

OPINIONS FROM THE CITY PULPITS

Lattimer Trouble Was Pointedly Referred to Last Night by Ministers.

REMARKS OF REV. DR. DIXON

God Grant, He Said That the Bell May Just Now Be Mounded That Shall Ring Out the Feud of Rich and Poor—Rabid Utterances of Rev. Levi Bird—Rev. F. P. Doty's Solution for the Trouble.

Rev. Joseph K. Dixon in his sermon in the Penn Avenue Baptist church last night spoke at considerable length about the recent affair at Lattimer.

The century in which we live will be set down as one of great wealth and material progress, with the record of advance will also be written a social and industrial revolution. Before the progress is great, it must be solved and tact of an undoubted nature brought into full effect.

The hammer stroke that is to break to severance the difference between capital and labor must be mighty in its potency, wise as to its time, discreet as to where the blow shall be placed, and forceful enough to swing up all opposites.

These are pertinent questions. There is wrong everywhere. Who is guilty? Some wrongs are very strongly and truly put the question to three positions to men who are bent upon realizing their millions.

THREE PROPOSITIONS. "You must devote your life to the getting and keeping of other men's earnings. You must care little about other men's wants or sufferings or disappointments. You must care nothing for the poor."

What I want to launch at you tonight is that reduced wages or unjust wages means a scantier table, means hunger and cold, means intellectual starvation, if not the drying up of the very fountain of life.

Another Minister's View. Rev. Levi Bird addressed a small sized audience in an empty store room at 323 Adams avenue last night on the subject, "The Lattimer Carnage—The Shadow of a Great Revolution."

INSANE MAN AT THE HOSPITAL. He Has to Be Watched to Prevent Self-Destruction. Arthur Holtheim, 29 years old, whose parents live in Berlin, Germany, is at the Lackawanna hospital suffering from acute mania, a curable form of insanity.

Judge Wiley Will Speak. Tonight the board of trade will hold its first meeting since early in the summer. Judge Wiley of New York, author of "The Laborer and the Capitalist" will deliver an address on the tariff.

DIED. FIELD.—In Scranton, Sept. 19, 1897, at 10.15 p. m., Ralph Benton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Le Grande Field, of their residence, 59 Washington avenue. Funeral notice later.

TO-day it is SWEET CORN, CAULIFLOWER and TOMATOES that we will make a drive on.

THE SCRANTON CASH STORE.

ton Street Methodist church, used for his topic of his morning sermon, "The Golden Rule." He treated the subject in a new vein of reasoning. In the applications of the Rule, to every day life, the pastor made reference to the recent Lattimer affair.

SABBATH NEWS NOTES.

The annual autumn Sabbath school reunion in the Penn Avenue Baptist church will take place next Sabbath afternoon.

The after-noon service at the Young Men's Christian association as addressed by Attorney A. V. Bower. His topic was "Let the Redeemed of the Lord Say So."

The festival of the Harvest was observed at the morning service at St. Mark's Lutheran church yesterday. The pastor, Rev. A. L. Ramer, officiated, and special music was furnished by the choir.

Rev. Dr. William A. Alexander, of North Carolina, preached in the evening at the First Presbyterian church. In the morning a large congregation gathered for the service.

Mrs. Norvell, the evangelist and Bible teacher at Northfield, Mass., led the afternoon meeting at the Young Women's Christian association yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Griffiths, of Neath, South Wales, occupied the pulpit of the First Welsh Baptist church at both services yesterday.

BEHEADED AT D. L. & W. STATION.

Charles Newcomb, of Conking, O., Run Down by a Passenger Train. Charles Newcomb, of Conking, O., was killed at 1 o'clock this morning in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western yard.

The accident occurred at the end of the station platform. Newcomb with a companion were in charge of a car of poultry en route from the West to New York city.

The body was taken to the baggage room and afterward to Cusick's living. Coroner Longstreet will hold an inquest this morning.

LETTER FROM QUEEN VICTORIA.

Received by Rev. Dr. Joseph K. Dixon, of This City. A letter from Queen Victoria is not a commonplace epistle, but such has been received by Rev. Dr. Joseph K. Dixon, of the Penn Avenue Baptist church.

THE LYCEUM.

"Madame Sans Gene," Sardou's masterpiece with Marion Abbott in the title role, will be the attraction at the Lyceum this evening.

"The Prodigal Father," a farce comedy will be presented at the Academy for three nights, commencing tonight.

WOULD NOT BE WRONG.

"It would not be a wrong," said Mr. Bird, "if any one would come and try by peaceful means to have me stop preaching." He used this as an illustration.

Other personal history which Mr. Bird gave out was that he once worked in the mines near Hazleton and because he would not accept a bribe he was blacklisted.

Grand Jury Finds True Bills Against Van Horn and Abbate.

AN EQUITY SUIT ABOUT LAND

Catherine A. Gardner Is the Plaintiff and D. A. Gardner and Ira B. Gardner Are Defendants—History of the Cause of the Trouble—Suits Heard Before Arbitrators Where Damages Are Asked for Alleged Slanderous Words That Were Spoken.

Saturday the grand jury presented its second report to court. Not more than half the business to come before it has yet been disposed of and Judge Gunter therefore made an order continuing the jury this week.

Among the ignored bills was one charging Dr. V. C. Decker, of Fleetville, with criminally assaulting Miss Nellie Phillips, a daughter of W. H. Phillips, also of Fleetville.

More transcripts have been filed this term for the consideration of the grand jury than ever before in the history of the county.

EQUITY SUIT OVER LAND.

An action in equity was begun Saturday by Catherine A. Gardner against D. A. Gardner and Ira B. Gardner, in their own right and as executors of J. C. Gardner, deceased.

The suit to recover damages for slander of Joseph McDonald and wife against Patrick McDonald was heard Saturday before Arbitrators W. F. Boyle, C. E. Olyer and B. F. Tinkham.

Common Pleas court will begin this morning with Judge Edwards on the bench in the main court room and Judge Archibald in No. 2. The term will last three weeks.
