A second car following closely after struck the year end of the Throop car, slightly damaging the cars. The passengers escaped

Mrs. Mary E. Griffiths, of Cleveland, O., delivered a second lecture at the Young Men's Christian association last evening on the subject, "The Hope of the New Age-Perfect Mental and Physical Health." The lecture was well attended No admission fee is charged. Mrs, Griffiths will deliver two other lec-tures next week, Wednesday and Thursday, at the Young Men's Christian as sociation.

The great floral parade at the annual Chatham fair, Chatham, N. Y., will be doubly interesting to Scrantonians from the fact a special prize was awarded to Scrantonians, as will be seen by the fol-lowing clipping from the Albany Satur-day Argus: "One of the most striking novelties of the parade was the representation of a steam launch, very realistic, operated by Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wagner, riding their bicycles side by side. They were rightfully complimented with a speciai prize. The wheels ridden were Lack-awanna bicycles, manufactured by the Electric City Manufacturing company, of Scranton. The parade was witnessed by 18,000 people."

AUTUMN LEAF RALLY.

Christian Endeavorers Will Hold it Today at Glen Onoko.

This morning a large party of Christian Endeavorites will leave on the 7.50 Delaware and Hudson train for Glen Onoka to participate in the autumn leaf rally to be held at that picturesque resort. The arrangements have been in the hands of State Transportation Agent J. C. Manning, acting for the Tri-County union.

A very interesting and instructive programme has been arranged. There will be chorus singing. Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., of Philadelphia, and Rev. George B. Stewart, D. D., of Harrisburg, are two of the principal speakers for the occasion.

SOUTH SIDE PEOPLE ARE NOT PLEASED

the Report of the Viewers.

Now That the Attention of Councils Has Been Called to the Matter it is Probable That the Directions Will Be Given to Prosecute the Appenl or Else Other Localities Will Claim Similar Treatment.

South Side property owners are much exercised over the appeal that has been taken from the report of viewers in the matter of the sewer for that part of the city. They fear that it will prove a death-blow to the sewer or at least delay it for some time. Now that the attention of councils has been called to the matter, it is likely the city fathers will order the appeal to be prosecuted, or if that is not done the councilmen who have sewer projects under consideration will insist on having their localities cared for at the same time the South Side is.

That will mean that the city must ra'se several hundred thousand dollars to build sewers. It also means long, tedious delays and that is the prospect that exasperates the South

They hoped the matter would be permitted to go by default until the thirty days for taking an appeal from the report of the viewers had expired and then the city would be forced to pay its share of the South Side sewer and the work of constructing it could proceed at once. Most of the prominent residents of that part of the city have for years been urging the necessity of that improvement. The fact that property in that part of the city has not increased any in value for several years is almost entirely due, they say, to the absence of a sewer system, for few are willing to erect such buildings as would be an improvement to the neighborhood under existing conditions.

The decision of the Supreme court in the Williamsport case that has caused all the trouble with reference to sewer construction, plainly states that property cannot be assessed more for a sewer than each drainage would cost and unless a sewer with all its laterals is built complete, in the future at some time, the city must be prepared to assume the payment of a good portion of the cost of the work. Even where the system for an entire district is undertaken at once it is questionable if the city would not still be required to pay a portion of the cost of the main or trunk sewer.

This subject of sewer construction will give the city councils interesting matter to wrestle with for several weeks.

WILL STORE MORE ICE.

tevens and Silsbee Scenre Control of Belmont Lake. Stevens and Silsbee, of the Scranton Ice company, have just secured control of Belmont Lake, a beautiful body of water in Wayne county, near Poyntelle, where they already have large ice houses. They will erect store houses on the shores of the lake immediately, which will be filled during the coming season in order to supply the increasing demands of their trade. Belmont Lake is one of the finest within the border of Wayne county; and tons of the purest ice can be taken from it in the course of a season. The water, like that in the vicinity of Poyntelle, is very clear, and is entirely free from impurities that are often found in lakes in this re-

This enterprising firm also has the option upon several other bodies of water in Wayne, which have been secured in order that the demands of those who desire to keep cool during the coming seasons may be supplied entirely from the Poyntelle region. where, owing to its great elevation, the finest ice is obtained at an early date in this season.

A BIG HEART.

John J. Black and Company Will Be Seen in It at Davis.

John J. Black will appear at the Davis theater for a limited engagement of three nights and three mat inees, commencing Monday, Sept. 10. As a portrayer of eccentric characters Mr. Black stands without a peer, and as a dancer he is known from Maine to California.

His new play is entitled "A Big Heart," and serves as a vehicle to introduce himself and a really clever company of players, notable among whom will be found Cecil J. Lionel, late of "Too Much Johnson," and Dee C. Seldon, of Klaw & Erlanger's companies. F. C. Wyckoff is the principal comedian, and as a laughmaker is unrivalled.

Miss Schuyler, late of Edward Harrigan's company, is a singer of descriptive songs, and has a metropolitan reputation, and helps in no little degree to make this attraction the success it really is.

SERGEANT COURSEN RETURNS.

Arrived in the City Last Night on 24-Hour Furlough.

Sergeant Major Harry Coursen, of the Thirteenth regiment, arrived from Hazleton last night on a twenty-four hour furlough. He must be in camp by 4 o'clock this afternoon. The discipline, he said, is very severe. Furoughs without a good excuse are out of the question and the customary diversions of camp life are impossible. Sergeant Major Coursen said in regard to the strike situation that the reports of The Tribune's correspondent, T. J. Duffy, give a perfect and impartial view of the situation.

GOLF PLAYING IN BINGHAMTON.

This is the way they play golf in Binghamton, according to the Binghamton Republican: Elmira golfers were scheduled to meet a quartette of Binghamton players at the links at the Casino yesterday, but for some reason the visitors did not put in an appearance. Quite a crowd of golf enthusiasts visited the Casino to see the playing, but had to be content with the exhibitions by local players. It is likely that another attempt will be made to arrange a match with Elmira next

Golf is fast becoming popular with the society people here and every pleasant afternoon the links at the Casino are well filled. To one unacquainted with the game it does not look like the most exciting of sports. To the religious editor who visited the Casino yesterday it looked like a mild form of exercise adopted by society +++++++++++++++++++++++++ because it is too uninteresting and expensive to become popular with people who do not have time and money in generous quantities to devote to the sport. One of the young men playing xplained the game to the reporter: "To be properly equipped you want from six to a dozen different clubs, as Did Not Want Appeal Taken from it is not much of a player who will use the same stick twice in getting around one. Of course you are very apt to break a stick, but you can remedy that for $2. Then you want a pocketful of NECESSITY FOR A SEWER GREAT balls, little white balls of hard rubber A good player loses a good many balls, but they only cost thirty cents aplece A caddy, that is a small boy who carries your clubs and helps you find the balls for ten cents a round, completes the equipment. "You start on a square platform a few inches above the ground. The good player spends some time in making an artistic pile of sand upon which he places the ball. The ball in proper shape, you 'slug' it just as hard as you can, first warning the boy to look in all directions at the same time for the ball. You hit the ball and it goes somewhere, in what direction or how far is immaterial. The object that is vaguely impressed upon your mind is that you are to get the ball into a hole across the fields where a red flag shows itself. There is no hurry about getting there, the good player never hurries. Of course the game is to see which player can get the ball into the hole with the least number of strokes. You see it isn't the time it takes, but the number of times. After you hav hunted an hour or so for lost balls and walked several mils you will have had exercise enough. That's all." The reporter thanked the young man for his lucid explanation and refused to see if he could lose a ball the first time he

OPINION FAVORABLE

Case Against Dunmore Borough.

Vito Gerardi owned two lots on Wilstreet, Dunmore, Southeast of these lots the land rises very abruptly and falls away in the opposite direction to the northwest. The borough of Dunmore was about to make some improvements which would throw a great quantity of surface water onto Gerardi's property and he asked the equity side of the court to protect his inter-In his opinion Judge Archbald says the law applicable to these facts is as follows:

First-As the water course across the plaintiff's land, although a natural one, is one of surface drainage merely, in the improvement of his lots or for the purpose of using them as town lots, he has the right to refuse to receive the surface water flowing in it and to dam it back from his land by the obstructions which he has put in the channel.

Third-Under the facts and circumstances of this case, the discharge of the stances of this case, the discharge of the surface water flowing from Laurel street onto the plaintiff's property through the drain or irra pipe proposed to be laid by the borough across Willow street from the foot of Laurel to the mouth of the old channel leading into the plaintiff's property, would be a constant trespass working constant and serious damage which the plaintiff is entitled to have re-

Judge Culberson Merely Asked His Constituent to Have Something. From the Washington Post.

David B, Culberson, one of the ablest and most distinguished men in public life, and recognized as the greatest lawyer now in the house of representatives, will retire from public life on the 4th of March next, after a cantinuous service in the house of twenty years. His son, Charles Culberson, has about completed one term as governor of the state of Texas, and is about to begin There will also be the latest news and the second. This is, perhaps, a unique illustrations on the great coal miners record, where the father is serving in congress and the son as executive field than can be found in any other his state. One of the most noted instances where members of the same family have been in public life in high The Philadelphia Sunday Press is the positions at the same time is that of the Washburn family, where the three brothers, Israel, Elihu B., and Cadwallader C. -Maine, Illinois, and Wisconsin. Mr. Culberson retires from public life of his own volition. He was seriously considered by President Cleve-Gunkle, has informed Chief Hickey land for the portfolio of attorney that they will come to this city for a general in his cabinet. Mr. Culertson is a large man, and rather phlegmatic in manner. He has never been accused of being in love with the routine work of his profession or of congress, but he has practiced his profession successfully and made an excellent judge on the Texas state bench, while in congress he took rank with the leading minds of that body.

A constituent of his who was here not long ago, insists that the judge is a diplomat as well as a lawyer and statesman.
