GILES-SHEPHERD NUPTIALS.

The marriage of Miss Charlotte Giles and Russell Maxwell Shepherd was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Giles, of Lincoln avenue. The ceremony was witnessed by some two hundred guests. The house was decorated most charmingly and a floral arch of white flowers extended across the room, under which the service was rendered. At 8:30 o'clock the bridal party entered, while Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Professor Rumbay, violin, and Professor Firth, piano. The bride and groom were unattended, but were preceded by Messrs. Emmons Peck and Edward Yarrington as ushers. The bride wore a gown of white satin, with lace and pearl trimmings. The solemn words which united the young couple were spoken by the Rev. Charles Leppard of the First Presbyterian church. After a season of congratulations, the guests partook of refreshments. Tables had been placed upon the lawn and in the house and the scene was very attractive. Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd have left for an extended tour to Omaha, Kansas City and Denver, and will be absent about three weeks. Upon their return they will occupy their new residence on Dartmouth avenue. Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Lohr, of Susquehanna; Frank Dunkley, of Pittston; Miss Flo Allen and Mr. Kerns, of Forest City; Miss Laura Davis and Mr. Mooney, of Wyoming; Miss Grace Whitte, Mead Scherer, of Honesdale; Misses Donovan and Jones, Mr. and Mrs. O. Swift, Menner and Ham did good work for the Honesdale team, but their efforts were in vain. Of the Carbondale men, Crane made the first touchdown; Lathrop, James Murrin and Kelly were brilliant players. Frank Murrin made a magnificent run of over fifty yards. The teams were as follows:
