STRIKE OF COAL MINERS.

One Hundred and Fifty Men at Last Chance Colliery Refuse to Work.

About 150 miners and laborers of the Egerton Coal company, employed at the Highland Park drifts, east of this city, refused to begin work vesterday morning. When J. J. McNulty, the mine foreman, came he found the men greatly excited and they gave their reasons for not entering the mine. It was urged by the foreman that a committee could be appointed by the men to meet the officials of the mine and state their grievances and confer with them. However, the men were determind to quit work, and so all retired from the mine, leaving none on duty. The men object to the company store system, powder rates and other meth-Superintendent J. L. Crawford came from Scranton and consulted with the men. It is thought that they will conclude to resume work today.

HOSPITAL PHYSICIAN RESIGNS.

Dr. W. J. Glinnen, who for some months has been the resident physician at the Emergency hospital, has re-signed the position and left for his home in Brooklyn, N. Y. He is considering the appointment to another important service, which he is likely to accept. He has made many friends during his residence in this city, and the hospital staff regret his departure. The trustees of the hospital have not yet appointed a successor, but several applications will be considered at once.

FIRE AT RICHMONDALE.

At Richmondale, north of this city, a barn belonging to Stephen Previsn was burned on Sunday afternoon at about half-past four o'clock. No water could be procured to stop the flames, but those who were near by active efforts saved the barn very near the burning building, owned by Charles Meyers.

This is The Newark's first Fall season with the people of Scranton. We have a record to make and have set about it with an carnestness of purpose and a hearty good that will make for us many new customers. Already the store has begun to take on its autumnal aspect, and the various lines of fall footwear are crowding fast upon the heels of each other. The new English shapes in Ladies' and Gentlemen's waar cannot be described—they must be seen—they have that indefinable air that marks the correct style. They come in fine kid, French patent leather and box calf and, if properly fitted, will always retain their shape. All sizes and from AA to E widths. We extend you a hearty invitation to call and see them.
