LAST DAY OF THE LUZERNE FAIR

Special Attractions in the Way of Races -- Medium Boy Trots Half a Mile Without Reins in 1.13 1-2. Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittston, Sept. 24.—The last day of the county fair was by far the most successful, both in attendance and races. The attendance included about 2,000 persons, many being present from Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and other nearby towns.

As a special attraction Charles Earlow's Medium Boy trotted a half mile, without reins, in 1.325, and afterwards trotted a mile, driven, in 2.253.

R. E. Westlake's Maud L broke the track record by trotting the last heat in the second race in 2.25. The announce-

TO PUNISH LYNCHERS.

Governor Mount Determined to Bring Them to Trial.

Indianapolis, Sept. 26.—Information reached this city from Versailles that the grand fury which has been investigating the recent lynching of five men at that place had adjourned without returning any indictments and that the adjournment was final, the jury report-When the report reached Governor Mount, he at once telegraphed to the prosecuting attorney, asking for information. A few moments after send. ing the dispatch he sent for the attor-ney general, and the two were in conference over the matter for nearly three hours. The governor requested the state's legal adviser to go to Versailles in the event of the jury's failure to indict, and take charge of the investigation in per-son. He said that he would confer with Judge New, and have another grand jury convened at once, and the inquiry could proceed without delay.

Speaking of the situation, Governor Mount said: "If it be true that the grand jury has adjourned without finding indictments, I will send the attoney general to the seene at once. I had a conference with him, and he is in hearty sympathy with my desire to bring the perpetrators of the crime to justice. As soon as I hear from the local authorities I will be prepared to act intelli-

Parties Who Have Attempted to Defame Reeder and Weiss and Luck enbach Are Designated as Political Brigands and Blackmailers -- General Reeder Addresses the Conven-

Easton, Sept. 26.-The Northampton county Republicans held their nominating convention here yesterday. The Reeder resignation and the prosecutions against Messrs. Reeder, Weiss and Luckenbach had aroused considerable feeling among their followers, and they were out in force to attest their confidence in the gentlemen and to pay tribute to them.

The delegates met in the court room which was filled with Republicans from all over the county. County Chairman Coffin called the meeting to order, and about this time General Reeder came in with James S. Beacom, the candidate for state treasurer. Both were given a hearty greeting by the assem-

After the passing of usual resolutions indorsing the state ticket, etc., Orrin Serfass offered the following as additional expressions of sentiment, moving their incorporation into the platform, which was agreed to:

"We view with feelings of deepest in dignation the dastardly efforts recently made to malign and defame several high-ly honored and esteemed citizens of our county, General Frank Reeder, Webster C. Weiss and Maurice C. Luckenbach, in whose personal and political integrity we have unshaken and abiding confidence. We stamp the instigators and abettors of such partisan warfare as political brigands and blackmailers, and we trust that their identity may soon become publicly known that they may be made to suffer the sting of public censure and the contempt which their owardly conduct merits.

"Governor Hastings' selection of Gen ral Frank Reeder as secretary of the commonwealth was an honor to the peo-ric of Northampton county, and greatly esteemed as such. We heartily indorse General Frank Reeder's record while secretary of the commonwealth, and we regard his recent displacement as unwise, unjust and unwarranted, an affront to the Republicans of Northampton county. and we deprecate the partisan political motives which prompted the action. We take this occasion to pledge him our loyalty and support."

"I seem to have been marked out by a few moss troopers as a target for a cowardly, aye, a devillah plot, which has been hatched out to destroy me politically. They have attempted to destroy my ly. They have attempted to destroy my character and personal reputation as well. There are some things which are better than office-holding, and these are the esteem and the respect of one's own neighbors and friends.
"I have never been so touched as when heard those resolutions read and saw how they were received by you. I will come out of this trouble absolutely unscorched. I have never done anything as an individual or in my official life which would make me blush to tell my dearest friend. The truth will come out and when it does there will not be even the smell of fire in my garments.

"Once more, gentlemen, I beg to thank you from the bottom of my heart most cordially, warmly and heartily for this expression of your confidence. I wish I could say all that is in my heart to say. for if you knew how my heart is throbbing and beating with gratitude and with emotion you would not be surprised that I find myself unable to say to that which I would like to have it in my power to say."

Deserted by His Bride, James Graill Mitter Dies Mysteriously.

SUICIDE OF A VIOLINIST.

New York, Sept. 25.—James Graill Miller, 31 years old, of Summit, N. J., was found dead last night in a furnished room. The police suspect that Miller committed suicide by poisoning on Friday night. He was quite melancholy when he retired to his room, and as he failed to show up last night his apart-ment was entered and his corpse was then discovered.

From papers found in the furnished From papers found in the furnished room it was ascertained that some time ago Miller was married to Miss Etta Estey, a daughter of J. F. Estey, the iron manufacturer of Brooklyn.

The couple could not agree, and in a few weeks Miller was deserted by his bride. At the time of the marriage it was said that Mrs. Miller was an heir to $80.000, but after the separation Miller

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review

New York, Sept. 25.—There was no large and aggressive buying element in the stock market today and the trading was largely in the hands of the reactionists They were persistent in seeking for the weak spots in the market, trying to un-cover stop loss orders. That they suc-ceeded in doing in a number of stocks and ceclerated the decline. There were a few cebler rallies during the day, but the sagging tendency was for the most part un-interrupted. Dealings were not on a large scale nor were they as widely distrib-uted as of late. Many stocks showed no movement at all during the day. The bears did some short selling in their ef-forts to uncoved stop loss orders, but there was no aggressive general selling manifest and much precaution was aptocks there was a final rally of a fraction. Sugar covered a range of over 2 points but closed unchanged. Omana lost 2 points, Consolidated Gas 2½ and many other active shares from 1 to 2 points. Total sales aggregate 247,540 sharor.
