BEFORE BREAKFAST. Miss Vernon's cooking lessons will open Monday at 10 a. m. in St. Luke's parish rooms. Whether she intends to give her class dyspepsia at the start in order to teach them the immorality of the great American dainty—pie—doth not yet appear, but certain it is that she is announced to begin on pastry—puff paste, plain past, vol au vent, oysters, pates, cheese fingers, apple, custards, etc. The class promises to be a large one and indeed it should be well attended, not only for the benefit of the epicure, but also the Girls' Friendly society.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis will reopen her dancing classes for children at Excelsior hall, Saturday, Oct. 9. Children from 10 to 15 will be received at 10 a. m., those below that age at 3 p. m. Mrs. Lewis, at the solicitation of her friends and patrons, also promises to organize a class for fancy dancing, an entertainment to be given at the close of the season, when all the children are to appear. The popular features of this class will appeal to all.

The much talked of game of base ball between our Country club team and the Harrisburg Country club men will be called at the ball park tomorrow at 3 o'clock. Captain J. H. Brooks and his assistants have perfected elaborate arrangements and it is expected that the event will be one long to be remembered. The game will be witnessed by club members and their friends only. Carriages will be admitted to the park, and as for the affair the scene will probably exceed anything in the way of outdoor sports yet recorded in the history of Scranton. The Harrisburg visitors will receive every attention from the Country club members of this city. It is expected that they will attend the game tonight at the club house, while tomorrow they will be given a luncheon at the Scranton City club, a dinner at the Country club and are invited to remain over for the band concert tomorrow evening. The visitors are to be entertained at the homes of Country club members while in Scranton.

John Jermyn says that he has no fault to find with the customs regulation, under the Dingley bill, as he and the luggage of his party were treated with courtesy upon their arrival at New York. What does call forth his intense disapproval, however, is the lack of officials to examine luggage, and thus to facilitate landing, which is rendered most exasperatingly slow under the existing conditions. Long and weary hours of waiting at the home port is not a pleasing close to a delightful voyage.

FINE ATTRACTIONS SECURED. Street Railway Men Have a Treat in Store for the Public. Bauer's band and the Lyric quartette have been engaged to furnish the entertainment for the picnic of the Scranton Railway Beneficial association, at Laurel Hill Park, Saturday, Sept. 18. The former will render an unusually fine programme in the afternoon from 3 o'clock until 6. The latter will furnish the entertainment in the evening, commencing at 7.45. The quartette consists of Thomas Beynon, David Stepan, John W. Jones and P. H. Warren, with Lew Jones as accompanist. That it will be a rare treat will be readily admitted by those who are acquainted with the ability of these gentlemen.

The association deserves the thanks of the community for making it possible for all lovers of music to hear these able performers, and we bespeak for them a generous patronage. Bauer's orchestra of six pieces will furnish dance music afternoon and evening in the pavilion, commencing at 2 p. m., and all who desire to do so may trip the light fantastic toe to music by the finest orchestra it has been possible to procure.

MANY FAILED TO PASS. Judges Are Very Careful About Those They Naturalize.

Naturalization court was in session yesterday and a number of men were raised to the dignity of citizenship. Many were also refused that boon. Judges Archbold and Gunster were on the bench and they carefully examined every candidate who presented himself. Any man who could not talk English and who did not have a fair knowledge of our institutions was told to go forth and familiarize himself with this republican form of government before presenting himself again for naturalization.

We, the Lackawanna County Women's Christian Temperance union, assembled in convention, return thanks to our Father for the many blessings granted us during the past year. We recognize the fact that the foundation of our work lies in the acceptance of the precepts of Christ, and that renewed effort should be enlisted to promote the evangelistic work. We notice with thankfulness the general acceptance of the endorsed text books for scientific instruction, and believe that there are greater possibilities of enlightenment to the rising generation on the liquor problem. LOWER SALARIES ADVOCATED. Whereas we believe that the state expenses should not exceed its income. We therefore instruct our delegates to advocate and vote a reduction of salaries. Resolved, As temperance workers we endorse the resolutions adopted by the late convention of the Prohibition party. That we extend our sympathy to those of our number prevented from meeting with us, sadly missing their familiar faces and words of encouragement. ENTERTAINING PERFORMANCE. Given by the Rice and Barton Company at Davis' Theatre.

Rice and Barton's Gaiety company delighted the audiences at Davis' theatre yesterday afternoon and evening with their mirth-provoking farce, entitled "McDoodle's Plats." Charles Barton as "McDoodle" was funny as ever and was admirably supported in the first sketch by Eddie Miles. The entire company is much better than last year. The addition of Miss Hattie Mills, vocalist, who rendered popular negro melodies, and several other talented singers has greatly strengthened the troupe. In the olio Miss Frankie Haines appeared in new character songs, rendered in her inimitable style, which were well received. Daisy Raymond and Eddie Miles gave an original surprise that was highly appreciated by KNOCKED OUT IN THE SECOND ROUND Bobby Dobbs Was Far Too Clever for Martin Judge of Philadelphia.

RIGHT HAND SWING DID THE WORK During the First Round Dobbs Sparred to Find the Weak Points of His Adversary and in the Second Round He Made Short Work of Him—There Were Several Preliminary Bouts but They Were of a Tame Nature.

The American Sporting club, of which Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is manager, gave another flat exhibition in Music hall last night before about 300 spectators. At 9.15 o'clock Announcer William Burns, of Carbondale, stepped into the ring and introduced Patrick Murphy, of this city, as the referee of the bouts, and Edward Coleman, also of this city, as timekeeper. The first preliminary bout was between two 116-pound men, Jack Livingston, of Taylor, and Frank Joyce, of Pittston. They sparred three rounds, and it was apparent that they were equally matched and an extra two-minute round was given, at the end of which Referee Murphy declared the contest a draw. The other bout was between "Kid" Brown, of Hartford, Conn., and Scranton, and "Kid" Rey, of this city, a protégé of Brown's. They sparred three rounds and Rey got the decision. The star bout of 20 rounds was announced between "Bobby" Dobbs, of Minneapolis, Minn., and Martin Judge, of Philadelphia, at 125 pounds. Both men entered the ring at 9.52 o'clock and the former was seconded by "Kid" Brown and P. J. Maloney, of this city. In Judge's corner was Harry Courtwright, the "Fine Knott" of this city, and "Billy" Smith, of Philadelphia. SPARRED CAUTIOUSLY. Time was called at 9.56 o'clock. Both men sparred cautiously for a short time, but soon mixed things up and some lively fighting followed. After this considerable rushing was done by both men and in the breakaways neither seemed to regard the referee's warning. The honors were about even, although from appearance and action Judge did not seem to be in first class condition, while Dobbs was fit to make the fight of his life. A few minutes before Judge entered the ring he was smoking cigarettes and appeared a trifle nervous, although he quickly recovered himself when time was called. After the above round it was apparent that Dobbs would rush matters and that the second round came together for the second round, some lively work ensued. Dobbs held one glove on Judge's neck and rushed him around the ring until he got him in his own corner, and there he kept him, landing several body blows and upper-cuts. Judge appeared to be groggy and Dobbs landed a vicious left hand jab on the heart and followed it up with a right-hand swing on the jaw. THE KNOCK-OUT BLOW. This was the telling blow, as Judge sank to the floor unconscious. The referee counted the usual ten seconds and Judge was still down when Murphy then advanced to the front of the stage and announced Dobbs the winner. The beaten man was lifted upon a chair in his corner and restoratives applied. He came around in four minutes. The fight lasted just seven minutes, or four minutes of actual fighting, the first a three-minute round—the second one minute. Judge was clearly outclassed when the song sounded after the first time. The fight was witnessed by many well-known sporting men, and about seven-five persons from Wilkes-Barre and Pittston were in attendance. Among the out-of-town newspaper representatives present were W. W. Castella, of the New York Herald; J. W. Dunn and John Bolton, of the Wilkes-Barre Times and News-Dealer respectively. Tailor made fall suits and overcoats, latest styles, John Ross, 207 Spruce street. Flatulence is cured by BEECHAM'S PILLS.

Before the meeting adjourned a collection was taken up for the support of the indigent orphans of the dead which realized $24.55. TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS. Result of the Playing at the Country Club Yesterday. Yesterday was another lively day at the Country club. A more exquisite scene than that with the Club house for a background and the beautiful color of the rich setting of forest and lawn and the magnificent view up the valley, afar, can scarcely be imagined, enhanced as it was by the picturesque groups deeply interested in the tennis tournament. The ladies were out in full force yesterday and the matches were spirited enough to fully warrant the grace of their presence. There were many brilliant plays and a surprise awaited the assemblage in Norman McLeod's defeat of Frank Linen. The score was as follows: Linen defeated Brooks 7-5-6-2; McLeod defeated Walker 6-1-6-0. In the afternoon the matches opened at 3 o'clock Blair defeating Frey by a score of 6-3; 6-0. In the semi-finals McLeod defeated Linen 6-3; 7-5. The doubles with one morning the final at 10 o'clock followed by finals in singles and preliminary doubles. The finals in singles and doubles will begin at 3 o'clock. Linen, McLeod, Walker, Frey, Blair, Decker, Brooks and P. Fuller playing among others.
