WHEN HE'S DEAREST. She admired him so in winter In his evening top-coast fine

When at theater and dances He as escort oft did shine, And she thought him brave and handsome When in bicycle array On the Boulevard in springtime

They did lightly speed away: And-well, she so fond and faithful Grew, she stated at the shore That he was a real Adonis

In the bathing suit he wore. That no other man at play Ever could be quite so stunning
In a golfer's outfit gay.

That she loved his best of all When he sprinted 'round the diamond In a home game of base ball.

The past two days have been gay enough to make amends for the dull-ness of many months. With the dance Thursday night at the Bicycle club, the tennis tournament and dance at the Country club, and the promise of continued attractions in the way of a ball game, a band concert with dinners and luncheons unnumbered.

The tennis tournament was uncompleted yesterday as regards the singles. The finals in doubles resulted in a victory for J. H. Brooks and F. P. Fuller. They were opposed by James Elair and J. W. Decker, with a score of 61-3-6, 6-1-63. The contest was exciting and was witnessed by a throng of Country club members and their friends.

The dance last night at the Country club was perhaps enjoyed more than any previous event of the kind at this delightful spot, as the zest of homecoming and greeting of old friends and new added much to its pleasure. The chaperones were Mrs. E. B. Jermyn, Mrs. B. E. Watson and Mrs. Fred. J. Platt. Bauer furnished music. Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Dickerson, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Miss Wilde, Rochester, N. Y.; Miss Tarbolt, Baltimore; Miss Hinman, Dunkirk, N. Y.; Miss Robinson, Washington, D. C.; Miss Weller, Newburg, N. Y.; Miss Waring, Plainfield, N. J.; Misses Dor-rance and Vaughn, of Wilkes-Earre; Mrs. Bradford, New York; Miss Kauffmen, Lancaster; Miss McCormick, Harrisburg: Messrs, Hickok, Holdeman and Brady, of Harrisburg; Terrey, Hartford; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simp-son, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reynolds, Mrs. Bennell, Misses Archbaid, Hunt, Williams, Anderson, Welles, Bunnell, Torrey, Boies, Bennell, Messrs, Belin, Brooks, Welles, Torrey, Hunt. A. E. Hunt, jr., Fuller, J. H. Brooks, Blair, Bliss, Kemmerer, Moffat, Bedford,

The ball game between the teams of the Harrisburg Country club and the Scranton Country club will take place this afternoon at the ball park of the Scranton Base Ball association. Country club members and their friends will be present. Carriages will be admitted to the grounds, and the affair will be in every respect an interesting one. The teams are as follows:

HARRISBURG. Jennings, c. Brady, ss. Bent, 3b. O. Hickok, If.

SCRANTON. T. R. Brooks, gg. Moffat, 3b. Blair, 1b. F. P. Fuller, If.

The Harrisburg men will be served with luncheon at the City club, and will be given dinner at the Country club this evening. The festivities of the day will conclude with a grand

A pretty christening ceremony took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, on Washington avenue, Tuesday evening, when their granddaughter, Olive Ingalls, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Kennedy, was baptized by the Rev. George E. Guild. Besides the family, there were present Rev. and Mrs. Guild, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Sherman and sons, of Newport, R. I.; Miss Kittle and Mr.

Mrs. E. G. Coursen gave a luncheon at the Country club on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Belin, jr., Miss Lavinia Dimmick, Miss Dorothy Dimmick and Mr. Paul Belin returned on Thursday from the DuPont-Bradford wedding at Wilmington, Del.

Miss Schlager entertained a number of friends at dinner last evening Among the number present were the Misses Burns, Edith Hill, Amy Northup, Stewart Simpson, Bessle and Grace Sanderson, and Messrs. True Surdam, Ike Haslam, Charles Teal, Ford Pratt and Will Giffin.

Miss Sophie Schlager and Mrs. Powell chaperoned a party of young people on a trolley ride to Moosic last Thursday evening. The members of the parwere: Misses Schlager, Sandersen Hill Simpson, Burns, Northup, and Messrs. Starr, Pratt, Giffin, Teal, Surdam and Haslam.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams gave a dancing party at the Bicycle club Thursday night in honor of their daughter's friend. Miss Hinman, of Dunkirk, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Williams were assisted in receiving by Miss Hinman and their daughter, Miss

Movements of People.

Judge Willard is fishing in Connecticut, Dr. Prevost, of Pittston, was in town Chief of Police Frank Robling, jr., cap-oily, mothy skin, itching, scaly scalp, dry, thin, and falling hair, and baby blemishes prevented by Curicuna Soar, the most effective skin purifying and beautifying soap in the world, as well as purest and sweetest for toilet, bath, and nursery.

FACE

tain of Company C., and Corporal W. P. Kennedy, of the same company, returned to Hazleton yesterday. Mr. R. J. Foster was in Philadelphia

Miss May Steell has taken up her restlence at Hotel Nash, Mayor James J. O'Neil, of Carbondale, visiting friends in Scranton.

Miss Stewart Simpson will go back to Mrs. F. E. Stevens, of Olive street, vis-ted friends at Foster on Thursday, Mr. R. Nelson Atherton will spend Sun-visit with friends in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ham have re-turned from a trip in the Adirondacks.

a day at the Hillside Home this week.

Joseph S. MacElroy, of Philadelphia, was in Scranton on business Tuesday.

xtended visit with friends in Vermont. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith are at home from their country place at Woodstock,

Miss Margaret Gibbs, of South Mair

Miss Smith, who has been the guest of Miss Annie Salmon, who has been visiting friends in Honesdale, returned home

John Grant, of Keyser avenue, has resumed his studies at St. Charles college,

Mrs. Garrett Smith, of Wilkes-Barre, visited friends in this city during the

Mrs. H. U. Hopewell and children are Plainfield, N. J., are guests of Mrs. A.

Mrs. Frank Sellers, of Wilkes-Barre, is Miss Jordan, of this city, has been the

Shawanese lake, Misses Annie Watson and Carrie Ben-

Mr. H. A. Porter, of Stroudsburg, Pa.

Atlantic City, Philadelphia and New

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Jones and Mr. and Mrs. 1. F. Megargel have been at the Thousand Islands the past week.

Miss Edna Mertz, who has been visit-ing her siter, Mrs. G. G. Mahy, has rerheumatic gout for the past three weeks at his country place in Dalton.

The School of the Lackawanna and the Missas Marril school opened the fall term this week with a large attendance.

Alderman O. B. Wright yesterday at-tended the reunion of the One Hundred and Thirty-second regiment at Wilkes

Mrs. F. E. Wood, having sold her residence to William Kelly, will remove to New York city to join her husband and

W. N. Walker, a law student in the of-ice of Attorney J. M. Harris, is at Hotel Nash, Mr. Walker is a nephew of W. F.

Mr. and Mrs. Livy S. Richard, of Quincy

ivenue, left yesterday for a week's visit with Mrs. Richard's sister in Schenec-

ady, N. Y. Miss Baxter, Miss Ada Russell Baxter and Miss Helen Pedrick, of Philadelphia, are visiting Mrs. Frederick Conneil, of Milo Wiison, esq., is preparing to move nto his new residence, which has been wilt on the site of the old house on Mui-

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Rutter, of New York, are at Hotel Nash. Mr. Rutter is nanager for Price, McCormick & Co.

Mrs. Elfira Loder, of Albion, Mich, and Mrs. Ann Barber, of Stroudsburg, are vis-iting their sister, Mrs. M. R. Stone, 317

Miss Kate Fox, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lynott, of North

Linden street.

turned to her home in Sedalia, Mo.

ock agricultural fair.

West Scranton friends.

Cobb-Wallon marriage,

York the past ten days.

join the Thirteenth regiment.

to their home in Binghamton.

business friends in this city

burg on Thursday.

Miss Ethel Boles

this week.

Mrs. Berlinghoff is visiting friends in Miss Edith Norton is at home from the Adirondacks, Miss Mary Scanlon has returned from Scranton, returned Thursday to her home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. A. K. Walker, matron of the Home for the Friendless, will visit friends in Susquehanna and Wyoming counties during the next formight.

Mrs. Mary McKinney is at Hotel Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Erwin, of New York, who have been visiting C. S. Jacobs, returned home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shupp, of Plymouth, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brooks on Thursday and with them spent the day at the Hillside home.

George W. Closky, E. S. Bennett, Miss. M. E. Healey, Miss Schlager, Miss Porter and J. G. Osterhout were registered at the St. Denis in New York last week.

The many friends of Mrs. W. L. Conneil will be glad to know that her condition has slightly improved since early in the Colonel George Sanderson is in Philadel-Mrs. J. A. Linen and Miss Linen are in outhbridge, Mass. Mr. D. M. Powell returned to Harris-Tailie Morgan, of New York city, was n town yesterday. Miss Welles, of Newburg, is the guest has slightly improved since early in the week and that it is expected that she can be brought home from Atlantic City to-Mrs. S. C. Foulke returned from Strouds-

SAUCY BESS' COMMENT.

Scranton, returned Thursday to her home

sin the city today, Miss Jessie Ripple went to Altoona for visit on Thursday.
Mr. William Hanley, jr., is visiting riends in Columbus, O.
Mr. T. H. Watkins and family have re-They were talking about good housekeeping and each one was expressing ner theory regarding the matter of urned from Crystat lake. G. W. Frost, of Dunmore, visited Tunk-annock friends this week. One woman declared emneatness. phatically "If I had been told fifteen Mass Emma Hanley has been visiting years ago that anybody would ever Pittston friends this week.

Mrs. Katherine E. Wilcox has taken apartments at Hotel Nash. enter my house and see a speck of dust from top to bottom I should never have spoken to the person again who W. L. King, of North Lincoln avenue, visiting at Wilkes-Barre. had been so rash as to make such an Miss Lizzie Layton, of Larksville, is isling friends at Scranton.
Miss Lizzie McLaughlin, of Forest City, assertion. Now the information wouldn't offend me at all for I have learned wisdom in these fifteen years and have also learned to recognize the Mrs. Barnard Cissel has returned to er home in Elizabeth, N. J. fact that a woman may be a moral and respectable member of society and yet not be entirely immaculate in the Pelham Manor in a fortnight.
Miss Mary Tracy, of Honesdale, has been visiting Miss Annie Hand. way of dust, particularly if she lives in Scranton where a considerable por-Mrs. H. E. Paine will go to Philadel-hia on a business trip Monday. Mlss Lizzie Matthews, who has been tion of coal dust enters into the composition of her food, her breath and most other details of daily life. scriously ill, is slowly recovering.

Miss Hilda Snyder, of West Pittston, is the guest of Miss Jennie Fellows.

"In fact," went on the philosophic speaker, "I have discovered that while it is a great virtue to have everything spick-span clean and free from dust every minute of the day, and it really day with friends in Wilkes-Barre.
Mr. and Mrs. William Howarth, of West
Pittsson, were in the city Thursday.
Myer Davidow will leave this morning for New York city on a business trip.
Al Turner, of Jackson street, attended the fair at Turkhannock vesteriay. gives a sort of feeling that one is prepared for even death itself, there is also a kind of satisfaction in being able to read a new book now and then. to keep up with the best magazine the fair at Tunkhannock yesterday, Mrs. W. W. Scranton and Miss Belin will return from Europe on Tuesday, literature and to be familiar with the topics of the day in order to understand people who are worth talking to Charles Gelbert, of the University of Connsylvania, is visiting his parents, Miss Lizzie Suydam has returned from and being heard. You can't do this if you allow yourself to be utterly miscrable because a fly gets in the house, or the maid has allowed herself to absent mindedly neglect to wipe the dust Poor Director Frederick Fuller spent from the left ear of the jardiniere dragon on the veranda. Neither will you be able to talk about much of anything beyond the troubles with your 'help,' Miss Lizzie Eppling, of West Market street, has returned from Stroudsburg. Mr. C. J. Gillispie has returned from an the 'slack' way other people have of doing things and what Mrs. X told you about her neighbor."

"I don't know why it should be so," remarked another member of the group wenue, has returned from New York thoughtfully' "but did you ever notice that almost everybody has an untidy trait of some sort, even these remarkweek on business before the property ably " pl's'n clean" women, as one old Frank Koch, of New Jersey, is the guest lady termed the painfully neat houseof his uncle, Victor Koch, of the Scranton wives?"

"Why, I know a woman," she continued, "one of the old fash-ioned housekeepers who personally Miss Edith Pierson, returned home on Tuesday. watches after every detail of the work. She has been heard to boast that she defied any one to be able to detect the a friend with you. tiniest fleck of dust on her hard wood floors even by brushing their surface with the finest cambric handkerchief. But this model housekeeper once shockday of her arrival, casually announced visiting relatives in Williamsport and Muncy, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Will Wright and baby, of that she must go out and buy a tooth brush, having forgotten to pack one, by remarking in all good faith 'Oh. don't you bother to go out after a tooth brush. There is George's in the bathroom. You can use it and welcome.' visiting Mrs. J. G. Gardner, 626 North George was her grown-up son. Imag- body is invited. ine it! and yet she was about the most particular person I ever knew."

guest of Miss Sesan Black at her home in Nicholson. Editor W. C. Cruser, of the Montrose After everyone present had duly expressed amazement at this incident an-Democrat, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. other member of the party remembered Miss Myrtle Savitts, of South Filmore a dear old lady who always washed the caue, has returned from a sojourn at cat every week to that animal's vast discomfort, and cleaned house perpetually to the discomfort of the remainder nell are to return to Miss Graham's school next week. of the family, but who invariably used Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoffman, of the the same towel for wiping the dishes mpton, are entertaining Mrs. Charles during a whole week, no matter how Lake, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Shives, of Madison darkly undesirable became its condivenue, are home after a week's stay at Inion Spring, N. Y.

Still another had a reminiscence which inexpressibly shocked her hear-ers. It was of a "neat housekeeper," during the past week.
Eugene Morse, of North Hyde Park avenue, spent yesterday at the Tunkhanwhose fame for miraculous cleanliness extended far and wide. Her spotless The Misses Katle and Margaret Monafloors, dustless furniture and shining 22. All are welcome to attend these han, of Tobyhanna, are the guests of window panes were proverbial in the village in which she served as a model. Miss Emma Karr has returned from She always took a foot bath at night. Barre, where she attended the Now there is nothing especially startling in this statement, but her house Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker have been was one of the old fashioned sort unprovided with bath tubs, and a visitor Miss Katherine Hart, of New York city, visited at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Burnett during the week. was somewhat dismayed to observe that the tin basin which served as a foot bath for her hostess at evening Quartermaster W. J. Tracey returned hursday afternoon to Lattimer to rewas also thriftily employed in the morning as a receptacle in which the Mr. and Mrs. C. Cross, who have been potatoes for the moontide meal were visiting friends in this city, have returned prepared for boiling. "Yes," continued another speaker, "I believe you're right Mrs. Y. about the untidy trait to be found in every one. regards neatness, but I have a friend who is particular to the verge of crank-Dr. O'Brien will soon remove from Adams avenue into his new house on Jefferson avenue, corner of Spruce street.

Mr. L. C. Hessler and wife and Helen Stevens have returned from Ocean Grove, where they spent the summer months.

Mr. W. H. Perkins has been seriously ill iness about the way everything should be done and how it should be kept, and I know she secretly criticises my housekesping, yet she often does things that I consider queer to say the least. For instance I was always religiously taught to remove the dainty white spread from the bed at night and fold carefully away, not soiling it by tossing about in slumber. My friend not only rumples her handsomest coun-The Misses Grace and Edith Norton and Arthur Jones are home again after a very pleasant summering in the Adirondacks. terpanes but in the morning throws the bed clothing back where it trails on Mr. W. J. Brown will go to Pitteburg the floor, soiling not only spreads, but today to join Mrs. Brown, who has been her beautiful blankets and necessitat-visiting in that city for the past two ing frequent launderings and therefore unreasonable wear on the heavy articles."

"I have another friend who is a model ousekeeper as far as waging continual war on dust is concerned but she allows her children and her maids to bang and Mrs. Warren Spencer, of Pleasant Mount, has returned home after visiting friends on North Main avenue for the bruise the furniture and to mar her lovely woodwork until her house looks shabby enough after only a few years

f service. "Dear me, I know a woman who is worse than that," exclaimed a listener who had been keeping still, "Why she variably wees down to the kitchen ombing her hair as she goes and coninuing to comb it as she gives her

"Well, you must have some queer acquaintances," rather sarcastically marked a woman who had been keeping still, but who at this point walked out of the room.

"Dear me!" exclaimed one of the others, "did we say anything about her?" looking around with an air of misgiving. Then the party broke up, and as the various chatterers separated each wondered audibly what their particular shortcoming in the way of neat-ness could be, and each thought privately that she could designate the failing of the others.

Religious

The members of the Baptist pastors conference and their wives will meet in the Baptist church at Waverly next Monday, Programme: 10.30, vacation reminiscences; 12.00, dinner served by the ladies of the church; 1.30, a dis-cussion of "The Dea conate;" (a) "The Duties of the Office," led by Rev. T. E. Jepson; (c) "The Qualifications of the Man," led by Rev. Thomas De Gruchy. The discussion will be followed by the ordination of a deacon.

Miss Fanny J. Crosby, the noted hymn writer, will tell the story of hymns at the Railroad Department Young Men's Christian associa-tion on Sunday afternoon at 3.45 o'clock. Miss Crosby 'is probably the most prolific hymn writer that the world has ever seen. She has written in the neighborhood of seven thousand poems most of them hymns, and at the age of 77 shows the same power and delicacy of expression. In spite of her blindness and years, Miss Crosby is wonderfully bright her conversation betrays and active mind, much interested in affairs of today as well as rich in reminiscence. A collection will be taken at the meeting for the state committee of the Pennsylvania Young Men's Christian association,

The official board of the Simpson Methodist church met last evening to frame resolutions on the death of J. Plummer Acker.

Dr. L. C. Floyd, presiding elder of the Binghamton district, was in the city this week, attending the funeral of Mr. Acker.

The programmes are out for the Minsterial association meeting for the Wyoming district to be held October 4 and 5 at Carverton.

The report that Rev. Mr. Crydenwise, of Lestershire, N. Y., was stricken down with paralysts is untrue.

Rev. J. H. Race, of Binghamton, N. Y.; Rev. L. C. Murdock, of Kingston, Pa.; Rev. S. Simpkins, of Peckville, Pa.; and Rev. H. H. Wilbur, of Factoryville. Pa., yesterday met the city pastors of the Methodist Episcopal churches in the parlors of Young Men's Christian association for the purpose of planning for a coming Wyoming conference Epworth league conven-

The special Gospel service that will be held Sunday at 3.45 p. m. in the South Side W. C. T. U. rooms, 1021 Cedar avenue. Every woman is invited to attend. Miss Hannawald, the She has been heard to boast that she sirging evangelist, will speak. Bring

Mrs. Captain Hoppes, of the Volunteers of America, has recovered from her recent illness and her exquisite ed a young woman guest who, on the voice will be heard again at the Volunteer meetings. The new captains have taken hold of the work with a vim and have a number of special meetings planned for the future. One of these will be the Christian Endeavor meeting. There will be services every night and all day Sunday, to which every-

The following programme will be rendered at the Penn Avenue Baptist church tomorrow:

Organ prelude, Cantilina

(from Stabat Mater)Rossini Offertory, Organ, AndanteAllen Quartette "Saviour Breathe an Evening Blessing"Stebin PostludeGullmant The old school Baptist church of Justus, Pa., will hold a two days' meeting Tuesday and Wednesday, Sept. 21 and

Rev. A. C. Derr, of Ashland, Ohio, will occupy the pulpit of the Puritan Congregational church Sabbath morning and evening. Morning subject, "Developing Our Talents;" evening subject, "Lessons Learned from the Vineyard." All cordially invited.

Attorney A. V. Bower will address the men's service in the Y. M. C. A., Sunday at 3.45 p. m. The subject of address will be "Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So." A cordial invita-tion is extended to all men who read this notice to come to this service, and I was carefully brought up myself as to bring their friends. Strangers are Tomorrow's Services.

St. Luke's parish-Rev. Rogers Israel rector: Rev. E. J. Haughton, curate. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. The parish church will be open for service on the 26th inst, Tomorrow the rector will hold service in St. Mark's mission, Dummore, corner Blakely and Potter streets, 8.30 a.m., hely communion; 16.30, morning sermon and prayer; 3 p. m., Sunday school: 4 p. m., evening prayer, Throop and Laurel Hill cars pass the

The Church of the Good Shepherd, Green Ridge street and Monsey avenue,-Services for the 14th Sunday after Trinity. Holy communion, 8 a. m.; morning prayer, Litany sermon, 10.30; Sunday chools and Bible classes, 2.30; evening orayer and sermon, 7.30, All seats. All Seventh Day Adventists-Services in large pavilion near Mason & Snowden's lumber yard, still continue with good in-terest. Subject. Sunday at 2.99, "Char-ity." Sunday evning at 7.39, "The True Israel of God." All are invited. All Souls' Universalist Church—Rev. F. W. Whitnen, pastor. Morning subject.

W. Whippen, pastor, Morning subject, "The Great Christian Truths Old Truths." Evening subject, "Gaining the World and cosing the Life."

St. Mark's Lutheran Church—Rev. A.
L. Ramer, Ph. D., pastor. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. Services at 10.30 a.
m. and 7.30 p. m. Luther league 6.30 p.
m. Sunday school at 12 noon. The Festival of Harvest at morning service, Evening subject, "The Uplifting Hand," Zion's Lutheran Church-Rev, P. F. Zizelmann, pastor, Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. Service 19.30 a. m. Sunday

St. Peter's Lutheran Church-Rev. W. Randolph, pastor. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. Service 10.30 a. m. Sunday Christ Lutheran Church-Rev. H. Lisse, INDORSED BY GEN. HENRY.

Newly Appointed Consul to Quebec Recommends Paine's Celery Compound.

Quebec, has been grand master of a grand lodge of Masons, is a member of curing diseases of the nervous system portant organs of and in building up those who are weak ever come to light. the I. O. O. F. and G. A. R., having been commander in his state of Vermont. His war record was brilliant. Enlisting as a private, he was engaged in the first battle of Bull Run. He was promoted for bravery to first lieutenant, soon rose to be major, was promoted to a lieutenant colonelcy; then became colonel, and in 1865 was breveted brigadier general for meritorious service during the war. He was wounded at the battles of Cold Harbor, Monacacy, and four times at the battle of Cedar Creek. He has been state senator from two different districts, was U. S. marshal for seven years, and mayor of Burlington for two terms. Coming from such a man, such an indorsement as follows must be appreciated by any one: Qeubec, Sept. 7, 1897. To the Proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound:

It gives me great pleasure to indorse Paine's celery company, both on account of the results obtained from per-

Desperate diseases, such as rheumatism, blood impurity, neuralgia or nervous debility, that bring down the strength of the whole body can not be got rid of as one does a scratch or a Heart weakness, kidney disease, chronis headaches and enlarged liver and spleen are not self-terminating d'sorders. Like all the desperate diseases, they demand a thoughtful, scientific

William W. Henry.

There never has been a remedy so thoroughly grounded in a knowledge of that disease.

what the sick body needs in these discases as Paine's celery compound. Paine's calery compound is the remarkable result of profound investiga-president has appointed to be consul to of the remarkable cures it has per- It is the greatest nerve invigorator, blood purifier and regulator for the imformed. I believe it has no equal in portant organs of the body that has and out of health. It has cured several The languor, the nervousness and the the second to be elected department friends of mine of rheumatism in its pain in the region of the heart or the worst form, and I have no hesitancy in kidneys are cured by Paine's celery recommending it to all afflicted with compound because the origin of these disorders is easily traced to an impoverished condition of the nerves and a poor state of the blood.

This great invigorator does nothing at haphazard. Its aim is to feed the exhausted nervous tissues as soundly sprain, by letting them cure themselves, I thy digestion and assimilation, and step by step with this building-up process as vital work of driving out every trace of vicious humor and poisonous matter

In every case-and there are thousands of such cases throughout the country-where Paine's celery compound has cured rheumatism, nervous prostration, neuralgia or that very common "run-down" condition-in every case recovery has been by this tion and close medical study by that same building-up process, that omits eminent professor of the Dartmouth no step in making the cure lasting and and Vermont medical schools Prof. Ed- for a lifetime.

Church—Re. George T. Price, paster, Preaching at 1.5 a. m. and 7.39 p. m. Morning subject, "The Right Spirit;" evening subject, "The Marveious Change." Epworth league prayer meeting at 6.30 p. m. St. David's Church-Hyde Park, Morning prayer, 10.30 o'clock; Sunday senool, o'clock; evening prayer and sermon by Rev. Rogers Israel, of St. Luke's church, at 7.30 o'clock. Green Ridge Presbyterian church— Morning service, 16.39. Evening service, 7,30. Sermons by Rev. Isaac J. Lansing,

D. D. Bible achool at 12 o'clock. Prayer neeting of the Endeavor society at Grace Reformed Episcopal church, Wyoming avenue, below Mulberry street, Prayer and praise service, 9.30 a. m.; diine worship, 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Preaching by the pastor at both services Sabbath school at 12 m.; Y. P. S. C. E. 630 p. m. Seats all free. Strangers always welcome. Thursday, 7.45 p. m.; Union Bible class for the study of the esson. All welcome.

Pirst Presbyterian church.—Rev. James McLeod, D. D., pastor. Services 10.39 and 7.39 p. m.; Y. P. S. C. E., 6.39 p. m.; Sunday school, 12.15 (noon). Dr. McLeod will preach in the morning and Dr. William C. Alexander, of North Carolina, in the
C. vening. Strangers welcome. Elm Park church.—Rev. C. M. Giffin,

D. D., pastor Prayer and praise service at 9.30; preaching at 10.30 a, m.; Sunday school at 2 and Epworth League at 6.30 p. m.; at 7.30 Chautauqua Vesper service Address by the pastor. Topic, "Reading." Howard Place A. M. E. church,—Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., pastor. Fourth En-A. Grant, R. D., pastor. Fourth Endowment day, First educational district, 19.39 a. m., theme "The Excellency of Wisdom": 2.30 and 7.40 p. m. The members of the Sunday school will have interest exercises. Special collections will be taken for the cause of education, Providence Presbyterian church—Rev. G#orge E. Guild, pastor. Morning theme, "Forth a Motive to Enterprise." Evening lesson, "A Shining Face." All services is usual. The seats of the church are

Penn Avenue Baptist church.-Dr.Dixon will preach in the morning at 10.30 on "Life's Oasis." In the evening at 7.30 on "Lattimer Morals." A welcome to labor and capital. Sunday school at 2 p. m.; Nay Aug Falis Mission school at 3.45 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6.30 p.m. Full choir at each scryics on Sunday choir at each service on Sunday,

Washburn Street Presbyterian church .-

Christian Endeavor; 6.45, Senior Christian Endeavor. 7.30, evening services; subject, "The Bärrel and the Cruse." Mr. Crott Will sing a tenor solo before the sermons. Seats free. All welcome.

Court fireet Methodist Episcopal some of her sweet hymns. The quariette of the church wil also render a number of Second Presbyterian Church-Rev. Chas. E. Robinson, D. D., pastor, Services 19.30 a. m. and 7.39 p. m. The pastor will preach in the evening on 'Why I am a Presbyterian," All seats free at night. All welcome at all services. First Church of Christ (Scientist) No. 519 Adams avenue.—Sunday service 10.30 a. m. Testimonial meeting Friday evening at 8 o'clock. All welcome. Seats free. The People's Prohibition.—Rev. Dr. Bird, pastor. There will be regular preaching service in the hall, No. 323 Adams avenue on Sunday at 10.30 a, m. and 7.30 p. m.; Sunday school at 12 m. Morning subject, "The Only Way." Evening subject, "The Lattimer Carrage the Shadow of a Great Revolution." Everybody welcome, First Baptist church, Scranton street,

Rev. S. F. Mathews, pastor. Prayer meet-ing, 10 a. m., leader, Deacon John Owens. The usual preaching services morning and evening of the Sabbath by the pastor. The evening service will begin with a song and praise service, Sunday school 2 p. m., Dr. Beddee, superintendent. Young people's prayer meeting, 6.39 p. m.,

Gospel According to Matthew:" In the evening, "For the Master's Sake." The evening service will open with a responsive process arrives. sive praise service. Grace Evangelical church, corner Madison and Mulberry street.—Rev. Foster U. Gift, pastor. Services at 10.39 a. m. and at Gift, pastor. Services at 10.39 a. m. and at 7.39 p. m.; Sabbath scheel at 9.39 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E. at 6.39 p. m.

Clark's Summit, M. E. church.—Rev. Frank W. Youngs, pastor. Preaching at 19 a. m. and 7.45 p. m. Themes respectively for morning and evening are: "The Source of a Full Joy" and "An Immovable Christian." Sunday school at 10. a. m. Epworth League at 7 p. m. All are cordaily invited to any and all of these services. services Providence Methodist Episcopal church,

Rev. William Edgur, pastor. The usual services will be held. The pastor will preach at 10.30 a.m. and 7.30 p.m. In the morning a number of persons will be re-ceived from probation into full membership. Sunday school at 2 p. m.; Epworth League at 6.45. All are invited.

Jackson Street Baptist church.-Rev Thomas de Grueby, pastor. Preaching at 19.30 by the pastor. Topic, "The Desert-er." Bible school at 2 p. m.; Continental Christ Lutheran Church—Rev. H. Lisse, pastor. Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity.

Services 10.30 a. m. Sunday school 2 p. m. Rev. John P. Moffat, pastor. Services at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.; Bible school at 2 p. m.; Continental 2 m.; Junior Christian Endeavor at 3.30 son street and Monroe avenue. Rev. George W. Welsh, paster. Services, 10.30 a. m.; Senior Christian Endeavor at 3.30 p. m.; Senior Christian Endeavor at 3.30 p. m.; Senior Christian Endeavor at 6.20 p. m.; Praise and song worship for fiften minutes to be followed by a short service. The Law of the Lord."

11.45 a. m., Sunday school; 6.15, Junior Christian Endeavor at 5.30 p. m.; Praise and song worship for fiften minutes to be followed by a short service is for the people. Seats are all free. Strangers welcomed.

MUSICAL NOTES.

Miss Clementine Sheldon, the wellknown soprano, formerly of the First Methodist church, Wilkes-Barre, was married on Wednesday at her home in Waverly, N. Y., to Mr. C. F. Hess, of Binghamton.

choir, numbering thirty voices, under the leadership of Professor Lewis Davies, has consented to give a concert at the Hillside Home for the benefit of the inmates on Wednesday, Sept. 29, The Hemberger String quartette are rehearsing for their series of Chamber concerts and promise more interesting

The Jackson Street Baptist church and popular programmes than hereto-The mandolin virtuoso, Valentine Abt, will play in this city some time during October. He is considered the greatest living exponent of that instrument. Mr. J. M. Chance spent a delightful vacation at his old home in Illinois, and at New England, and is now back at work. Mr. Chance's classes in music are now full. He will resume his plane talks this season. Mr. Henry Dryer, recently baritons of the Second Presbyterian church, has gone to the New England Conservatory. The Albany Evening Journal of

Aug. 31 publishes the following regarding a former Scranton musician: The Lyric Music company, of Syracuse, has published a beautiful anthem for quartet or chorus, entitled "The Pilgrims of the Night," by Mr. George Noyes Rockwell, who for a number of years was a potent factor in the musical life of Albany. This anthem is very melodious, well written and is sure to have a large use by choirmasters. The opening theme in the key of D is smooth and flowing, and is followed by a fine solo for contralto in the key of G minor. The key changes to D again at the close of the solo, and the anthem is brought to a close by a finely workedout idea for quartet and chorus. Mr. Rockwell occupies a front rank among the composers of music for the church. and "The Pilgrims of the Night" is one of his very best efforts. The anthem is dedicated to Mr. George Edgar Oliver, organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's