GOT JUDGMENT FOR ONE DOLLAR.

Paltry Amount That Lead to a Suit Before Alderman Moses.

William Hyland, of Peckville, formerly of Felts Patch, instituted a suit before Alderman Moses yesterday against William W. Williams of Felts Patch for one dollar. The claim was for unpaid wages. At the hearing Hy-land stated that he had worked for Wiiliams in the Holden mines cutting a gangway. Four days were spent as a laborer and five days as a partner ir the contract. Hyland wished to move his family to Peckville and agreed to accept $16 for his work.

Hyland waited for another pay day and went down to Taylor for his dollar. Judgment was given to him and defendent was to pay the costs. Mr. Williams paid the dollar and costs and threatened to go to court later.

Mrs. Agony Yongoncoski and Mrs. Stainta Tolinski reside in the same dwelling house at 1005 Remington avenue and were until yesterday on friendly terms. The feeling was rudely disturbed by Mrs. Tolinski taking it upon herself to punish the other woman's little girl for some disdemeanor with the result that a warrant was issued from Alderman Moses's office for the apprehension of Mrs. Tolinski. The charge was assault and battery. The mother alleged that the woman had inflicted bodily injuries upon her child by lumping her against a stone wall. Mrs Tolinski waived a hearing and entered $200 buil for her appearance at court. Constable T. J. Walsh made the arrest.

THE WANDERERS CAME BACK. One night in the latter part of June last George Mackreth, a blacksmith, residing on Washburn street and A1fred Crew, a laborer, residing on South Hyde Park avenue, departed leaving each a wife and child. Their unannounced departure created a slight ripple in the current of West Scranton affairs and in time went by and nothing was heard of them. The incident was forgotten by all but their families. A few days ago the wanderers returned and have a great fund of They say they were in Liverpool, South Africa, Buenos Ayers and Argentine Republic during their absence.

CASE OF HYDROPHOBIA.

Victim Is Willie Jordan, Who Was Bitten on the Wrist by a Mad Dog Last March.

Willie Jordan, ten years of age and a son of Mr. and Mrs John Jordan, of 612 West Lackawanna avenue lies critically ill at the home of his parents. Dr. Brady and Wehlau, after a engthy consultation, declared it to be a case of the dread hydrophobia.

The lad first complained Wednesday it dinner time. He came home from school feeling ill but dispite his mother's urging him to remain home, Willie went back for the afternoon session. Later in the afternoon, however, came back home and stated that he thought the dog bite which he had received on March 9 last was bothering him. His right arm wrist of which had been bitten, hurt him so, and his father, questioning him discertained that he had been "pitching" ball quite hard for several days. Liniment was applied and the pain seemed easier, but he grew worse during the night. Dr. Brady was sent for and yesterday Dr. Wehlan was asked in for consultation. The symptoms were such as to indicate hydrophobia. Last evening, between 11 and 12 clock, when a Tribune reporter spoke to the father, the boy was quiet, but in a high state of fever and at times a little restless. No ravings, frothing or barking have occurred, however, A messenger was dispatched to the Pasteur branch institution in New York city for some powders, and he is expected back at 1 o'clock this morning As was stated in The Tribune at the time, Willie Jordan was one of four victims of a rampant bull dog owned by Henry Brodham, then residing on South Lincoln avenue, and employed as a butcher by Shipman & Moore, if North Main avenue. It was stated at the time that at least eight children were bitten. The Jordan family were then residing at 922 West Lackawanna avenue.

Naturally much concern is attached o the case, as little Tommie Bevan, another of the injured, died at the home of his parents on Academy street on March 27, in great suffering.
