THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

State. State Treasurer—J. S. BEACON, of Westmoreland. Auditor General—LEVI G. M'CAULEY, of Chester.

A POLITICAL POINTER. If you endorse the free trade and free-silver Chicago platform as the Lackawanna Democracy does, "fully and without reserve," then work and vote for Schadt, Horn, et al.

A Duty to Party and to Nation. One of the devices employed by the artful dodgers of the Schadt-Horn combination is to pass the word among Republicans with a prejudice against this, that or the other local Republican leader that the Republican ticket his retirement and to provoke estrangements between him and his chief, he would welcome with eagerness the fit occasion for a surrender of official cares. No act which he could hereafter perform as secretary of state could add to the stature which he will assume in history or augment the esteem in which he is held by all who possess the power to weigh public service fairly and with discrimination.

"Stop Thief!" Once every year, about this distance from election, the local Democratic organ begins its "stop thief" cry about the use by the Republicans of a huge corruption fund collected for distribution in the closing hours of the canvass.

While we believe the people at this time would prefer to see Judge Day succeed Mr. Sherman it is probable that Judge Day's inclinations and tastes will be to him to return to the state department. In that event Governor Long's advancement to the portfolio of state seems natural enough, leaving his vacancy to be filled by Mr. Roosevelt, who is admirably qualified for it.

Neither the federal government nor the governor of the state can furnish the Austrians with any light at this time on the powers and duties of the sheriff when shooting at Lettimer occurred. The federal government must reply to the Austrian minister at Lettimer on Sept. 30, is the initial step in what promises to be a prolonged international correspondence.

Coning Changes in the Cabinet. From the Chicago Times-Herald. The retirement of Justice Field from the supreme bench after his unparalleled service in that court will probably be followed by important changes in President McKinley's cabinet.

The Times' Plea for Harmony. We are particularly anxious that Democrats who did not stand with us on the currency question now upon us. Let past differences be forgotten, let us come together and rally once again under the banner of the Union.
