FIRE LADDIES AT WILKES-BARRE

List of Officers Chosen at the Session Held Yesterday Morning.

INTERESTING PAPERS INTRODUCED

An Essay on Chemical Engines by Frank F. Jones, of Scranton -- A Paper on Fighting Fire in Oil. in Oil Fires.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 6 .- At this morning's session of the State Firemen's convention, the following officers were

President-John E. Spears, of Reading. First Vice President-George W. King, Pittsburg. Second Vice President-John M. Keener Greensburg.

Third Vice President-Harry C. Hicks,

Fourth Vice President—A. L. Shafer, Chambersburg. Recording Secretary—W. W. Wunder, Corresponding Secretary - James A Green, Carliele.

The afternoon session was called to order at 2 p. m. by Chairman Tittle. He appointed Gilbert Greenberg and F. B. Bosch to escort the newly elected president and vice presidents to President Tittle, in a speech, thanked the delegates for the courtesies extended him during the past year. He then introduced the elected president, John Spears, who, after thanking the delegates for the honor conferred, assumed his new duties and introduced the vice presidents, each of whom spoke briefly and thanked the delegates for the honor conferred by their election as vice presidents of the Pennsylvania State Firemen's association. PRESENT FOR MR. TITTLE.

George Nallinger, in a short address presented to ex-President Tittle, on behalf of a number of friends, a handsome mahogany writing desk, which the latter received with profuse thanks. The balance of the afternoon session was taken up with the topics and their discussion. Frank F. Jones, of Scranton, read an essay on chemical enggines and carbonic acid gas. It was a technical description of the science of chemical extinguishing. He said it took years to replace the old fashioned hand engine with steam, and it will take years for the modern chemical engine to replace steam, but the time will come

S. Charles Seekleman then read a paper on fighting fire in oil, written by Daniel Fisher. Mr. Bernard Bosch, of Philadelphia, gave the scientific side of the question. His method was successful against 59 fires in one week. His theory is that spray nozzles are most effective in all oil fires. Chemicals are not effective against oils. Ex-Chief Hoffer, of Allentown, then delivered his paper on the necessity of tool and supply wagons. The discussion was general. Hon, John Long. of Hanover, replied to topic No. 2, well equipped departments.

DROVE A STOLEN BUGGY.

Horse Thieves Operating at Sandy Lake Are Captured.

Sandy Lake, Oct. 6 .- Sheriff E. C. Burns, of Jefferson county, Ohio, with Deputies Van Burton and Shaeffer, arrived here today with a warrant for the arrest of "Bill" Huffman, of the neighborhood of Mechanicsville, Pa., charged with being a member of a noterious gang of horse thieves who have been operating in the vicinity of Henderson, Pa., and Howe Postoffice, O. Huffman drove a single buggy that was identified by the owner, a resident of Howe. A horse that had been stolen from

J. E. Shaeffer of the same place was found in the livery barn at Harlansburg, Butler county. More than a dozen horses have been stolen in Mercer and Butler counties, and it is believed the gangs work together.

ICE CREAM BROUGHT DEATH.

Tyrotoxicon Poisoning Carried Off Trenton Fair Visitor.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.-Edward Rowand, of Chew's Landing, died last week from eating ice cream. At least, that was the decision reached by Coroner | Chewton about a month ago. He was Lippincott, on Monday, when he issued a certificate of death so that the body of the young man could be buried. Rowand died suddenly last Thursday, after visiting the Interstate fair, at Trenton, where he ate a large quantity of ice cream.

He did not have medical attendance twenty-four hours before death, and Coroner Lippincott was notified. He found traces of tyrotoxicon poisoning, and gave a certificate to that effect,

DEDICATION POSTPONED.

Yellow Fever May Cause Abandonment of the Chicamaugua Trip.

Harrisburg, Oct. 6.-The prevalence of yellow fever in the south will probably lead to an abandonment of the dedication of the Pennsylvania monuments on the Chicamaugua battlefield until December. The commission was about to arrange a programme when a laborer, fatally injured by a fall of the news from the fever section prevented. Nothing further will be done antil all danger is over. Governor Hastings had a conference today with Captain George W. Skin ner, of Pittsburg, secretary of the Chicamaugua battlefield commission at which it was agreed not to fix the time of the dedication until it is considered safest for old soldjers to make the trip.

MART CASE ARGUED.

Hearing in the Alleged Filibustering

Affair Before Three Judges. Philadelphia, Oct. 6.-The case of Captain John D. Hart, the steamship Spray Nozzles the Most Effective owner, charged with organizing a fillbustering expedition to Cuba, was argued today before the United States circuit court of appeals. It came up on a writ of error from the district court, where Hart was convicted and a new trial refused.

The facts and the questions of law involved were argued at length before Judges Acheson, Dallas and Kirkpatrick, and a decision was reserved. Hart was represented by Captain W. W. Ker and United States Senator Gray, of Delaware.

THE CANDIDATES

IN LUZERNE

Major McCauley and James S. Beacon Visit Wilkes-Barre--Opinions on the Situation.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 6.-The candidates on the Republican state ticket, Major L. C. McCauley for auditor general and James S. Beacom for state treasurer, arrived in this city yesterday to meet the Republicans of this portion of the county.

Major McCauley came on the Lehigh Valley railroad at 1.30 direct from his home at West Chester, and was received at the station by a committee of prominent Republicans headed by Chairman Holcomb of the county committee, Major J. Roberts, jr., R. P. Robinson, Hon, E. A. Coray and many others, and was escorted to the Wyoning Valley house. A large number of citizens, as well as many of Major Mc-Cauley's old army comrades, soon assembled to greet the popular candidate for auditor general and give him assurances of their hearty support.

During the afternoon Major McCauey and a portion of the reception comnittee took a drive about the city and spent an hour at the Republican league rooms. The party then proseeded to the station to meet the late afternoon train on the Pennsylvania railroad, which brought Mr. Beacom, the nominee for state treasurer. The party returned to the Valley house, where many Republicans continued to drop in to meet the candidates. Both candidates spoke freely of the political prospects in various sections of the state, and are confident of a large majority. There is no defection among the Republicans anywhere in the state against Major McCauley and he is constantly receiving assurances of a large Democratic vote, principally from veteran soldiers who do not ustally vote for Republican candidates. In Allegheny county and a few other localities there is admittedly some organized opposition to Mr. Beacom. This hostility is not due to any doubt of Mr. Beacom's integrity or ability, but grows out of the opposition to Senator Quay, who was known to strongly f vor his nomination. In Allegheny the only county where opposition to Mr. Beacom has assumed organized form an independent Republican candidate has been placed in the field and will be voted for to some extent.

That some Republicans throughout the state will vote for Dr. Swallow, the Prohibition candidate, is also apparent, but the number inclined in that direction will doubtless diminish as election day approaches.

Pennsylvania Pensions.

Washington, Oct. 6.-The following Pennsylvania pensions have been issued: Original-John Cake, Hazleton; Nicholas Martell, Frenchville, Clearfield; James Cahill, Allegheny; John F. Wunderlich, Pittsburg; William B. Taylor, Wilkes-Barre; Emanuel Cable, Paxton, Dauphin. Increase-William V. Austin, New Alexandria, Westmore land; Henry Stouffer, Ramey, Clearfield. Original widows, etc.-Elenvra Kindred, Ashley, Luzerne; Nancy Ankerman, Johnstown; Susan De Lillie, Carbondale; minor of Leonidas Kelly, Pittsburg.

Confessed and Got Three Years.

New Castle, Oct. 6.-Judge Wallace this morning heard the plea of Harry Kerr, of Bridgewatet Beaver county, for highway robbery, as well as for having robbed a barn near sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Medal of Honor.

Washington, Oct. 6.-A medal ionor has been presented to Ferdinand F. Rohm, of Harrisburg, Pa., formerly chief bugler of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania cavalry, for distinguished gallantry at the battle of Reams Station, Aug. 25, 1864.

A Breaker Burned.

Before your agency was established on the coast I was compelled to send East for supplies of your remedies, and have always kept them on hand for the benefit of myself and friends. I carry a pocket case in my valise when traveling in case any of my chance acquaintances should need assistance. I have frequently given away some of the remedies to people in distress. I have great faith in Munyon's remedies."

Rheumatism is known as the stubbornest of diseases. It will not succumb to any kind of medicine except the right kind. Munyon has the right kind, and cures ninety-six per cent. of all cases submitted to his treatment. Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to be absolutely harmless and a strong tonic in building up the weak and debilitated.
