UNION LABEL APPEARS TO BE MENTED.

Neighbors Complain of Mrs. Anthony Wintermantel of the South Side.

The patrol wagon, with Patrolmen Saul and Mackey, was called to the South Side yesterday to assist Patrolman Haggerty in arresting Mrs. Anthony Wintermantel, of 730 Alder street. The woman is probably suffering from mental derangement. Yesterday she disturbed the entire neighborhood with her loud shrieks and threats to kill all who came under her eye.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hauser, who live in the rear of the lot, were among those who Mrs. Wintermantel swore vengeance for some imaginary wrong. Mr. Hauser went before Alderman Storck and had a warrant issued for the woman's arrest. Patrolman Haggerty, who is on duty in the South Side precinct, thought it better to have assistance. At 3 o'clock when the police officers entered the Wintermantel house the woman was sitting in a chair industriously mending a garment. Her four small children were playing about the floor. One is but three years old.

When Mrs. Wintermantel saw the policemen she became sullen and warned them not to take her. "I'll not go with you," she said. Her features plainly show the mental unbalance. A sister of the woman who, it seems, is the only one Mrs. Wintermantel will allow near her, begged the policemen to wait until the husband came home. "I don't know whether I'll go then or not," said Mrs. Wintermantel. The police officers thought it best to humor the woman so she was left in the house. Outside and on the hill tops thereabouts several hundred women were assembled to see the arrest. Mrs. Wintermantel is a middle aged woman. For the past two months she has shown symptoms of a deranged mind.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ZEIDLER.

Remains Followed to the Grave by Many Mourners. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Zeidler took place yesterday afternoon from the family home on Franklin avenue. The remains rested in a handsome black casket in the front parlor, surrounded by a profusion of flowers, the gift of friends. Among the floral pieces were a Gates Ajar, presented by the Ladies Aid society of Zion Lutheran church; Faith, Hope and Charity, by Miss Lorenze Zeidler; scythe, by W. Jackson; wreath, by Mr. and Mrs. Danner; bouquets by Charles and John Schadt, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Shell-hase, J. Schlager, Mrs. Shoenfelt, Mrs. Keeling, Mrs. Poust, and Miss Hall. The employees of the deceased sent a cross and the family's gift was a pillow inscribed "Mother."

The residence was crowded with mourners. After a brief service conducted by Rev. J. Zitelman, of Zion Lutheran church, the cortege moved to the church, where a second service was held. Interment was made in North Washington avenue cemetery where the remains will rest temporarily. At the completion of a vault at Dunmore cemetery, the remains will be removed there. At the grave the Lederkrantz sang beautifully.

The pallbearers were: Peter Zeigler, Albert Zonke, Joseph Ober, John Koch, Henry Armbrust and George Kinback. The flower bearers were: John Schadt, Thomas E. Northup, John J. Ginter and J. C. Tuttle.

SAY THEY WERE ROBBED.

Two Charges Result in William Hall's Commitment to Jail. William Hall was sent to the county jail yesterday in default of $600 bail on two charges, larceny and embezzlement. The double hearing was given Thursday night in Alderman Howe's office.

Hall was employed by Contractor Max Phillips as a collector. It is alleged that he appropriated to his own use some of the money collected. The exact amount is not known. On this charge Hall was held in $300 bail. The second charge of larceny was made by John Kirm. He alleges that Hall stole his pants, in which was $1.75. Another $300 for hall was fixed on this charge. Hall's home is on the South Side.

TWO SUITS FOR DAMAGES.

Construction of a Sewer on West Side Responsible for Them. Suits against the city of Scranton were instituted yesterday by Patrick O'Connor and James Noone, who own properties on South Seventh street. Each asks damages in the sum of $5,000. They are represented by Attorneys Burns and Roylean.

In their declarations it is set forth that they own properties adjacent to Oxford creek which was converted into a sewer by the city in 1886. The construction of this sewer it is alleged caused surface water to lodge on their lots and fill the cellars with water during freshets and after severe rain storms for all of which they ask the city to give them compensation.

STATE CONVENTION OF POOR DIRECTORS

Opens in Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday Morning, Oct. 12.

PROGRAMME OF THE MEETING

Arrangements for the Convention Were Considered by the Poor Board at its Meeting yesterday—Papers Will Be Read by a Number of Directors of the State and There Will Also Be Interesting Addresses and Reports.

The session of the poor board yesterday afternoon was called to order by P. J. Murphy, who acted as president pro tem. There were but few applications for relief and the monotony of routine business was only relieved by a report from Attorney J. F. Scragg, who is chairman of the coming convention of the poor directors state association.

This convention will convene in this city on Tuesday morning, Oct. 12, at 10 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian association hall, and will last until Thursday evening. Three sessions will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday each, while Thursday will be devoted to entertainment of visiting delegates. It is expected that at least 500 delegates will be in attendance. Hotel Jermyan has been selected as headquarters. The programme for the convention is as follows:

TUESDAY, OCT. 12. The convention will convene at 10 a. m. and will be called to order by the president, Dr. James W. Walk.

Address of Welcome. Hon. Robert W. Archbald, Scranton; Response to Address of Welcome. Robert D. McGonigle, Pittsburg, Pa. Response to Address of Welcome for C. A. S. Mrs. L. P. Wilson, Altoona; President Address. Dr. James W. Walk, Philadelphia.

Enrollment of Delegates. On the call of counties and institutions and societies, each head of directors of the poor, institution or society will prepare a list of delegates present and hand to the secretary.

Appointment of Committees. Committee on Officers. Committee on Auditing Accounts. Committee on Place of Next Meeting. Committee on Resolutions. Committee on Programme and Legislation will be appointed by the president-elect and published in the proceedings of the convention.

Appointment of Query Manager. AFTERNOON SESSION, 2 P. M. New Business. Miscellaneous Business. Address, "Qualifications, Responsibilities and Duties of Directors of the Poor." AFTERNOON SESSION, 2 P. M. Report of Committee on Legislation. Hon. E. P. Gould, Erie County Paper, "The Practicability of Helping the Poor to Help Themselves." J. S. Strine, Lancaster County Report, The Feeble-Mind Institution at Polk. Dr. J. Morehead Murdock, Venango Queries. Report of Counties. Report of Committee on Resolutions. Introduction of President-elect. Benediction. Adjournment, 5.30 p. m.

There will be no Wednesday evening session. Arrangements will be made to visit one of the great anthracite coal mines for all who wish to do so on this evening. The details will be announced at one of the sessions.

THURSDAY'S DOINGS. This day will be given up to visiting some of the many charitable institutions in and about Scranton. At 9 a. m. an invitation will be extended to all for a trip around the city on their electric railways.

The members will take cars at the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot for a visit to the new and beautiful almshouse of Scranton poor district (the time for this visit will be announced, which has just been completed. After seeing this institution, lunch will be served, returning to the city in the evening.

Invitations will be extended to the convention to visit the various hospitals in the city, and other points of interest, which will be announced during the sessions.

The local committee will leave nothing undone that will add to the comfort and pleasure of the visiting members evening. A bureau of information will be established in charge of the Children's Aid society.

Officers of the state association are: President, Dr. J. W. Walk, of Philadelphia; vice presidents, William L. Langstaff, Scranton; J. M. Goff, Lancaster county; Mrs. V. L. Blood, Jefferson county; E. E. Alshouse, Westmorland county; W. H. Oehre, Allegheny county; H. M. McLallen, Erie county; secretary, W. E. Hunger, Allegheny county; corresponding secretary, R. D. McGonigle, Allegheny county; treasurer, L. C. Colborn, Somerset.

The applications for aid or relief were referred or dismissed as each circumstance warranted.

Poor Director Reese G. Brooks, chairman of the Home Committee, made a verbal report of the visit of the committee to the Hillside Home, on Thursday afternoon. Everything was found in first-rate condition. The quarterly report of the poor board to the State was approved.

CHAPPELL WAS SNARED.

Went Out of His House to Get an Unwarranted Hearing. David Chappell, of Decker's court, of West Scranton, went before Alderman Howe yesterday morning and swore out warrants for the arrest of Morgan Harris, Hopkin Wetherlogg and Frank Joseph. He charges the men with assault and battery.

Last Wednesday evening was the time, Chappell says, the assault was committed. He was in his house when Morgan Harris called him out. When he reached the three men, Chappell says, they, without word, jumped upon him and despite his shrill cries for help he was left to their mercy. They showed none, and beat him badly. They stopped when they were tired. The warrants have not yet been served.

TOMORROW AFTERNOON'S MEETING.

It May Be Addressed by Eugene V. Debs. The mass meeting of local workmen at Nay Aug park tomorrow afternoon to take action on the Lattimer case will be addressed by the presence either of Eugene V. Debs, George Chance, president of the State Legislative Labor League, or Hugh O'Donnell, whose name became famous at Homestead. It is just probable that all three will be there, and it is certain that one at least of the celebrities will deliver an address.

President M. D. Flaherty, of the Central Labor union, stated last night that the committee in charge of the meeting will not know definitely until today, which of the three will be here. Philip J. Thomas, one of the active spirits, sent a telegram to P. J. Maguire, secretary and treasurer of the National Carpenters' and Joiners' union, asking him to make arrangements with Debs, Chance or O'Donnell. Mr. Thomas was assured that the wishes of the local unions would be satisfied. Secretary Maguire himself may also attend. Mr. Debs is down for an address in Hazleton tonight, and the closer proximity to Scranton may go a great way toward bringing about a visit here. He has never been in Scranton.

At all events the meeting tomorrow afternoon promises to be a large one. Mayor James G. Bateley has been asked to preside. The local men who will be invited to speak are: Senator J. C. Vaughn, Attorney A. J. Colburn, Captain R. E. Morris, E. J. Lynott, Hon. John E. Barrett, Lyle S. Richard, Hon. Joseph A. Scranton, Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, City Solicitor M. A. McGlinchey, John M. Hart, Captain James Molr and City Treasurer C. G. Boland.

The meeting will be called at 2 o'clock. In regard to the rumor current yesterday that the meeting would be used to bring about a strike in this region, President Flaherty said that the idea is ridiculous.

ENCROACHED ON ITS LAND.

North End Lumber Company Asks Damages in the Sum of $5,000. The North End Lumber company is plaintiff in an action to recover $5,000 damages brought yesterday against the West Ridge Coal company. Vosburg & Dawson filed the declaration in the case.

The Lumber company owns land at North Main avenue and Green Ridge street, which extends eastward to a branch road running into the West Ridge colliery. It is alleged that the coal company, in excavating along the line of this branch road, encroached on the plaintiff's land, caused the bank to crumble, and, in doing so, destroyed buildings, and injured the structures resting thereon.

ANNUAL REUNION AT WILKES-BARRE

Held There Yesterday by the 132d Regiment, P. V.

NEXT REUNION AT ANTIETAM

C. D. Sloan, of Bloomsburg, Was Chosen President, and D. J. Newman, of This City Secretary—Beautiful Memorial Window for Sharpburg, Md., Church Was Inspected by the Veterans—Thomas Barrowman Presided Over the Reunion.

The One Hundred and Thirty-second regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, held its tenth annual reunion in Wilkes-Barre yesterday. There was a large attendance of members. President Thomas Barrowman, of this city, presided at the afternoon session. Prayer was offered by H. B. Fortner, of Beech Haven, Pa. The roll was then called by the secretary. The report of officers and committees was read in order. The committee on monuments on the battlefield of Antietam reported progress. After the transaction of much routine business the following officers were elected:

President, C. D. Sloan, Bloomsburg, Pa.; first vice-president, H. T. John, Mount Carmel, Pa.; second vice-president, M. F. Lichtner, Philadelphia; secretary, D. J. Newman, Scranton; treasurer, P. C. Wintermuth, Mauch Chunk; chaplain, Rev. H. B. Fortner, Beech Haven, Pa.

It was agreed to hold the next reunion at Antietam and the two hundred members of the regiment who are scattered through the west will be urged to attend.

The regiment had on exhibition in the Grand Army of the Republic hall a beautiful memorial window which is to be placed in the Lutheran church at Sharpburg, Md.

WAS IT A FIT?

The Doctors Said No But Mayor Bateley Thought Otherwise. Charles Crank saw in The Tribune of a recent issue that John Scaldema had fooled the police by pretending he was sick, and instead of taking him to the police station he was sent to the Lackawanna hospital. Crank was arrested on Lackawanna avenue for drunkenness. He immediately twisted himself into a knot and tied up his face in a woeful look.

Crank was taken to the Lackawanna hospital in the ambulance. The hospital physicians, after an examination, found that there was nothing at all the matter with the fellow. He was then taken to the police station.

Mayor Bateley couldn't agree with the hospital physicians and believed that Crank had a fit. The man was discharged.

NOT LONG A WIDOWER.

John Puskar's Wife Died Aug. 24 and He is to Wed Again. John Puskar, of Plymouth, is evidently a firm believer in the idea embodied in the scriptural injunction that it is not well for man to live alone.

On Aug. 24, last, Puskar's wife died at Plymouth and yesterday he presented himself at the clerk of the court's office and asked for a marriage license that would permit him to marry Miss Julia Hisny, who stood by his side.

Puskar is thirty years of age and Miss Hisny is twenty-two. There is nothing in the law to prevent a man from displaying indecent haste in taking another wife after the death of the first sharer of his joys and sorrows, and the requisite license was issued.

Organ Recital.

COMMON PLEAS COURT.

Three Weeks Term Will Begin on Monday. Monday a three weeks' term of common pleas court will begin. Judge H. M. Edwards will preside in the main court room during the first week and Judge R. W. Archbald will be on the bench in court room No. 2.

Many opinions will be handed down Monday, although it is the first day of the term. There are a number of important cases to come up for trial during the coming term.

Students Secure Positions.

The following students of the Scranton Business College have secured good positions during the past few weeks: Miss Annie Gilloery, Elizabeth Carlyson, Hannah Gerrity, Harriet Lunney, Katie Burke, Anastasia Clifford, Alice Buckingham and Mary Black; Messrs. Peter J. Walsh, Eddie O'Donnell, Harry A. Smith, John T. O'Connor, Paul B. Kelly, Martin Conway, David W. Smith and Isaac Pierce.
