TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

George Yarns, of Belmont street, was seriously injured at the Northwest breaker Friday. He was working at a circular saw, cutting a 12-inch board into three-inch baltans. He had cut the last piece and the man who was assisting him attempted to lift the remaining piece over the saw. The piece which was several feet long and very slender bent down and caught the saw near the end and the fragment was sent flying through the air and hit Mr. Yarns on the jaw inflicting a deep wound. The wound was dressed by Dr. A. Niles assisted by Drs. J. S. Niles and Lowry. Pieces were broken from the jaw bone and the accident is of a serious nature. Mr. Yarns' face will be encased in a mould and it will probably be several months before he can take other than liquid nourishment.

ELITE DANCING SOCIAL.

The automnal dance given in the Burke building Friday evening sureft today for the Maine woods. passed any of the former dances given under their auspices. The hall was beautifully decorated with palms, pot-Frank, has returned home, ted plants and branches of autumn leaves and the effect was striking. Melr are visiting at Elk lake. Music was furnished by the Mozart band and during the intermission the orchestra played selections from the visit in Susquehanna. Kirmess music. The following out of town persons were present: Mr. and Mrs. A. Baker and Arthur Rodenbush, M. Johnson, of Nineveh, N. Y. of Scranton; Miss Ada Seddon, of Susnuchanna and Edward Jones Leonard Knapp and G. B. Lynch, of Olyphant.

GRAPHAPHONE SOCIAL.

The social conducted by the Misses Finn for the benefit of the Baptist Sunday school proved a success. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eimer had opened their house for the affair and the large rooms were well filled. Refreshments were served, but the graphophone owned and operated by J. E. Blocksiege, proved the greatest attraction. Several familiar songs were reproduced and were listened to with much pleasure. At the close of the entertainment Rev. T. E. Jenson thanked the people for their attendance in a few well chosen words

MAD DOG IN TOWN.

Friday morning between 9 and 10 o'clock, a mad dog caused considerable excitement on Dundaft street. The animal was a handsome shepherd and was first seen by Thomas Gallagher running about and snapping in the ir, while foam dripped from his mouth. The dog then ran into N. J. Bell's blacksmith shop, but was driven out. Peter Lippert, an employe in Mr. Bell's shop, finally killed the dog by striking him in the head with an iron bar.

To Anyone Afflicted with Piles.

The Pyramid Pile Cure, the new painless remedy which has been so remarkably successful in curing every orm of piles and rectal diseases, has ecently been placed on sale at druggists and it is safe to say that when its extraordinary merit becomes ful the young resident, who is the last of |ly known, there will be no such thing as surgical operations for the cure of conducted in the Nebo Congregational this obstinate and common trouble. Mrs. M. C. Hinkly of 601 Mississippl

St., Indianapolis, Ind., says: I had been a terrible sufferer from the piles for 15 years and no remedies benefitted me, until I saw an advertisement of the Pyramid Pile Cure; I got a package, also a package of the Pyramid Pills and used both according to directions. I was astonished at the immediate relief obtained and now I nonestly believe the Pyramid to be the only certain cure for plies. That you may relize how bad I was, will say that I was confined to my bed and went before the college physiclans here who said my case was a new one to them and wanted seven or eight hundred dollars to undertake to cure; the great pain had brought on a rupture, and I knew an operation would be death to me on account of blood poisoning. Nearly everyone here knows of my terrible suffering from piles and 1 feel that I cannot praise the Pyramid Pile Cure enough and the Pyramid Pills also, My husband will join me in highly recommending the Pyramid, my daughter was cured by one box only. For several years I weighed but about 90 pounds, now I weigh 150 and feel inn perfect health. This seems to be the universal testitony of every sufferer from piles who have ever tried the Pyramid; it is the safest, most painless pile cure yet discovered; contains no opiate, morphine, cocalne or any poisonous ingredient whatever, has a soothing, healing effect from the first application, and the moderate price places it within the reach of everyone needing treatment. The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 cents and $1.00 per package and the Pyramid Pills at 25 cents per box.

EPISODE AT THE TREASURY.

Distinguished Caller Who Failed to Impress the Private Secretary.

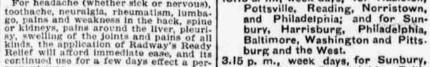

A well-dressed, distinguished-looking gentleman, with an air of business, but noticeably a disinclination to intrude upon any one's privacy or for a moment disturb the methodical operation of Uncle Sam's financial institution, entered the Treasury building yesterday, says the Washington Post. By inquiry of a watchman he readily found his way to the anteroom of the secretary. Two or three other callers were there, and the new-comer paused unnoticed. The private secretary, aborbed in thought, gave him no greetng; in fact, barely glanced at him Presently the silonce was broken. "May I see Secretary Gage?" in uired the unnoticed visitor, in polite, usinesslike manner. 'No; it's impossible. Can't see him.

He is busy and must not be disturbed." The private secretary apparently took no interest in the identity of the caller, and there was a certain brusqueness of tone that emphasized the im-possibility of disturbing his chief. Another pause ensued.

The private secretary was again aborbed in deep thought.
