MITCHELL'S PREPARE FOR PARADE.

The members of the Mitchell Hose company are getting ready for their visit to Wilkes-Barre in order to take part in the parade next Thursday. A special train on the Delaware and Hudson road will take the firemen on Thursday morning. ' The Mozarts, of twenty-five pieces, will go with them. The carriage has been made very handsome by the skill of Painter Hick. The Mitchell's delegate to the convention is George Ward. John D. Nealon will represent the Columbias.

APPROVE OF EARLY CLOSING.

The question of early closing is one that is being considered by the bar-N Y bers of this city. An effort will be made to close the shops at 8 o'clock. As the stores will close at 6.30 it is reasonable that the barbers should have the same privilege of early hours. Certain nights may be excepted, but not so many hours each evening. It is hoped that the effort will succeed. and Atlantic City.

PLEASANT VISIT AT BENTON.

A number of young ladies from this city formed a party on Thursday and spent the day in Benton at the Clarkson farm. They were the guests of Miss Margaret Clarkson, who is spending the season there. ## CARBONDALE HORSES WIN.

A large crowd was on the Wayne county fair ground on Wednesday, and many from Carbondale witnessed the races. There was two races during the afternoon. L. A. Patterson's Jim Doyle took second money in the first race, trotting and pacing. Purse, $200, and trotting and pacing, purse $200, and his bay mare, Nellie B, secured third money in the second event, 2.29 class, trotting and pacing, purse $200.

FOOT BALL GAME TODAY.

The Carbondale Indians will meet the Cottage team at Alumni park this afternoon. When the two clubs had their contest some time ago at Far-view they seemed to be very evenly matched. The game, however, was broken off on account of some misunderstanding so that the interesting question will be decided today as to which team is the stronger.
