Each Society Will Receive the Amount That They Originally Contributed Toward Defraying the Expenses of Entertaining the Delegates to the Late National Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America. Prize Essay at Next Convention.

The delegates from the Total Abstinence societies which comprise the sec-ond district of the Scranton Diocssan union, met in St. David's hall yesterday afternoon as the guests of the Hyde Park Father Mathew society. The obfect of the meeting was to conduct the third quarterly convention for this year of the union. The convention was called to order at 3.45 o'clock by Chairman John McTierney, of the Father Mathews. William Quinn, of the St. Peter's, acted as secretary.

A roll call of officers was made and the delegates from the several societies presented their credentials showing the following in attendance:

nery, John J. Gibbons THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The ways and means committee which looked after the financial arrangements of the recent national convention Catholic Total Abstinence Union of America, held in this city, made a report of the receipts and ex-penditures. The amount collected was all he had ever a genial smile and a pleas $1,096.09, and the necessary outlay incident to the convention expenses was $741.69. A balance was left amounting to $354.40. This balance proved to be veritable bone of contention.

As soon as it was announced that a motion would be in order to dispose of this balance J. R. McLean of St. Peter's Cadets, moved that the amount subscribed by the several societies toward the general fund, be refunded them. This would take $305. The balance to be tendered Rev. Father Melley, spiritual director of the union. City Treasal should be referred back to the ways and means committee who should report later upon a means of disposal. This was a signal for the tacking on of amendments. For a time the work in hand seemed to be lost and matters of a foreign nature were broached. At last a motion to consider the previous question brought partial system of movement and the amendments were

The drift of sentiment was plainly in favor of the refunding, but there was division as to the best means of utilizing the surplus. A compromise motion to the effect that the whole amount be transferred to the treasury of the union failed to pass though Mr. Boland made an impassioned appeal, urging a judicious consideration on this

MONEY WILL BE RETURNED. The motion as originally made was passed with the exception of the disposal of the $54.40 balance. This was ransferred to the union's treasury and the irritating issue was at an end. The work as accomplished thus gives each society who contributed a pro rata share of their contributions back and the district union will receive the benefit of the balance. An auditing committee of five members was, upon motion, appointed by the chairman to audit the report of the ways and means committee. This audit committee comprises: Chairman J. J. Brown, St. Aloysius; James P. Murray, Father Whitty's; J. F. McDonough, St. Peter's; M. Duggan, St. Patrick's Cadets, and T. W. Early, St. Paul's Cadets.

J. C. Gallagher was called to the chair at this point. The selection of the next place for the meeting of the district union was left to the board of directors. Upon motion it was decided to offer a prize of $5 for the best essay, to be read at the next convention, by any member of the different societies. The subject chosen was "The Prospects of a Total Abstainer."

FUNERAL OF HON, LEMUEL AMERMAN

Interment Made Saturday in Forest Each Trade or Occupation Has Its Hill Cemetery.

The remains of the late Lemue Amerman were laid at rest in Forest Hill cemetery Saturday afternoon. The services were conducted at the house by Rev. Joseph K. Dixon, D. D., pastor of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, of which the deceased was a trustee, and Rev. Dr. David D. Spencer, of Dover, N. J., a former pastor of the church.

The remains were viewed in the drawing room previous to the services by a large concourse of mourners and sympathizing friends, including the members of the Lackawanna bar, who attended in a body; the officers of the Penn Avenue Baptist church and Sunday school and the children of the Nay Aug mission, of which Mr. Amerman was superintendent and in which he took the deepest interest. Rev. Dr. Spencer opened the services with a fervent prayer, after which Rev. Dr. Dixon read the burial lesson and appropriate scriptural passages. John T. Watkins sang "Lead Kindly Light," and then Dr. Dixon delivered an affecting commemorative oration. He spoke particularly of Mr. Amerman's home and religious life and said that as he had been a king among men he would be a king among the sainted in heaven. Mr. Watkins sang 'Some Sweet Day' and the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Spencer.

The interment at Forest Hill was private. Rev. Dr. Dixon conducted a brief service at the grave. The pallbearers were Hon, Henry W. Palmer, Wilkes-Barre; Hon, E. N. Willard, Judges R. W. Archbald, F. W. Gunster and H. M. Edwards, Hon. M. E. Mc-Donald, C. D. Simpson, William Mc-Clave, Dr. N. Y. Leet, James H. Tor-rey, John T. Richards, Hon. Abram Nesbitt, Kingston; I. X. Greer, Danville. Michael Crowley and John L. Beamish were the flower-bearers. The floral offerings included beautiful tributes from Hon. and Mrs. L. A. Wat-res, board of trustees of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Taylor, Hon. M. E. McDonald, James W. McDonald, John F. Murphy, John M. Corbett, Michael J. Martin, Walter E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Capwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Whittemore, Mr. and Mrs. William Conrad, Jonas Long's Sons and the Scranton Lodge of Elks.

Action of Nay Aug Mission.

The Nay Aug Falls mission of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, mourning the sudden death of its beloved superintendent, Hon. Lemuel Amerman, which occurred on Oct. 7, 1897, directs this tribute to be entered upon the minutes of th mission and a copy sent to the family.

When the mission was founded he was chosen by the church as its first superin tendent. This position he held when be died. He was maturing plans which in sured the early completion of a chapel for the use of the school. These plans he has left for us to complete. We have recognized in him the attributes of successful leadership. He knew how to draw al classes and corditions of men up toward: ant word. The children reverenced him and through his example were taught to everence the Christ he served. Th outh loved him and by his counsel formed higher conceptions of life. Those of ma turer years feel more deeply if possible the loss of our leader. The energy with which he grasped the work was characterstic of the man. Having put his hand to the plough his look was ever forward. One week ago he inspired every one to renewed persistent effort toward the con-summation of our plans for erecting a new chapel. Yesterday his loved ones gathered in the home on the hillslope and he was borne away to the "Forest Hill." urer C. G. Boland, of St. Patrick's.
