

HOME BY THE DALTON TRAIL

Returning Alaskan Miners Bring Very Little Gold.

LATEST ARRIVALS TALK

Story of Every-Day Life at Skaguay.

Fresh Confirmation of the Scarcity of Provisions in Alaska--Reported Attempt to "Sell Out" Skaguay to Canadians--Canadian Gold Commissioners Robbed.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 11.--The steamship City of Seattle arrived here last night at 10 o'clock from Skaguay and Dyea. Among her passengers were James Clark and C. A. Brown of Chicago, who left Dawson City on Sept. 6 and came down over the Dalton trail, making the trip in twenty-six days. They confirm previous reports as to the scarcity of provisions. The steamship brings news that on Sept. 5 burglars broke into the gold commissioner's cabin at Dawson and stole between $3,000 and $4,000 worth of dust and nuggets. Among the passengers on the steamship City of Seattle, from Dyea, were George C. Bounds and wife and William Mizner, of Skaguay, who left Dawson before Brown and Clark, coming out with the Galvin party, which arrived here Saturday. Their gold will not exceed $5,000. According to story brought by one of the Seattle's passengers there is much indignation at Skaguay over the attempt of Bernard Moore to throw the town site into the control of Canadians by conveying to the British Yukon company, Moore, it is alleged, is a British subject, but in his application to the United States Land office at Sitka, Alaska, he declares he is a citizen of the United States. The Americans at Skaguay have employed an attorney to look after their interests. San Francisco, Oct. 11.--Captain O. J. Humphrey, superintendent of the Pacific Steamer Company, having his headquarters at Prince William Sound, but who spends most of his time in the Copper River country, is in the city. He declares the whole region is rich, but that food is very scarce. Before leaving Alaska Captain Humphrey took a party of fifteen from San Diego, with ex-Sheriff O'Neil, of San Luis Obispo, at their head, to Copper River. He left them about ten miles up the river, at least for some time. STARVATION AT SKAGUAY. Skaguay, Oct. 1, via Victoria, B. C., Oct. 11.--Several parties who arrived on the Dalton trail from the Klondike report the story of scarcity of provisions and possible hunger and starvation with many persons there this winter. James Clark and C. A. Brown, who had been mining on Birch Creek, having left Dawson City on Sept. 6, and followed the river to fifteen miles above Pelly river, and there bought a horse and came in over the supposed Dalton trail, making the trip in twenty-six days to a miner's mission, getting there on Sunday. They passed the Thorp party on the summit with great relief of the party discouraged and wanting to turn back. Brown and Clark told them they had gone through 100 miles of snow, where no feed could be got for their stock, and it would be utterly impossible to get the stock through if they turned back. They had lost fifteen pack-horses on the trail, and part of his original party had turned back two days before, but he was stubborn and would not consent to turn back himself. About twenty-five persons came out over the Dalton trail this week. They say there are a good many following them, all bearing the same report, that there is no actual trail, and that the distance is 400 miles. Summits have to be crossed, impenetrable streams forded, and it is necessary to find one's way without Indian guides, even Thorp having to employ Indians. The largest party to come out together was eleven persons. Patrick Galvin and wife, George C. Bounds and wife, Charles Theob, John P. Maloney, Frank Beck, of Juneau, Harry Roman, Edward Armstrong, "Mushy" Rosenstein and "Little Willie" Misner of San Francisco. This party brought out a little gold dust. "Little Willie" Misner brought out about fifteen pounds, Galvin as much or more, and George C. Bounds fifty pounds. Most of the dust is deposited and drafts taken on Chicago and San Francisco. BOUNDS IS THE MAN WHO TOOK IN THE first beef cattle ever taken into the Yukon region. He started in at Missions with forty-five head in June, 1896, and made his own trail, built a rail below Five Fingers on the Yukon, and started, intending to take them to Circle City. But he got frozen in at the mouth of the Klondike and could not move either way. Then came the stampede to Bonanza and Eldorado, and he sold out every pound, probably saving the lives of many, and saving himself from financial ruin. He sold out $12,000 worth of beef entirely on credit to miners and did not lose one dollar, they making a small profit, so as to allow him to leave on Feb. 22 last. He came out at that time over the Chilkoot trail to Dyea. His wife went in on the first trip of the Excelsior last June. Bounds is interested with George McCormack in the "Discovery" claim on the Bonanza and had interests in "A" as well as all his interests outright, except "Discovery" claim, which he has bonded. He will make one more trip next May to settle up his interests.

RIOTING AT ROME.

A Large Procession of Tradesmen March to the Office of the Minister of the Interior--Crowd Tears Up the Pavement.

Rome, Oct. 11.--A large procession of tradesmen, headed by the Pro-Syndic of Rome and the president of the chamber of commerce, marched to the office of the minister of the interior this afternoon to protest against and confer with the government regarding the increased taxation. The minister, who is also minister of the interior, received the committee and promised that all possible would be done to promote friendly relations and greater equity between the tax collectors and tax payers. In the meanwhile a large crowd of people collected around the ministry and some took up paving stones and otherwise assumed a threatening attitude. This caused the police to make an attempt to disperse the violent portion of the crowd, but in the conflict which followed six policemen were injured and one rioter was killed. The revolutionary crisis while the fighting was in progress, Revolvers were freely used, and many persons in the crowd were injured. Twenty of the leaders of the disturbance were arrested.

TAMMANY AND ITS TERRORS

A Few Suggestions Regarding the Organization Given at Brooklyn. Senator Thornton's Great Speech.

New York, Oct. 11.--General Benjamin F. Tracy, former secretary of the navy and candidate for the office of mayor of Greater New York, was the leading orator at the first Republican mass meeting held in Brooklyn at the Academy of Music tonight. There was a large attendance. Mr. Tracy referred to Tammany Hall and Bryanism as the chief opposing forces of the Republicans in the campaign. He referred to Henry George as another candidate upon the platform of Bryanism. There was still another party which had made its appearance as a separate and independent party for the first time in its history--the party known as the Citizens' union. "The meaning of the success of the Citizens' union here is that the election of the Republican party if Mr. Low is elected, of course, all the influence of that great office will be used to insist upon the election of every Republican official. The Republican party will be called upon to disband, to disintegrate; to dissolve ourselves into our individual members, not to act, but to act as an organization. What will be the result? You once establish the principle of the Citizens' union, and the election will be carried by cliques, associations of a few citizens there, and you will have not one citizen, but a party of citizens, a dozen and there will be trading and dickering back and forth and the man who agrees to put his hand deepest into the treasury will get the vote." Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, was the next speaker. He said, in part: "Following every Republican presidential success there comes greater danger to the Republican party, and it comes first and last, powerful always, in every success of the Republican party. The Republicans who propose to revolutionize things and set up their individual judgment against the will of the party itself. "What has the history of this country been? It has been a series of successes since 1872, always doubtful, and only to be won by the most heroic efforts, by the greatest activity and by the greatest aid of the forces of good government in the country. "The fact that Tammany Democracy controlled New York city, has been the disadvantage of the Republican party left the election of 1876 in serious doubt and threw a cloud upon the title of President Hayes, and the Republican party in 1884 it robbed the American people of their will and stole the presidency of the United States from them. "There will be no more Republican presidential success in your life of our country, unless you elect Benjamin F. Tracy. This is no local issue. It may and it will affect the political control of this country for years to come. It will make the Republican party harder in every campaign. It may once more retire to the outcome of uncertainty and doubt the great business, industrial and commercial life of this country. "Last year there was a raid against the Republican party from the discordant and disaffected portions of American society. There was a man at the head of the party who was not an anarchist, yet he received the vote of every anarchist in the country; he was not a communist, and he was not a socialist; he was a law-abiding citizen, a Christian gentleman and yet there rallied around him the entire forces of lawlessness in the country; he was a man who had the history of municipal government around him those solidly urging his election to the party who insisted to the right of men to discredit their contracts, and to the right of men to find their way without Indian guides, even Thorp having to employ Indians. "The largest party to come out together was eleven persons. Patrick Galvin and wife, George C. Bounds and wife, Charles Theob, John P. Maloney, Frank Beck, of Juneau, Harry Roman, Edward Armstrong, "Mushy" Rosenstein and "Little Willie" Misner of San Francisco. This party brought out a little gold dust. TRAGEDY AT CHURCH.

A Woman Is Killed by a Bolt of Lightning.

Winston, N. C., Oct. 11.--A most distressing tragedy occurred at Union Ridge church, situated about two miles south of here, last night. About 7 o'clock, T. P. Huntman, with his wife, drove up to the church in a wagon to attend a Quaker meeting which has been in progress here about three weeks. As Mrs. Huntman was about to enter the church, a severe shock struck her, giving her such a severe shock that she died an hour afterwards. Many others were seriously injured and are not expected to live. Many women fainted, and the people were in a high state of excitement all night.

TROLLEY FATALITY.

Cedar Falls, Ia., Oct. 11.--A trolley car loaded with passengers on the Waterloo and Cedar Falls Rapid Transit line, was precipitated over a thirty-foot embankment three miles from this city today. One man, Myers, a traveling man, was killed outright, and ten others were seriously hurt. One of them will probably die.

THE ESCAPE OF MISS CISNEROS

Mr. Sherman Thinks It of No International Importance.

Washington, Oct. 11.--The rescue of Senorita Evangelina Cisneros from a prison in Cuba by the agents of a New York newspaper is regarded in diplomatic circles here as the most dangerous piece of business that has occurred during the whole course of the war in Cuba. Secretaries of State Sherman is the only man of prominence in the State Department who regards the release of the Spanish woman with complaisance. Mr. Sherman this morning declared that he was glad, as a man, that the young Senorita had been rescued from the prison, and he felt, as the head of the State Department, that no harm would come of it. He was asked what this Government would be likely to do if Spain made a demand for the surrender of the American citizens who were concerned in the release of the young woman, and he answered that there was no danger of Spain's making any such demand. Mr. Sherman appeared not only to be glad at the rescue of the young woman, even though it was accomplished through an agency that sought only self-advertisement, and may possibly lead this country into a serious diplomatic controversy with Spain, but he appeared to exult in the outwitting of the Spanish authorities. "The young woman had committed no overt act," said Mr. Sherman, "and the whole thing will blow over. I am glad that she has been released."

TEMPERANCE WOMEN IN CONVENTION

Interesting Sessions of the W. C. T. U. Are Held at Williamsport--Resolutions Passed and Officers Elected.

Williamsport, Oct. 11.--During the various sessions of the Women's Christian Temperance union, addresses were delivered by Miss Sallie Gliss, of Danbury, the most important thing being the address of Mrs. Ella Boole, state secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance union. A large number of resolutions were passed and the following being the most important: Resolved, That by the action of certain professors of Princeton university in signing a petition asking that license be granted to the Princeton Inn for the sale of intoxicants, the influence of the university has been placed on the side of the rum traffic. We earnestly ask the members of the W. C. T. U. to pray daily, whether or not it is wise to place their sons under the instruction of that institution. Resolved, That the state executive request the governor to recommend legislation, requesting that women as well as men be appointed upon boards of management of public institutions. Whereas, At the recent jubilee convention held in Philadelphia, September 187, of Red Men, they decided to admit the most important thing being the address of Mrs. Ella Boole, state secretary of the Women's Christian Temperance union.
