WILLIE JORDAN BURIED.

The Funeral Services Were Conducted in St. Patrick's Catholic Church.

The last sad act in the recent tragic affliction which visited Mr. and Mrs. John F. Jordan, of 612 West Lackawanna Avenue, was completed yes-terday afternoon when their son Willie was laid at rest in the Hyde Park catholic cemetery. As is known the boy died last Friday evening from hydrophobia and yesterday afternoon the remains were borne to St. Patricks church where services were held in the presence of a large number of relatives and sympathizing friends of the bereaved parents.

At the close of the services, the funeral cortege moved to the cemetery where interment was made. The flower bearers were K. Burnett, P. McHale, Edward and Joseph Burke. The pall-bearers were John and Francis Fadden, Thomas Burke and John O'Don-

FOOT BALL GAME.

Base ball has given way to the fall sport of foot ball and the initial game of the season was played on Saturday afternoon on the Fairview common, near No. 13 school. The opposing teams were from public schools No. 13 and No. 14. The score resulted in a tie, 4-4. Principal David Owens, of No. 13, acted as umbire, and Principal James R. Hughes, of No. 14, was referee. It was an exciting contest and as evidenced by the score the players were almost evenly matched. The touchdown made by Gordon Williams, left tackle for No. 14, it is claimed, was the of a fluke. Oliver Williams, right half for No. 13, made their touchdown after a run of 30 yards around right end. The line-up of the teams 22 as follows:

WON FIRST PRIZES.

Mrs. William W. Chase, of North Bromley Avenue, is the recepient of five first prizes for entries of her artistic handwork in the linen drawn work and hand painted china class at the Pittston fair last week. The honor was entirely unexpected as Mrs. Chase did not entend to enter but friends at Pittston took the liberty of exhibiting her work. The first prize on every one of her peices of work fell to her lot.

DISORDERLY CONDUCT CHARGED

So much trouble has been caused of late by a gang of indiscreet youths ton. and oftentimes men who are old enough to know better, who congregate upon the porch of W. T. Smith's general store on North Main avenue, and conduct themselves like hoodlums, that extreme measures have been adopted. Arrests have been made beworse and last evening Patrolman the miscreants. He was given a hear- | ton. ing and fined $3 for the fun of creating a noise by pounding the large boxes which stand on the porch, at Atlantic City. Arthur Murphy may have been innocent of the charge of disorderly conduct, as he claims, but he was where he ought not to have been.

NEW STORE BUILDING.

The West Scranton merchant's are decidely progressive as is proven by the erection and occupation of a commodlous store building at the corner of Jackson Street and Hyde Park Avenues by Morgan Thomas. The building is a double two-story frame building. The ground floor is devoted to store purpose, Mr. Thomas carrying a complete line of dry goods and groceries. The upper floor is occupied as a residence by Mr. Thomas and family. The store is well lighted with large show windows and is adapted to its uses. Nice sidewalks are laid on both streets and the rear of the store a covered leading place is arranged. All the old vacant spots or land marks within a radius of eight or ten blocks of the corner of Jackson Street and Main Avenue are giving way to the more modern dwelling house or business places.

TESTIMONIAL CONCERT. On Wednesday evening next a testimonial concert will be given Evan Miles church chorister by the members of the Welsh Calvanistic Methodist church, of which Rev. Hugh Davies is pastor. The affair is being arranged in appreciation of Mr. Miles services for several years, he also being on the eve of departure to reside permanently in British Columbia, Mr. Miles is well known as a tenor soloist of ability. He and his family are now residing on Washburn Street and ex-pect to depart the beginning of next week, for their new home.

HER SUGGESTION.

They are unassuming people with many friends who find that their natures more than compensate in qenuineness for what they lack in polish. She was very anxious when the physician called to see her husband and she received with much gratitude his assurance that there was no immediate danger.

"He seems hopeful," said the wife; and that is always in a sick person's favor." "Oh, he'll get along all right," was the reply. "I think, however, that I will give him an expectorant." A shadow of apprehension crossed her face and she remarked; "Of course, I don't undertake to interfere in your business, doctor; but I wish you wouldn't, except as a just resort."

"You wish that I wouldn't do what?" "Give him any expectorant."
"Why, it will not do him any harm, prescribed for him."

"It's very likely."
"It certainly took effect. That was several months ago and ever since McKin-ley's election he's been a-expecting and a-rejecting in such a way that I ain't ware but the best thing you could do would be to give him something to drive it cut of his system altogether.—Wash-

Stephen Elwell, who at the time of his leath was pastor of the Hampton Street methodist Episcopal church, Hyde Park, Rev. Mr. Underwood, C. M. Giffin, D. D., and Rev. J. G. Eckman officiated at the funeral services. Rev. Underwood read a passage of Scripture, Dr. Giffin offered prayer and Rev. Eckman made a few remarks, in which he spoke of her life and Christian character. A quartette and Christian character. A quartette sang "Asleep in Jesus," as a closing part of the service. The remains were taken to Lackawanna and burial was made in the Marcy cemetery at that place.
