The celebration of Father Mathey day by the general parade of the Total Abstinence societies of this town was carried out yesterday under the most favorable auspices. The stirring strains of martial music enlivened the air and altogether the town presented the appearance of holiday attire. The par-ade was prettily arranged. The marshals and aids presented a military appearance as they passed along our rincipal streets. The officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary rode in an open ba-rouche and were greeted with applause along the route. In the evening an excellent entrtainment was rendered in Sarstield opera house, after which the guests repaired to the dining halls where a sumptuous repast was served der the supervision of Mrs. M. F.

The breaker boys of the Central col-Pennsylvania Coal company, turned out yesterday morning until such time as their grievances would be adjusted. At times they are granted a r-cess until large cars are received. This time was afterward made up late in the evening and no compensation allewed them. A conference was held and their demand acquiesced to by the company. The boys at once returned to work.

FACTORYVILLE.

Langstaff Hose company, No. 1, will hold a special meeting at their rooms tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of making arrangements to go to Tunkhannock on Oct. 19, to participate in the ceremonies of unveiling the sailors' and soldiers' monument. The sheriff's sale of the Byron Carpenter property in this place, that was to have been held last Saturday, was put over till Oct. 26. In the claim of Byron Carpenter against the Silas Wood estate, an arbitrator has been appointed to take testimony on Oct. 20.

The jurors from this borough that will serve on November term of com-mon pleas court, are Peter B. Walter and Stanley Reynolds. Albert Cobb has purchased a house and lot at Clark's Summit where he will move in the near future. Next Saturday afternoon at 3.36 on Keystone Academy athletic grounds Keystone foot ball team will compete with the strong Scranton High school team. As both teams are lined up very strong this season this will, no doubt, be the most interesting game on these grounds of the season. The game last Saturday between Keystone and the Tunkhannock High school team, was a decidedly one-sided affair, and very easily won by Keystone. The core was 36 to 0.

Factoryville encampment, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will hold a regular meeting this evening. Some of our "Rural sportsmen" make no hesitancy in shooting game out of season, and are even so bold as to bring it into town and offer it for sale. One of our well known business men had no trouble, a few days ago, in purchasing a nice mass of grav squirrels from a lawless citizen that don't live far from this town. This is only one of many instances that goes to show that our game and fish laws do not amount to much in this vicinity. Amzi Millard and family are moving over in Bailey town.

The unveiling of the soldiers' and sailors' monument at Tunkhannock on Tuesday, Oct. 19, will witness the largest crowd of people that has ever assembled at the county seat, and will perhaps be the only chance to witness a ceremony of this kind, until the unveiling of the "soldiers' monument" on the public square in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pike have returned from an extended visit with their son, James, in Washington, D. C. Quite a delegation from Red Jacket lodge, Independent Order of Odd Felows, of this place, attended Lackawanna lodge, No. 291, Scranton, last Friday evening. Stanley Reynolds was in Kingsley ver Sunday, where his wife has been pending some time with her parents. John Walter spent Sunday at the some of A. T. Brundage in Hartford,

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review New York, Oct. 11 .- The bear campaign on the stock exchange today inds its prototype in that of the illustrious French monarch who led his army up the hill and then led them down again. They sold numerous stocks which they did not possess and induced some few other persons to sell their holdings, but failed to induce any large liquidation, and the news of widespread rains in the west breaking the long drought admonished the bears to secure stocks to fill the selling contracts they had made. Their covering carried the market back over about he same course it had followed and the pet changes are very narrow in almost all cases. Total sales were 280,500
