GRAND JURY SAYS SOME SAUCY THINGS

Court House Attaches Come in for Severe Dressing Down.

And the Grand Jury Resents the Indignity by Jumping on Tipstaves in General and All the Other Menial Attaches of the Court House .- District Attorney Jones Receives a Nice Compliment for His Courtesy and E. Schlingff, pres.

Dealing in Registered Bottles.—Thomas McDermott; H. B. Brink, pres.

The elevator man, the janitor and the tipstaves at the court house received a dressing down at the hands of the grand jury in its final report yesterday morning. While the report was being read the aforesaid were called costs. John Lane; P. J. Brogan, pros., before court and directed to listen to to pay costs. what was said. The report was as fol-

To the Honorable the Judges of Lackawanna County.

The grand inquest inquiring in and for said Lackawanna county respectfully beg leave to report as follows, to wit:

Our sincere thanks are due to District leg leave to report as follows, to wit:

Our sincere thanks are due to District Attorney John R. Jones, for his uniform courtesy and his faithful attention to ali matters that came before us, having disposed of nearly one thousand cases in thirteen days, giving every prosecutor who appeared a fair and impartial hearing. We consider him an able and worthy public official.

We have visited the county buildings and report as follows: We find the county jail to be well kept, neat and clean, and the food to be of good quality.

First—We recommend the gutter in the First-We recommend the gutter in the yard near the building to be repayed at Second—That some posts be set in the yard to hold the clothes lines.

Third—A sewing machine is badly

Fourth-That closets or shelves be placed in the clothes room, there being no sultable place to keep clean clothes. At the court house we recommend and strongly urge that a heavy covering be placed on the floor of the grand jury room to deaden the sound. Also easy chairs, as those now there are simply outrageous. There should be an electric bell from the grand jury room to the district at-torney's office; also ice water tanks, combs, brushes, mirrors and towels in combs, brushes, mirrors and towels in all jury rooms.

There should be better service of the elevator, and more courteous treatment to those wishing to use it.

We also recommend that the driveway In the basement be paved.

We find the building dirty and badly cared for, especially the arbitration room, halls and windows, and would recom-mend better janifor service.

We wish to call your attention to the rough and ungentlemanly manner in which the tipstaves serve the public during court. As an example, one of our grand jurors during the week was suddenly and roughly grabbed and nearly thrown down the stairs by one of these public servants, We denounce the practice of many aldermen and justices of the peace of the county in sending many trivial cases to court without any evidence to sustain them, and done merely for the costs that Scranton, Pa., Sept. 28, 1897. The final report of cases contained 424 ignored bills and 46 true bills. This makes a total of 243 true and 554 ignored bills which the jury has passed upon. About 1,000 transcripts in all were dealt with, but as far as the rules of procedure would admit, District Attorney Jones consolidated cases and thereby reduced the number of bills returned. Yesterday's return was as follows:

M'AULIFFE IS READY.

ightweight World's Champion Reached Scranton Yesterday--- Appears in Splendld Shape for the Bout.

Jack McAuliffe, the premier of light-weights and present holder of the championship title arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on the 5.50 Lackawanna train from New York city. He was accompanied by Jack Sheehan, of "Jack's Tips" fame, who will be in his corner tomorrow night, and mana-ger Skelly of the American Sporting club. McAuliffe was a surprise, in point of condition, to those who thought his recent retirement might have interferred in the ring with the fast, plucky and scientific work for which he has for years been noted. The party established their headquarters at the Conway House where a large number of persons called to pay their respects to the famous boxer. McAuliffe early in the evening expressed a desire for entertainment and was taken with a few newspapermen to Davis' theater. Later he lunched at Zenke's on Penn Avenue, and at 11 o'clock sought his bed. This morning he will do road work and will probably choose Elmhurst boulevard for his route. In the afternoon he will give a bag-punching exhibition at the Scranton Bicycle club house.

Word comes from Pittston that Tomthe fight of his life tomorrow night. The bout has engaged no little atten-tion from the outside world as shown patch received by the Tribune last night explains itself.

New York, Sept. 28.—Jack McAuilife, who is to fight Tommy Ryan, of Phila-delphia, at Scranton, on Thursday night next, was today matched to meet Jack Downey, of Brooklyn, for six rounds be-fore the Arena Athletic club in Philadel-phia, on Oct. 4.
