SLOCUM LODGE.

L. O. O. F. Installation Ceremony Included a Gift to Trustee R. H. Williams and a Smoker.

One of the most interesting meetings in the history of Slocum lodge, No. 976, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was held last Saturday evening. The lodge was opened at the regular hour, and its routine business transacted, after which its officers-elect were installed by District Deputy Grand Master Charles Keiser and his proficient staff of assistants, acting grand officers, William Lush, grand warden; George Grisvold, grand secretary; Leopold Yohler, grand treasurer; Louis Schantz, grand marshal, and Charles Smrell, grand inner guard.

Immediately after these exercises Past Grand Joseph Oliver, chairman of a committee appointed to procure a suitable testimonial of esteem and appreciation of services rendered by Past Grand Richard H. Williams in the capacity of trustee for a term of fifteen years, made a few preliminary remarks, and on behalf of the lodge and committee presented Mr. Williams with a handsome oil painting of himself. Mr. Williams fittingly acknowledged the gift. A recess was then taken and a smoker enjoyed.

Appropriate addresses were made by each of the installing staff, Past Grand John H. Kelly, of Scranton; Past Grand Master W. Gaylord Thomas, Past Grand Samuel Jones, George Barth, James Leysch, Evan J. Williams and Brother Martin Joyce. The lodge was then closed in form, each one present pronouncing it an enjoyable occasion.

HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL.

Appropriately Observed at the Scranton Street Baptist Church.

The congregation of the Scranton Street Baptist church last evening observed the Harvest Home festival customary at this time of the year.

The church auditorium was artistically decorated. The background of the pulpit niche was relieved by a large flag and placed in front was a large pyramid composed of many varieties of fruit, grain and vegetables. Grouped in conspicuous places about this pyramid were the implements used on a farm. About the altar railing were placed flowering plants and potted palms. Suspended above the pulpit were the words "Harvest Home".

formed of autumn leaves strung on an invisible wire.

The Ladies' Aid society and the Young People's union perfected the beautiful decorations. In addition to a special sermon preached by the pastor, Rev. S. F. Matthews, the choir rendered special music under the direction of Chorister Thomas Evans, accompanied by Organist Mrs. Hedcoe.

The text of the sermon was Leviticus, xiii:10-11, directing the bringing of a sheaf or the first fruits of the harvest as an offering. The speaker first described the ritualistic forms governing this service and then carried out the idea of the church and her people bringing the first fruits of her labors in Christ's vineyard. He picked out the several farm implements and used them as symbols of the methods a Christian should employ in his chosen work while laboring for good. The plough, rake, hoe, spade, scythe, etc., each signified some idea which a worker might bring by.

The speaker compared the simplicity of the farm harvest and drew out the idea of the application of "Equality," citing as scriptural authority Isaiah, vi:5.

An employee of the cigar shop hurried out with a shovel and wrapped the screaming child in it quickly smothered the fire.

Dr. Moylan was summoned and rendered medical aid to father and son. The boy was probably more frightened than hurt, but Mr. Deckelnic will be unable to use either hands for some time. The burns in several places being very deep. This is the second accident of a similar nature which has happened to Mr. Deckelnic's family. The first time the little fellow was saved by his brother, eleven years of age.

BUNCOERS ABOARD: BEWARE!

It is the trick of the Byzantine Democracy, this fact to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican malcontents to organize Republican bolts and then coax individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryantes will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound money.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

Another Corset Fete

The ladies of Lackawanna county cannot have forgotten the wonderful success that attended our introduction of Redfern Corsets to Scranton last spring, and the demonstration we then made of the adaptability of this famous corset to figures of any proportions. The expert fitter then sent by the manufacturer to wait on our patrons found it impossible to stay as long as we desired, and since that time we have been besieged by ladies who missed the opportunity of having Redfern Corsets Perfectly fitted to their forms, requesting to know if the lady fitter who was with us for two weeks in May would return again? We're able to answer that question now. The same lady will be here again all of next week.

It is not necessary to expatiate on the benefits of Redfern Corsets A more scientifically constructed garment has never been constructed by human ingenuity. It is not only perfect in its fitting properties, but is the most comfortable and perfectly hygienic corset ever invented.

As a Figure Improver It has no equal; in a word, there is but one Redfern Corset, and we are prepared, with the assistance of the expert fitter sent by the manufacturer, to prove that no other corset in the world equals it.

See Our Special Corset Display in Our Window.
