

Lackawanna County.

CARBONDALE.

Readers will please note that the establishment of Shannon & Co., new dealers, North Main street, will receive prompt attention; office open from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m.

AN AFTERNOON WEDDING.

Francis P. Coates, Jr., of Scranton, and Miss Grace M. Vannan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Vannan, of Belmont street, were united in marriage on Thursday afternoon at the Presbyterian church in this city. The service was solemnized by Rev. Charles Lee. A large number of friends witnessed the impressive ceremony. The ushers were Messrs. Dwight L. Crane, Edward D. Yarrington, Lyman M. Smith and J. V. Hollenbeck. As the bride party entered the church, Professor A. P. Thomas rendered the Lohengrin wedding march and during the ceremony played softly the "Call Me Thine Own" by Chopin. The bride wore a handsome gown of golden brown broadcloth with white chiffon front. After the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents and relatives. Mrs. Coates has just returned from a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. Coates' parents. On their return they will reside in Scranton at the Hotel Nash.

AFTERNOON RECEPTION.

A large and brilliant reception was given yesterday afternoon by Messrs. Lathrop and Dimock at the home of the former on Park street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, ferns, smilax and cut flowers. Mrs. Lathrop wore a handsome gown of pink silk with chiffon trimmings. Mrs. Dimock was dressed in black silk and lace. They were assisted in entertaining by Misses J. E. Burr, N. A. Hiller, C. L. Spencer, Humphrey and Peck. Mrs. James Stout presided at the table in the dining room and the guests were served by the Misses Reynolds, Copeland, Ellis, Fisher, Hathaway and W. C. Crane. The reception of the orchestra rendered favorite selections. The occasion was one of great enjoyment.

INJURED AT THE HENDRICK SHOPS.

An unfortunate accident occurred yesterday afternoon at the Hendrick shops by the breaking of a counter shaft. Two young men received injuries. Frank Storer, of Mill street, was badly bruised about the chest, neck and arms; William Dimock, of Chestnut avenue, received more serious injuries. Dr. Jenkins, Kelly and Lamb were called and the young men were cared for and then conveyed to their homes. The men were employed in the punch machine department.

BADLY BURNED AT A FURNACE.

Yesterday afternoon Charles Tallman, a young man who is employed as a fireman at the Pioneer Steam Laundry on Salem avenue, was badly burned about the face and hands. After opening the drafts of the furnace he looked in at the door and received a volume of flame upon his face. Fortunately his eyes were not greatly injured, and he was able to reach Dr. M. L. Bailey's office where he received treatment. It will be some time before he can resume his duties as fireman.

PRIZE SINGERS AT THE ACADEMY.

The Academy of Music was crowded on Thursday evening by an appreciative audience to hear the famous Welsh prize singers. The concert was given under the auspices of the Carbondale Cycle club and Isaac Singer was the active manager of the affair. The club appreciate the interest taken and support given to the effort, which was in all respects a success. Every one was delighted with the performance which was a musical performance of a high order.

AT REST.

The funeral of John Scanlon was attended yesterday morning by a large number of friends at St. Rose church. A solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. W. A. Nealon. He also delivered an impressive sermon. The pallbearers were: George McDonough, James Duffy, Patrick Carl, Anthony Jaffy, John Collins, Anthony Horan, James J. Ryan, Peter Brown. Among the out of town friends present were Mrs. Mary Bradley, of Binghamton; Mrs. Hoban and daughter, James Scanlon and Dr. Scanlon, of Scranton; Miss Katie Nealon, of Forest City.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

Rev. and Mrs. William Hiller, of Susquehanna, were visitors on Thursday at the home of their son, F. B. Hiller, of Canaan street. Dr. Swallow and W. W. Lathrop, enjoyed a ride over the Gravity railroad yesterday morning as the guests of Pierce Butler. Mrs. Marwood Jordan and daughter, Mrs. Seely, of Scranton, closed their cottage yesterday at Crystal lake for the season. Mrs. John Stephens and Mrs. Charles Roberts left yesterday for a visit among friends at Wilkes-Barre. At the social of the Berechths dancing class held in the Burke building on Thursday evening, Professor Francis de Lashorway, an expert banjo player, gave an entertainment. Mrs. Charles Nouser, of Forty-second street, after the surgical operation on Thursday, is doing well. Dwight Hildesheim, who was so seriously injured while coupling cars some two weeks ago, is improving. Joseph Swan, who has been employed for several years by the Delaware and Hudson company, died yesterday at Wayne. He fell from a tree some days ago when his back was broken. At the Germania band fair last evening the Temperance band of Jermyn rendered selections. A trombone solo was given by E. M. Campbell; a cornet solo by C. Sobor, and vocal solos by Miss Allen Jordan and Fred Mitchell. Miss Mary Myers has returned home from a visit with friends in Scranton.

LE BRUN'S FOR EITHER SEX. This remedy being in the seat of those diseases of the Genito-Urinary system... G & G CURE Sold only by Wm. G. Clark 326 Penn. Ave., Scranton, Pa.

There will be a big demonstration at the opera house tonight, when the Republican county campaign will be formally opened. Hon. W. W. Watson, Fred W. Pleitz and M. W. Lowry will be the principal speakers. Many of the candidates will be present. The Junior Republican club, eighty strong, of Scranton, will attend the meeting. Willard Hickok, of Plymouth, was visiting in this city yesterday. Messrs. R. F. Carpenter, H. O. Watrous, George Patterson and W. A. Spencer, who have been on a hunting expedition in the Maine woods, are expected home today. A verdict of guilty was returned yesterday in the case of the Scott family, charged with keeping a disorderly house. Mrs. D. W. Humphrey and daughter Grace, leave today for a visit with friends in Binghamton. A large audience enjoyed Kate Emma at the Grand Opera house.

A POLITICAL POINTER-- If you endorse the free trade and free-silver Chicago platform as the Lackawanna Democracy does, "fully and without reserve," then work and vote for Schadt, Horn, et al. If you believe in McKinley, protection and prosperity, turn these agents of Bryan down.

PECKVILLE. Last Wednesday noon Miss Rose Glanville and Mr. Charles Waltz, two of Peckville's well known young people, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. G. C. Lyman at Green Hill. The ceremony was attended by Miss Stella Wademan, while Mr. Edmund Williams acted as best man. The bride was attired in a very becoming dark green traveling suit while her maid of honor wore a dress of green and black. After the marriage ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Waltz left Scranton on the 2.25 p. m. train to spend their honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents at Mount Cobb. On their return they will go to house-keeping in a neatly furnished home on Main street.

Miss Lillian Peck has returned after visiting for a few days at the home of her aunt, Mrs. William Grant, of Wilkes-Barre. David W. Shay have returned home after spending a very pleasant week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Van Cott and Mr. and Mrs. Shay, at New Milford.

Mrs. W. J. Akers and daughter, George, Peckville, Carbondale, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Akers' sister, Mrs. S. M. Rogers. Mrs. Charles Beattys returned last Thursday from a visit with relatives and friends at Philadelphia.

PRICEBURG. Golden Chain lodge, No. 945, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, had the following officers installed to their respective stations at their meeting on Thursday evening: Noble grand, John Elderkin; vice-grand, Richard Barron; assistant secretary, Samuel J. Barrett; treasurer, Vaughn Richards. Delegates were present from Providence, Peckville, Carbondale, Jermyn and Olyphant lodges. A grand supper was served among the members.

MOSCOW. Miss MacEhelen returned home Tuesday night, after spending a few days with friends at Scranton. P. W. Posten spent Sunday with friends at Tobyhanna. Charles Labarr, of Scranton, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Anna Labarr, Sunday.

Miss Hollister's pupils will give a musical in her studio, Wednesday, Oct. 20, to which all are invited. Admission, ten cents. The programme is as follows: Part I--Selected, orchestra; Lily Gavotte (Grieg); Edna Malone; "Confidence (Mendelssohn); Helen Clouse; solo (selected); Sara Becker; piano solo; Mazouka; Adella H. Hall; waltz (Cooper); Fred C. Depev, Part II--Piano duo; "Trivoltz Polka"; Ruth Gardner and Grace Travis; tenor solo (selected); R. H. Martin; piano solo; Grace Travis; vocal selection; Mrs. J. M. Noack; piano solo, violin obbligato, Nellie Hollister and Daniel Gardner; orchestra, selected.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuyser, of Kuyser, are visiting at the home of their daughter Mrs. John Peck. Peckville Baptist church--Rev. J. S. Thompson, pastor, services at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject for the morning, "Losing by Saving and Saving by Losing"; evening subject, "The Grand Pursuit." Sabbath school at 2.30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Services at the Welsh Congregational church as follows: Morning preaching by H. Chapman, at 10.30; evening services at 7 o'clock, preaching by the Rev. A. B. Kunkel, of the Presbyterian church, Sunday school, 2.30; Epworth league at 6 p. m. in lecture room. All are welcome.

TAYLOR. All arrangements have been completed for the grand testimonial concert which is to be held in the Calvary Baptist church on Monday evening next in honor of our fellow townsman, John T. Watkins. The committee in charge of the affair have procured for the occasion the very best talent and the concert promises to be one of the grandest events of the season. The following is the program: "The Soldier's Song," "Soldier Song," Mascheroni; John T. Watkins; piano solo, "Valse-de-Concert," Wlelawski; T. Reeve Jones; recitation, "Mr. Frazer's First Hunt," R. H. Davis; Miss Bessie E. Parker; song, "The Sands of Dee," Clay; Miss Sattie Estelle Kaiser; song, "Mona," S. Adams; Thomas Beynon; recitation, selected, Miss Bessie E. Parker; songs: (a) "Could I," Mattel; (b) "Chase," Gounod; John T. Watkins; song, "The Sands of Dee," Clay; Miss Sattie Estelle Kaiser; piano solo, (a) "Nocturne," Chopin; (b) "Das Stelgen der Lerche," Rehebert; T. Reeve Jones; duet, "The Tranquil Night," Oliver; Miss Kaiser and Mr. Watkins. At the piano, Miss Florence H. Richmond, Miss Julia White.

Preaching at the Welsh Congregational church tomorrow at the usual hours. Rev. Ivor Thomas will preach in the morning, subject, "Saved by the Grace of God." In the evening Professor Yokano, a native of Tokyo, Japan, who is at present in this country preparing himself for the ministry and missionary work in his native land, will occupy the pulpit. Mr. Yokano will wear native costume and offerings will be taken to assist him in his work.

This evening will be the closing of the Calvary fair and festival and if you desire to possess fancy articles at bargain prices do not fail to attend this evening. The contests for the scholarships will close this evening. Last evening the rink was full to its utmost capacity.

Miss Jessie Owens, of Scranton, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Owens, on Thursday. The Rev. L. R. Foster will preach at 10.30 a. m. tomorrow at the Presbyterian church. Sunday school at the close of the morning service.

Services at the Calvary Baptist church at 10.30 a. m. and 8 p. m. tomorrow, Rev. Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate. Morning subject, "No Cross, No Crown." Sunday school at 2 p. m.

The evening sermon will be "To Be or Not to Be That is the Question." All are welcome. A band of gypsies are camping at the Old Homestead track. James Davis, Edward Hopkins and James Smith, of Avoca, attended the Calvary fair on Thursday evening. Messrs. William Davis and D. A. Williams attended the Bloomsburg fair yesterday. H. J. Daniels, who for twelve years has been Taylor correspondent for the Scranton Truth, has resigned that position. Independent Order of Odd Fellows, No. 663, will meet this evening in their hall on North Main street. Mrs. Robert Inalls, of Yateville, is the guest of her parents on Main street. John K. Knight, of Philadelphia, was here on business yesterday. William Whiteford attended the Bloomsburg fair yesterday. Don't forget to attend the fair and festival in Weber's rink this evening.

CLARK'S GREEN. Midnight marauders are still causing much trouble and annoyance in this vicinity, but no organized effort has been made to rid the anxious people of these noxious personages. Mrs. George W. Loder is convalescing from her recent illness. Mr. Deitrich, of Tunkhannock, was here on business during the week. The tea house of our new resident, George Wells, formerly of the West Side, was destroyed on Monday morning last. No knowledge of the cause has as yet been advanced, but it seems a clear case of incendiarism. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ackerly, Jr., and son are visitors at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Ackerly.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Parker, of the West Side, were visitors at the home of our merchant, W. E. France, and returned to their home on Monday last. H. E. Northup, of Stroudsburg, spent Monday night at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Northup. W. P. Conon made a business trip to Scranton on Wednesday. Merton Cook has accepted a position at George L. Burdick's, near Griffin reservoir.

Golden Chain lodge, No. 945, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, had the following officers installed to their respective stations at their meeting on Thursday evening: Noble grand, John Elderkin; vice-grand, Richard Barron; assistant secretary, Samuel J. Barrett; treasurer, Vaughn Richards. Delegates were present from Providence, Peckville, Carbondale, Jermyn and Olyphant lodges. A grand supper was served among the members.

MOSCOW. Miss MacEhelen returned home Tuesday night, after spending a few days with friends at Scranton. P. W. Posten spent Sunday with friends at Tobyhanna. Charles Labarr, of Scranton, was the guest of his mother, Mrs. Anna Labarr, Sunday.

Miss Hollister's pupils will give a musical in her studio, Wednesday, Oct. 20, to which all are invited. Admission, ten cents. The programme is as follows: Part I--Selected, orchestra; Lily Gavotte (Grieg); Edna Malone; "Confidence (Mendelssohn); Helen Clouse; solo (selected); Sara Becker; piano solo; Mazouka; Adella H. Hall; waltz (Cooper); Fred C. Depev, Part II--Piano duo; "Trivoltz Polka"; Ruth Gardner and Grace Travis; tenor solo (selected); R. H. Martin; piano solo; Grace Travis; vocal selection; Mrs. J. M. Noack; piano solo, violin obbligato, Nellie Hollister and Daniel Gardner; orchestra, selected.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuyser, of Kuyser, are visiting at the home of their daughter Mrs. John Peck. Peckville Baptist church--Rev. J. S. Thompson, pastor, services at 10.30 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject for the morning, "Losing by Saving and Saving by Losing"; evening subject, "The Grand Pursuit." Sabbath school at 2.30 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Services at the Welsh Congregational church as follows: Morning preaching by H. Chapman, at 10.30; evening services at 7 o'clock, preaching by the Rev. A. B. Kunkel, of the Presbyterian church, Sunday school, 2.30; Epworth league at 6 p. m. in lecture room. All are welcome.

TAYLOR. All arrangements have been completed for the grand testimonial concert which is to be held in the Calvary Baptist church on Monday evening next in honor of our fellow townsman, John T. Watkins. The committee in charge of the affair have procured for the occasion the very best talent and the concert promises to be one of the grandest events of the season. The following is the program: "The Soldier's Song," "Soldier Song," Mascheroni; John T. Watkins; piano solo, "Valse-de-Concert," Wlelawski; T. Reeve Jones; recitation, "Mr. Frazer's First Hunt," R. H. Davis; Miss Bessie E. Parker; song, "The Sands of Dee," Clay; Miss Sattie Estelle Kaiser; song, "Mona," S. Adams; Thomas Beynon; recitation, selected, Miss Bessie E. Parker; songs: (a) "Could I," Mattel; (b) "Chase," Gounod; John T. Watkins; song, "The Sands of Dee," Clay; Miss Sattie Estelle Kaiser; piano solo, (a) "Nocturne," Chopin; (b) "Das Stelgen der Lerche," Rehebert; T. Reeve Jones; duet, "The Tranquil Night," Oliver; Miss Kaiser and Mr. Watkins. At the piano, Miss Florence H. Richmond, Miss Julia White.

This evening will be the closing of the Calvary fair and festival and if you desire to possess fancy articles at bargain prices do not fail to attend this evening. The contests for the scholarships will close this evening. Last evening the rink was full to its utmost capacity.

Miss Jessie Owens, of Scranton, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Owens, on Thursday. The Rev. L. R. Foster will preach at 10.30 a. m. tomorrow at the Presbyterian church. Sunday school at the close of the morning service.

Services at the Calvary Baptist church at 10.30 a. m. and 8 p. m. tomorrow, Rev. Dr. H. H. Harris will officiate. Morning subject, "No Cross, No Crown." Sunday school at 2 p. m.

A WOMAN'S BODY.

What Its Neglect Leads to. Mrs. Chas. King's Experience.

A woman's body is the repository of the most delicate mechanism in the whole realm of creation, and yet most women will let it get out of order and keep out of order, just as if it were of no consequence. Their backs ache and heads throb and burn; they have wandering pains, now here and now there. They experience extreme lassitude, don't care and want-to-be-late feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness and blues, yet they will go about their work until they can scarcely stand on their poor swollen feet, and do nothing to help themselves. They have wandering pains, now here and now there. They experience extreme lassitude, don't care and want-to-be-late feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness and blues, yet they will go about their work until they can scarcely stand on their poor swollen feet, and do nothing to help themselves.

These are the positive fore-runners of serious womb complications, and unless given immediate attention will result in untold misery, if not death. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will, beyond the question of a doubt, relieve all this trouble before it becomes serious, and it has cured many after their troubles had become chronic. The Compound should be taken immediately upon the appearance of any of these symptoms above enumerated. It is a vegetable tonic which invigorates and stimulates the entire female organism, and will produce the same beneficial results in the case of any sick woman as it did with Mrs. CHAS. KING, 1515 Rosewood St., Philadelphia, Pa., whose letter we attach: "I write these few lines, thanking you for restoring my health. For twelve years I suffered with pains impossible to describe. I had bearing-down feelings, backache, burning sensation in my stomach, chills, headache, and always had black specks before my eyes. I was afraid to stay alone, and I sometimes had four and five fainting spells a day. I had several doctors and tried many patent medicines. Two years ago I was so bad that I had to go to bed and have a trained nurse. Through her, I commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I never had anything give me the relief that it has. I have taken eight bottles, and am now enjoying the best of health again. I can truthfully say it has cured me."

MUSICAL NOTES.

Scranton's musical world is shortly to be enhanced by another of those justly popular concerts given by the Symphony orchestra under the able leadership of Mr. Theodore Hemberger. The last number of the orchestra, Miss Rosa Koempel, the young pianist virtuoso, will perform among other number the well-known concerto in G minor by Weber with the orchestra. The most pleasant feature of the evening will be the vocaling of one of Handel's arias by Miss K. Timmermann. The orchestra will give a better programme, if possible, than usual, the first number being the sublime, almost divine Gothic symphony by Beethoven. Another number will be the celebrated "Dance of the Dead of Camille St. Saens." One of the features of the evening will be a symphonie poem on an ideal theme. It has been claimed by those who have heard it, that the future for this poem will be as bright as the culmination of music, a light to show in the modern school of composition, the progress that music is making. It is by Mr. Theodore Hemberger. The last number of the evening will be a pleasant surprise to the music-loving Scrantonian. This concert will probably take place Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, Oct. 22-24.

The testimonial concert to be given Mr. John T. Watkins at the Lyceum Thursday evening, Oct. 21, promises to be a musical event of great interest. A large number of the features of the evening are disposed of and a crowded house will greet this ever popular singer. The programme will be, in part, as follows: Aria, "Lend Me Thine Aid" (Gounod) (La Hete de Salu). Tom Beynon. Song, "Ocean Thou Mighty Monster." Miss Sattie Estelle Kaiser. Recitation, "The Marriage of the Flowers" (F. B. Hall). Recitation and Aria-- (a) "Thus Saith the Lord" (Messiah) Handel (b) "Who Shall Abide" (Gedard) Handel (c) "John T. Watkins." Violin Solo, "L'Adieu" (from Tchaikovsky) (Miss Julian Clapp Allen). Song, "Lo, Hear the Gentle Lark." Miss Kaiser. (Violin Obligato, Eugene P. Ham.) Recitation, "The Messenger." Miss Parker. Song, (a) "O Tu Palermo." (b) "Verdis Ceilian Vespere" (Dio Possenti). Gounod's Faust Violin Solo, "La Chasse" (Sarasate) Miss Allen. At the piano: Mr. Pennington, Miss Florence McDonald, Miss Annie O'Neill.

Mr. Haydn Evans will commence a series of free musical organ recitals at the Penn Avenue Baptist church, commencing at 2.15, and lasting one hour. The object is to give the people an opportunity to drop in the church to rest during the noon hour and hear good music.

From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

A WORD OF ADVICE-- Republicans who are faithful in so-called off years are the ones whose fealty to party counts. Let all such bestir themselves now.

STORY OF A PIECE OF TAPE. Which Gave Occasion for a Pretty Bit of Wit. It was at one of Mrs. John Sherwood's readings not so very long ago, says the New York Sun. The reading was over and Mrs. Sherwood, attended by several admirers, was slowly making her way out of the room, when those who happened to be walking behind her caught sight of something that riveted their attention. The something was a long piece of pink tape that had evidently become attached to Mrs. Sherwood's skirt and trailed after her for some distance along the carpet. On went Mrs. Sherwood, on went the piece of pink tape, and great was the interest of the onlookers. At last one of these could stand it no longer, and, picking up the tape, he hastened to Mrs. Sherwood's side and said: "I don't know just what this is, Mrs. Sherwood, but it's plainly your property, so let me restore it to you."

In her most impressive manner Mrs. Sherwood turned. She looked first at the piece of pink tape, then at the man who proffered it. Next she drew from her pocket a huge roll of manuscript, around which she proceeded to wind the pendant tape. "Thank you," she said, sweetly. "You see, it's the tail of my discourse."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

Plenty of North Pole Game. From the Washington Star: "Did you get anything?" asked Farmer Cottontail's wife as he returned from his hunting trip. "You surely didn't come home empty-handed?" "No, But it's the next thing to it. I haven't anything but a couple more of our rapturous messengers from the North Pole tied to 'em."

The Newark School Shoes. The Newark School Shoes. We ought to sell ALL of the School Shoes that will be sold in Scranton this fall. But we won't. Some people are such poor judges of QUALITY that they would pay $1.00 for a shoe that is nearly as shoddy, rather than pay $1.25 for a really good shoe. These people's trade we won't get. We will get the trade of people who like to make sure of what they are buying. These who are good judges and don't want job lots of trashy stuff. We are better prepared than any one else to serve such people and we will sell them school shoes "of any other kind" that will prove cheaper than any other shoes they can buy.

THE NEWARK SHOE STORE, Corner Lackawanna and Wyoming Avenues. N. B.--See our Foster Boots for Ladies' Wear and the James A. Banister Co.'s Shoes for Men.

BITTENBENDER & CO. Sole Agents For Neverslip and Holdfast Calks and Shoes, Gibbs' Rubber Cushion Horse Shoes, Wagon and Blacksmith Supplies, Merchant Iron and Steel. Leading makes of Bicycles and Sundries, Nickel-Plating and Repairing Difficult Recept and Recept Job Work, a Specialty, Power Bolt and Rod Threading and Taping, Power Shearing and Punching. W. E. BITTENBENDER, W. E. KEMMERER, Mgrs of Bicycle Dept.

126 and 128 Franklin Ave., Scranton LACKAWANNA LUMBER CO., MANUFACTURERS OF GRWG SAWED PENNA. WHITE HEMLOCK AND HARDWOOD LUMBER. Bill Timber cut to order on short notice. Hardwood Mine Rails sawed to uniform lengths constantly on hand. Peeled Hemlock Prop Timber promptly furnished. M. J. At Gross Forks, Potter Co., on the Buffalo and Susquehanna Railroad. At Mina, Potter County, Pa., on Goudersport, and Port Allegany Railroad. Capacity--400,000 feet per day. GENERAL OFFICE--Board of Trade Building, Scranton, Pa. Telephone No. 4014.

THE DICKSON MANUFACTURING CO. SCRANTON AND WILKES-BARRE, PA., Manufacturers of LOCOMOTIVES, STATIONARY ENGINES, BOILERS. HOISTING AND PUMPING MACHINERY. GENERAL OFFICE, SCRANTON, PA.

RAILROAD TIME TABLES. DELAWARE AND HUDSON. On Monday, July 4, trains will leave Scranton as follows: For Carbondale--6.20, 7.35, 8.25, 10.15 a. m.; 12.00 noon; 1.25, 2.25, 3.25, 4.25, 5.25, 6.25, 7.25, 8.15, 10.45 p. m.; 12.10 a. m. For Albany, Saratoga, Montreal, Boston, New England points, etc., 6.20 a. m., 2.20 p. m., 12.00 noon; 2.25, 3.25, 4.25, 5.25, 6.25, 7.25, 8.15, 10.45 p. m.; 12.10 a. m. For New York, Philadelphia, etc., via Lehigh Valley R. R., 7.50 a. m., 1.25, 2.25, 3.25, 4.25, 5.25, 6.25, 7.25, 8.15, 10.45 p. m.; 12.10 a. m. (with Black Diamond Express) 11.30 p. m. For Pennsylvania R. R. points--6.45, 8.35, 10.15, 12.00 noon, 1.45, 3.30, 5.15, 7.00, 8.45, 10.30, 12.15 a. m. For western points via Lehigh Valley R. R., 7.50 a. m., 1.25, 2.25, 3.25, 4.25, 5.25, 6.25, 7.25, 8.15, 10.45 p. m.; 12.10 a. m. 6.00 p. m., week days, for Hazleton and Pottsville. J. R. WOOD, Gen'l Pass. Agent. J. B. HUTCHINSON, General Manager.

Central Railroad of New Jersey (Lehigh and Susquehanna Division). Stations in New York--Foot of Liberty street, N. Y., and Whitehall Terminal. Anthracite coal used exclusively, insured, fire and theft, and comfortable. SCHEDULE IN EFFECT JULY 22, 1897. Trains leave Scranton for Pittston, Wilkes-Barre, etc., at 8.15, 10.15, 12.15, 2.15, 4.15, 6.15, 8.15, 10.15, 12.15 p. m. For Mountain Top, 2.15 p. m. For Atlantic City, 8.30 a. m. For New York, Newark and Elizabeth, 8.30 (express), 10.15 (express) via 1.55, 3.40, 6.00 and 8.47 p. m. Sunday 10.15 p. m. Train leaving 12.15 p. m. arrives at Philadelphia, Reading Terminal, 5.25 p. m. and New York, 6.00 p. m. For Beach Blank, Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton and Philadelphia, 8.20 a. m., 12.15, 2.15, 4.15 (except Philadelphia) p. m. Sunday, 2.15 p. m. For Long Branch, Ocean Grove, etc., at 8.20, 10.15, 12.15 p. m. For Reading, Lebanon and Harrisburg, 8.20 a. m., 12.15, 2.15, 4.15 p. m. Sunday, 2.15 p. m. For Pottsville, 8.20 a. m., 12.15 p. m. Returning leave New York, Foot of Liberty street, at 9.10 (express) and 10.15 (local) a. m., 1.10, 1.30, 4.15 (express) with Buffet parlor car, 8.25, 10.20, 12.15 p. m. New York, Foot of Liberty street, at 1.10, 1.30, 4.15 (express) with Buffet parlor car, 8.25, 10.20, 12.15 p. m. For Buffalo and Staten Island, making quick transfer to and from Central Railroad of New Jersey, Reading Terminal, 9.00 a. m., 2.30 and 4.30 p. m. Sunday, 2.30 p. m.