Chicago, Oct. 19 .- Another night of suspense is ahead of the defendant in dition commanded by Dr. Donaldson the Luctgeri case. At 9 o'clock tonight the jury had gone to b d on gots which were placed in the court room, and it many of the villages Cavendish found was announced by Judge Tuthill that, even though by one chance in a million the jurors should wake up and agree upon a verdict, there would be no announcement, and the court room would under no circumstances be opened until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning,

A few minutes after 8 o'clock Judge Tuthill appeared at the criminal court building and being admitted alonpassed quickly up stairs, giving positive orders that nobody should be admitted to the building under any cir-cumstances. Within a few minutes after he had issued these instructions. Attorney Phalen, the junior counsel for the defense, put in an appearance and wanted admission. He was promptly refused, and it took all of his powers of per-uasion and argument to get past the guard at the door.

Judge Tuthill went directly to the court room where he was told by the bailin's in charge of the jury that several of the jurymen were almost ex-bausted by the ordeal to which they had been subjected during the last thirty hours, and that if they were not allowed some rest it would certainly result in some of them becoming ill. The jury also sent word that there was no immediate prospect of an agreement, and under the circumstances th udge gave orders that they be permitted to drop the case and go to sleep. The cots were quickly dragged into the court room, and within a few minutes. every juror was stretched out at full length and all consideration of the case was off until they should wake in the morning. Judge Tuthill after giving directions that all things possible should be done for the comfort of the jury left the building for his home.

State's Attorney Dencen said late this afternoon that a verdict might be reached by the jury this evening, BY ORDER OF PRESIDENT GOMPERS but he did not expect a return until

Just before retiring for the night the jury took another ballot, the vote standing nine for conviction and three for acquittal.

In explanation, it was said, that the 'misunderstanding" was occasioned by the fact that her broker had not kept her acquainted with her exact position in regard to certain stock transactions. Previous to this, in December, 18.0°, Sir Tatton Syles advertised that he would not be responsible for his wife's debts. This grew out of the fact that she had commissioned Lord Marcus Peresford to purchase the famous mare, La Fleeche, at the sale of Earon Hirsch's stud, in July of that year, and Lord Beresford secured the horse for the sum of $69,455. Sir Tatton, after at first refusing to pay for the mare, relented and helped his wife out of the difficulty.

LABOR CONVENTION

Meeting to Be Held at Nashville on December 13--Strong Plea for a Full Attendance -- The Judicint Weapon of Injunction Is to Be Discussed, as Well as Other Matters of Importance.

Washington, Oct. 19.-President Samuel Compers, by Frank Morrison, secretary, has issued a call to all affiliated unions for the seventeenth annual convention of the American Federation of Labor to be held at Nashville, Fenn., in the hall of the house of representatives at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Dec. 13 next. The session is to continue until all the business of the convention shall have been completed. Resolutions of any character or propositions for changes in the constitution intended for consideration by the convention must be submitted to the secretary at least two weeks prior to the meeting. The committee on credentials will meet at Nashville three days previous to the opening of the convention. The call makes a strong plea for a full attendance of workingmen at the convention and states that no convention in recent years has been called upon to deal with more momentuous questions than confront the workers of today. Owing to the distance the expense of attendance may be somewhat greater than usual, and owing to the severe drains that affiliated organizations have sustained in recent years there may be a desire to husband resources and refrain from being present, but this is said to be mistaken economy and organizations are carnestly warned against it. The objects of the convention are, in part, thus set out in the call: The severities of the industrial stagnation of the past four years have not vet been abated; the wrongs from which the workers suffer have not been ighted; the injustice imposed upon our people remains unremedied; the overvorked large mass and the unemployd many are still testimony to the folly of our age: the employment of chil-Iren in our factories and workshops, though modified, lingers with us still and the spectacle is witnessed of idle men and laboriously busy children; egislatures are more concerned with the privileges to the few than the rights of he many; with public assemblage and free speech invaded, threatened or fordidden, and the modern judicial weapon of injunction utilized with the effort to crush labor. A Would-Be Victim Shot and Believes He Killed the Man. Barnegat, N. J., Oct. 19 .- Vigorous earch is being made in the vicinity of Waretown for a wounded footpad or his corpse. George De Witt, who drives a wagon for an Asbury Park confec-tioner, drove wildly into the village last Friday night and sent telegrams to Sheriff Jeffrey and Prosecutor Brown to surrender to justice. De Witt was all excitement, and said that he had been attacked on the road by two footpads, who demanded his money. While one held his horse's head the other endeavored to climb into his wagon. De-Witt says that putting a hand into his pocket as if to give up his money, he pulled a revolver instead, and fired directly into the face of the fellow who was climbing in the wagon. The man fell back, the horse leaped forward and De Witt drove rapidly into town.

The sheriff and prosecutor hastened down on a late train, and searching parties went out. They found no signs of bloodshed nor any dead man, and it was concluded that De Witt had been dreaming, Yesterday, however, there vas discovered in a part of the road remote from the scene as laid by the scared driver, unmistakable evidence that somebody had been hurt, Blood sall tonight from a Texas was found in the bushes, and a bloody handkerchief was picked up and a spot was found where either a body had been dragged or some one had crawled through the underbrush.

Henry George In a Reminiscent Mood -- He Tells of the Part Taken by Rev. Dr. Edward McGivun. Views of the Situation from Various Standpoints.

New York, Oct. 19,-Richard Croker pent a half hour at Tammany Hall oday. His views were asked on the subject of disciplining certain of the Democratic leaders in Kings county, who have threatened to cut Van Wyck. Mr. Croker advised against action.

What's the use of interfering?" he said, "if they are angry, that would make them angrier still." Speaking of some Tammanyites who had gone over to the Citizens' union, he said: "It's a singular fact that men who are kicked out of Tammany all become reformers." Mr. Croker spoke highly of the value

f newspaper publicity. He commentd upon the fact that more respect was hown to utterances in print than the nost hapassioned address of any neaker.

Mr. Croker thought it a mistake to bring speakers from outside of New York to tell voters here what they ught to do in a municipal campaign. Henry George was again in a reminiscent mood today. It grew out of an allusion to the question of veracity which has arisen between him and excomptroller Ivins over the mayoralty ampaign of 1886, and related to the sart taken in their canvass by the Rev. Dr. Edward McGlynn, which resulted n Dr. McGlynn's suspension from the riestly office. Mr. George said that he ent to Archbishop Corrigan to plead

NO PROSPECT OF VERDICT.

"They have not agreed as yet." he said when he left the court house, "and when I became convinced that there was little prospect of their doing so, and saw how weary some of them were, I told them to go to sleep and try to agree in the morning."

The long day wore slowly away with nothing to relieve its monotony save the request of the jury for the map of Luetgert's factory and surroundings, which has hung in the court room since the trial began. It was believed at first that some point in reference to the vicinity was under discussion, but later information developed the fact that the jury in order to circumvent the efforts of a crowd of reporters who from an adjoining building were surveying them with telescopes had placed the map across the window, shutting out all views of the room.

At 5 o'clock the twelve men had been out twenty-four hours. Two letters offering bribes to the foreman if the jury in the Luetgert case have been received by Judge Tuthill, and are now in possession of the state's attorney. The amount offered is $1,600. Both letters are signed George Atrill. State's Attorney Dencen is not disposed to regard the attempted bribery seriously. but Inspector Schaack and Assistant State's Attorney McEwen look upon the matter with suspicion. The first letter was received last Monday morning. It was dated Oct. 16, the day upon which it was originally believed the case would go to the jury. It reads:

Mr. Foreman: Dear Sir-A powerful influence is at work to save Adolph L. Luet, gert. Money is scarce, and in these hard mes a $100 or so comes in handy. I have $1,600 to divide a mong you twelve men, If you want it, have two good men, smooth faced, that are discreet, at the southeast corner of Randolph and Dear orn streets tomorrow at 1 o'clock p. m. Let them wour white lluen neckties or it they prefer it, red how ties. Everything will be all right. The money is secure in a Clark street hank. (Signed)

Goorge Atrill.

The second letter is under date of Oct. 18, and is also addressed to the foreman of the Lucigert jury. It is as follows:

Judge Tuthill opens all mail sent to the jurors, and in this way these letters fell into his hands. His honor is inclined to regard the letters as a hoax, is also Mr. Densen. In fact the state's attorney thinks the letters were gotten up by enterprising newspaper reporters

At 1.30 o'clock this afternoon State's Attorney Deneen informed the Assoclated Press that the latest and best information he had on the attitude of the jury was that eight stood for conviction and the infliction of the death penalty and that four were holding out for acquittal.

Several of the jurors were so overcome with fatigue by noon today that a doctor could be called.
