FUNERAL OF REV. WESTLAKE.

t Was Largely Attended at Dallas Yesterday Morning.

Wilkes-Barre, Oct. 14.-The funeral of the late Rev. W. B. Westlake took place at the Dallas Methodist Episcopal church this morning at 11 o'clock and was, perhaps, the largest ever seen in that pretty hamlet. The body of the deceased reposed in a solid oak casket, lined with cream satin and plainly trimmed with silver. The plate on the lid contained simply his name and the date of his birth and death. Many floral tributes, from loving friends. were placed upon and around it, and as the multitude thronged into the parsonage to view the remains before the service, it was hard to believe that the occupant of the casket was dead, the features were so life-like in their

The floral tributes were many and most beautiful. A sheaf of ripened wheat, wreaths of full-blown roses,etc., being most prominent.

The services, as usual in the case of a deceased minister, were under the immediate direction of Presiding Elder J. G. Eckman, of Scranton, but eloquent tributes of respect to the worth of Mr. Westlake as a man, a teacher a minister, a singer and a Christian, were delivered by Dr. L. L. Sprague. of Wyoming seminary; Rev. Austin Griffin, of Binghamton; Rev. W. M. Hiller, of Susquehanna, and Revs. J. C. Leacock and J. B. Sumner, the remaining members of the Itinerant trio. Rev. Dr. Eckman spoke especially of his value as a member of the trio, and likened it, without Mr. Westlake, to a musical instrument with one of its keys silent. Revs. Sumner and Leacock sang a duet, entitled "Go to Thy Rest," in a very affecting manner, and aided by Rev. Stephen Jay, of Ashley, they also sang several hymns of consolation and Superintendent D. T. Bound, of the Wilkes-Barre and Northern railroad, placed three cars at the disposal of the funeral party and attaching them to the 1.10 p. m. train they were carried direct to the cemetery at Forty Fort, where in a beautiful spot near the bank of the Susquehanna all that was mortal of Pastor Westlake was laid to rest. Nearly a hundred friends accompanied the remains to their last rest-

Much credit is due Undertaker Brickel for the excellent arrangements in connection with the funeral.

Among the ministers present were Revs. James Benninger, Clark Callender, A. F. Chaffee, F. D. Cornell, J. G. Eckman, William Edgar, Austin Griffin, Will H. Hiller, William M. Hiller, Philip Houck, Stephen Jay, F. A. King, J. C. Leacock, James N. Lee, G. C. Lyman, Joseph Madison, C. E. Mogg, L. C. Murdock, W. R. Netherton, W. H. Pearce, Jonathan K. Peck, George T. Among those who came up from the valley was the venerable Calvin Parcons. of Parsons.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more nisunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicine and spring remedies; the real seat of the mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after. Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn. Mr. A. W. Sharper, of No. 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medi-Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, I have been a sufferer from nervous dys-pepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. The father put up a new house and was about to move it when it caught fire and burned down. The fire department records show that the alarm was turned in at 8.30 on a Friday morning. Before another new home could be put up, Miss Sadie Kennedy, a grown-up daughter, became insane and was sent to the asvium at Augusta. Last week she died crying: "Friday! Friday, at half past $!" The attendant who was with her at that time says she died at 8.30 on Friday morning.

in today's stock market might be likened to the tollsome and arduous efforts of a weakened animal to climb to a secure weakened animal to climb to a secure station only to be continually tumbled backward by a single hostile stroke. The ready success of the bears in depressing prices led them occasionally to take prof-its. These spasmodic covering movements were achieved without affecting any marked change in the general level of prices and resulted in an almost stagnant condition. Chicago Gas continued to oc-cupy by far the largest share of attencupy by far the largest share of atten-tion and ranged over 4% points during the day. Sugar came next, and was also the day. Sugar came next, and was also under heavy pressure, declining at one time 3 points below last night's lever. The gold which was shipped last week from Europe began to arrive today. The money market continues easy, though with no appreciable change in rates. Dealings in bonds were on a reduced scale and the tone was weak. Total sales of stocks were 39,650 shares.

All Kinds of Work Done Cheaper Than Any Other Dentist in the City.

KERR'S CARPETS

Represent the highest standard of excellence at the minimum of cost. That's the easiest and plainest way we can put it. Years of experience has taught us what is best for service, and a perfect knowledge of the public taste enables us to select what is right in styles.

Carpet selling at our store never was brisker, and the reason for this is simply that we've got what the people want. As to figures, they're misleading on paper, but convincing when you get them quoted with the goods before you. Give us a chance on these lines and we'll certainly sell you your Fall Carpets.

Of course we've got every other kind of Floor Covering that you can think of, and they're all for sale on the low-price for-good-qualities plan.
