HYDROPHOBIA WAS FEARED.

Dog Bite Sustained Two Years Ago

Causes Much Alarm. For about three weeks eight-year-old Julia O'Malley, daughter of Mrs. Julia Price street, has acted queerly. These actions have been more especially noticeable while the child slept. Owing to a bite received by the little girl about two years ago from a dog owned by Michael Dougherty, of 1019 Price street, and the recent tragic fate of the Bevan and Jordan boys, the mother became much worried. At her solicitation the owner of the dog consented to have it shot and on Saturday evening Patrolman Marker ended its existence.

The dog was not mad at the time of the biting as near as could be as-The little girl was going to show Mrs. Dougherty her new dress and the dog snapped at her setting his teeth into her hand.

A Tribune reporter visited the O'Malley residence and found the family much excited, but they felt more at ease since the dog had been removed. Mrs. O'Malley stated that her child was better and it might only have been a simple nervous ailment but the deeths of the little boys which she Lad read in The Tribune had worried her considerably.

CHINAMEN STRIKES BACK. The Chinese laundrymen on South Main avenue have been much annoyed of late by boys who congregate about their door and make a noise. They endured this nuisance until yesterday, by the action then taken will probably have a dampening effect upon the illdirected enthusiasm of the boys. Last evening, one of the lads, giving his name as Dougher, and about 12 years of age, was arrested by Patrolman Peters and locked up. At the hearing before Alderman Johns he was fined $2 charged with disorderly conduct. His parents paid the fine.

THREATENED HIS WIFE.

John L. Evans, of 1132 Hampton street, was arrested and brought before Alderman Moses yesterday at the instance of his wife. She alleged that on Saturday evening her husband came home in a terrible state of intoxication and when she remonstrated with him, he threatened to deprive her of her only useful eye, and to add her soul in the general ruin. She also said that he was in the habit of maltreating her and her life was in danger from his conduct. Evans stoutly denied the allegations and claimed he was perfectly sober. He was, however, committed to the county jail in default of $200 bail for his appearance at court.

FUNERAL OF DAVID W. MORGAN. The funeral of the late David W. Morgan occurred yesterday afternoon from the residence, 1507 Washburn street. The attendance of friends and relatives was very large, many coming from out-of-town. The floral trib-utes were very beautiful. Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Conites, of which the deceased was a member, were present in a body. At the close of the services the remains were viewed and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery where interment was made. The pallbearers were: Daniel Evans, Thomas James, Daniel O'Malley, residing in the rear of 1025 M. Thomas, John Davis, of the Bible class: William Lewis and Thomas Carson, of the Dewi Sant lodge.

In the Face of Such Facts

It would seem out of place to offer special inducements to silk buyers at this time, but our custom has always been to give our patrons the benefit of a good thing if we have it, and take chances for the future. Still adhering to this rule we will let the following lots go on the same terms as we bought them, and we would advise our readers to take hold of the opportunity.

In yesterday's issue of this paper it was stated in the obituary column that John, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. David S. Jones, of Dodge avenue, had died. The mistake was made owing to misinformation. The child had been very ill for several days and another child, who resided nearby had died, hence the error. John Jones is very much improved.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

At Workingman's hall Sunday the Workingman's Progressive Educational association held a meeting. A Longer-feld delivered a lecture on the subject "What Does Eugene V. Debs Propose as a Remedy for the Depiorable Condition of the Workingman?" The object of the meeting is to discuss political platforms with the idea of selecting one which will with the idea of selecting one which will most benefit the wage worker. Last Sunday a committee was appointed to decide what position in politics the labor-ing man should take and make their port to the association. The commit-e is: F. Spencer, Robert Grosstick, John

Do not fail to hear Dr. Lorimer at the Penn Avenue Baptist church tonight. ** Miss Nellie Nealon, of Prospect avenue, has accepted a position at Bethlehem. Annie Kiefer, of Brook street, was injured while at work at the Lackawanna Knitting mills Saturday. Frederick Hug, a Pittston avenue saloon keeper, is under $500 ball for his appearance at court on an unusual charge. A little daughter of Mrs. James Cooley, of Cedar avenue, was sent to a drug store for medicine and was given a $20 bill. At the drug store the bill could not be changed and the girl went to Hug's place. The latter changed the money and kept $4.50. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out Saturday night by Alderman Ruddy on a charge of ob-taining money illegally and unlawfully, and was placed under bail. Hug claims that Mrs. Cooley owed him the $4.50.

The great respect in which Francis Brady, sr., was held had ample demonstration yesterday morning in the large number of persons who called at his late home on Genet street to pay their last tribute of respect and afterwards joined in the procession to the cemetery. At 9 o'clock a requiem mass was celebrated at St. John's Catholic church by Rev. J. A. Moffatt. Rev. N. J. McManus was dea-con; Rev. T. W. Carmody, sub-deacon, and Rev. E. J. Melley, master of cere-monies. The sermon was preached by Rev. Father Moffatt and was a worthy tribute to Mr. Brady's Christian charac-ter and worth as a citizen. After the mass interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. St. Patrick's Father Mathew society, of which deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body. The pall-bearers were: John O'Connor, John Mayock, Patrick Boyle, Mathew Malia, Michael Coggins, P. Mullen. The many beautiful floral offerings were borne by Edward Murray and Michael McGrath.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: I would like space in your paper to contradict a statement made in today's issue. I see that the constable of the Fif-teenth ward made a statement that I would not come to the meeting of constables as long as he was there, as I owed him $6. I would like to state that I never owed that gentleman, if he be such, any money or anything else nor any other constable. If he had knowingly told a lie and if I am able to get any evidence that he said so I will have him prove such or stand the consequence. As far as the meeting is concerned that I was not here is because I have a very sick horse and I had to stay with him as well as the doctor to give medicine as re-quired. I have been and am secretary and treasurer of the Lackawanna County Constables' association and have alkays attended to all the meetings without any exception and I think that I have been done a great injustice If they think would leave my horse as sick as he is for that association they make a big mis-take, as I would not do that for a hun-dred constables' associations.
