a return game for a purse of $50 a side and gate receipts. We are not bluffing. We will meet the Minooka manager tonight at 10 o'clock at the Athletic park. Instead of the manager, and would like to play next Friday or Saturday. We also would like to play the Reds for 25 side, the same amount. First served. We lost to Minooka in an up-hill game 4 to 8, but we want to play them. We understand that we are not bluffing any club for this amount stated before. Any club accepting this challenge will please answer in the Tribune. Thomas Muir, manager, Moosic, Pa.

THE SONG OF THE WHEEL.

Mount, mount the wheel, ye hollow chests,
Ye hollow broods be brave;
Mount, mount the wheel ye bloodless tribes,
And ride away from the grave.
Health, the strong goddess, swift of foot,
Where hind-thronged arches peer;
Dances her lawless reel,
Down woodland roads, through dewy gleams;
Go catch her on the wheel,
She flings her brown arms in the sun,
She climbs from height to height,
Her sportive glance is beckoning on;
Mount, mount and share her night.

Oh, ye desk-anchored men and maids,
This goddess has a roof of lead,
From the shag who shuns the arching sky
To seek the shunted roof.
She trips where bending alders shade
The road, dew-drops at noon,
She strides along the fern-sweet glade,
Beneath the August moon.
She waits for those who give her chase
Promised life to the riders,
Go, chase her down the winding roads,
And catch her on the wheel.

The footless horse can travel far
And climb the arduous slope
From the Valley of the Shadow to
The Table Land of Hope—
The air-swept steed has soundless hoof
Leaps on with noiseless strides,
And gives new strength with every leap
Promised life to the riders,
Mount, mount the wheel, ye hollow chests,
Ye hollow broods be brave;
Mount, mount the wheel, ye bloodless tribes,
And ride away from the grave.
—Sam Walter Foss, in the New York Sun.
