West Side and City Suburban

EVENING RECEPTION.

Given by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Phillips in Honor of Mrs. C. S. Starkweather, of Superior, Wis.

The people who responded to the invitations sent out by Mallcarrier and Mrs. J. H. Phillips to attend a reception given at their home, on Washburn street, in honor of their guest, Mrs. C. S. Starkweather, of Superior, Wis., formed a representative gathering. In addition to the guests from this side, many came from other parts of the city and a most delightful evening was spent. The recipient of the reception, Mrs. Starkweather, is worthy matron of Queen City chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and wife of Mayor Starkweather, of Superior, Wis. Naturally, the majority of those present were either members of the Eastern Star or the Masons, from which the Eastern Star originates. Mrs. Phillips was assisted by the ladies of Martha Washington chapter and everything passed off pleasantly. Beside the games and other amusements provided, solos were rendered by Miss Margaret Davis and Mrs. Walsh, formerly of Albany, N. Y., now of this side, and a noted soprano soloist; a duct by Messrs, Stevens and Warren, and selections upon the graphaphone. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served by a corps of the ladies of the chapter.

The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Madden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Laning, Prof. and Mrs. George Howell, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Robathan, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Finn, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Williams, Hon. and Mrs. John H. Fellows, Prof. and Mrs. H. L. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Evans, Mr. and Mrs. D. Phillip Williams, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bunnell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Warren, Mrs. Elmer Pollock, of Chicago: Mrs. Annie Mason, of Blakely, Mrs. Charles Stevens, Mrs. Margaret Laning, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Mary Bevan, Mrs. Edward Swartz, Mrs. William Reese, Mrs. James Moir, Mrs. W. H. Robinson, Mrs. De Wilde, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Gomer Price, Mrs. Ida Griffiths, Mrs. A. M. Shiffer, Mrs. Joseph Ansley, jr., Mrs. William Hagen, Mrs. Cora Buckingham, Mrs. Frank Metz. Mrs. Ad. Fraunfelter, Mrs. Loveland, Mrs. Frank Powell, Mrs. Oliver Mason, Mrs. Yeager, Mrs. Osterhout, and the Misses Bessie Fraunfelter, Lily Hagen, Thomas, Davis, Annie Marsh, Stella Laning, Belle, Lou and Myrtle Watrous, Lottle Clay, Margaret Davies, Anna R. ferred by Mrs. Elizabeth Ord. Both women reside on Quay avenue. The hearing developed the following grievarces: On Tuesday afternoon, while Mrs. Ord was passing down Bromley avenue she alleges that Mrs. Dean, while standing on her daughter's porch. made several remarks in a loud voice and shook her fists. These remarks would lead those within hearing disstance to believe that Mrs. Ord was not a virtuous woman. The alderman decided that Mrs. Dean must not say such things again and should pay the costs, Mrs. Dean refused to pay the costs, signifying her desire to take the case to court. She was accordingly held in $200 bail, which was furnished by John H. Fellows.

LADY MUNDELL LODGE BALL. The ladies of Lady Mundell lodge, No. 41, American Protestant associa-tion, conducted the initial ball of the season last evening at Mears' hall. The affair was well attended and the programme of dances was carried out to the enjoyment of the large crowd which gathered there. Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and coffee, were served. The object of the ball was to raise funds for the treasury of the lodge and expectations were exceeded on that score. The committee in charge was: Mrs. Powell, chairlady; Mrs. Baxter, Mrs. Crews, Mrs. Edington, Mrs. Maylin, Mrs. Haupt, Mrs. Coulter, the Misses Clark, Martha and Elizabeth Jones, Martha and Elizabeth Coulter. nished the music

As a means of assisting in providing for the placing of gas fixtures in their pretty church, now that the gas has been carried to Bellevue, the Ladies' Aid of the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church gave an entertainment last evening at the church, followed by a social. Rev. J. F. Morris, pastor of the church, acted as chairman, and made an opening address. Solos were rendered by Miss Margaret Davies, Mrs. F. Brundage, Prof. D. Jenkins, Edward Bowen: a trio by the Misses Margaret, Mary and Annie Jones, and recitation by D. J. Jones. Mrs. D. P. Thomas, Mrs. H. W. Evans and Prof. W. W. Jones acted as accompanists. The refreshments were served in the church parlors and consisted of faggots and tea (a Welsh dish), ice cream and cake.

SURPRISE PARTY.

On Tuesday evening the many friends of William Stanton tendered him a surprise at the residence of his mother, Mrs. W. W. Stanton, of 354 North Bromley avenue. Games, et cetera were provided for the evening's pleasures and later refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schmaltz, the Misses Mabel Phillips, Carrie Noll, Clara Harris, May Campbell, Amy Lawless, Margaret Ribble, Cora Blazer, Jennie Williams, and John Arnold, Samuel L. Harris, Otto and Henry Webber, Fred. Reese, Casey Young, Charles Edwards, Charles Snyder, Joe Stanton, Elmer Harris, Richard Frey, Will Owen, John Boston, Ivor Davies, Will Evans, Daniel Alford, Edward Gross, Fred. DID NOT HEED CITATION.

Mrs. Emma Graham Was Arrested and Spent a Night in Jail.

Mrs. Emma Graham, of North Scranton, spent Tuesday night in the county jail because she was foolish enough to think that an order of court might be heeded or not, as the person who received it willed. Mrs. Graham was administratrix of the estate of Jessie Jones, deceased, and was cited to file an account.

The estate was only a small one, and Mrs. Graham being unacquainted with legal forms, paid no attention to the citation. Tuesday an attachment was issued for her and Deputy Sheriff Colborn escorted her to the county jail. Yesterday she was released by order of court, upon payment of the costs of the attachment and promising to file an account within ten days.

DEATH ON A RAILROAD TRACK.

Gusdoweski Probably Fell Asleep While Intoxicated. Joseph Gusdoweski, aged 33 years, living at 118 Breaker street, was struck by a Delaware and Hudson coal train near the Providence station, shortly before 3 o'clock yesterday morning. He died at the Lackawanna hospital seven hours later.

The engine r of the train gave it as his opinion that the man was intoxicated and fell asleep on the track. As the train approached the engineer saw Gosdoweski arise to a sitting posture as though he had been awakened, but he could not get off the track before the engine rushed upon him. His body was terribly mangled. Coroner Longstreet will hold an inquest at the hospital this morning.

THREW OUT A HOT BOX.

Small Fire in Center Street Creates Some Damage.

A box of shavings in the fourth story of No. 316, a brick building in Centre street, was ignited in some unknown manner yesterday afternoon. The first that the outside world knew of the conflagration was when the box came tumbling out of the window like a flery ball and crashed into the telegraph and other wires in Oakford court. Several of the wires were torn down and the burning shavings were scattered in a dangerous way. No further damage was done.

NOVACK'S REMAINS REMOVED.

Dickson City. The body of Andrew Novack, the man for whose murder Michael Koket is now in the county jail, was removed last evening from the Lackawanna ing, to the home of his brother, Joseph, in Dickson City. Coroner Longstreet, for the reason that arrest had been made and the evidence of Koket's guilt being very clear, oid not hold an inquest. There were no further arrests yesterday. BURIAL OF THE UNKNOWN.

High Prices and Fees Are Not Peculiarities of Their Management.

From the Chicago News.

The best theatres in Australia are usually built on English plans, but are managed more like American playhouses. The prices charged are much less than those cheerfully paid in England. Dress circle seats or stalls, which bring $2.50 in London, will not sell for more than $1.25 in Melbourne or Sydney. It is no use asking more. Independent Australians will not pay it. Australian "gods" are perhaps a little less rowdy than English ones, but the better dressed portion of the audience is objectionably talkative, frequently chatting loudly right through a performance, even when the drama played Evening dress, always seen in Eng lish theatres, is rarely worn by Australian play-goers, except on "first" occasions and on Saturday nights, when colonial society usually turns out in force. The Australian audience is, as a rule, cordial and demonstrative. Seldom asked to decide on the merits of an entirely new play, it accepts with enthusiasm those productions which come to it already stamped with the hall-mark of English or American ap-

is serious and presumably demands proval. Fees are unheard of in Australian theatres, and managers never make use of the "claqueur." Hissing and hooting are unknown, and a spirit of good-na tured tolerance prevails.
