UNITED WORKMEN OF PENNSYLVANIA

Twenty-eighth Annual Sessions Held at Philadelphia.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Convention Formally Opened in the Academy of Music by a Public Reception and Entertainment .- List of the Nominations .- Ladies' Reocption at the Continental Hotel.

Philadelphia, Oct. 19 .- The twentyeighth annual session of the grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Pennsylvania opened this morning in the degree room of the Odd Fillows' temple. The sessions of the lodge are ex-cutive and nearly all of today's business consisted in organizing the lodge for the work of the convention. Past Grand Master Workman John W. Bickei, of Norristown, opened the session by introducing Grand Master Workman Myron Park Davis, of Meadville, who made an ad-dress of welcome, and then assumed chair. Credentials were received and the grand lodge degree was con-Jerred upon a number of applicants. A recess was then taken until tonight. when the convention was formally opened in the Academy of Music by a public reception and entertainment. This afternoon the ladies of the party held a reception in the Continental hotel, after which they formed into groups and visited various places of interest.

The sessions of the lodge will contimue temorrow and Thursday and seyeral important amendments to the constitution will be considered. The election of officers will also take place, and the following nominations have

Among the important matters taken up today was the ratification of the election of the new lodge officers, which resulted as follows:

Grand master workman, W. T. Pow-ell, of Pittsburg; grand foreman, E. E. Hohman, Johnstown; grand recorder, Joseph McNair, Allegheny; grand recelver, L. Gardner; grand guide, Charles L. Hannan, Allegheny; grand inside watchman, W. H. Furst, Pittsburg; grand outside watchman, Churles G. Fitzelbbons, Bradford; grand medical examiner, Dr. P. L. Elsenberg, Norristown; grand overseer, F. W. Hastings, Bradford, grand trustee, W. P. Allen Pittsbuck, and James L. Lindsay, Bradford. The committee on the revision of the constitution of 1888 made a speclai report upon the proposition to change the mode of election so as to have the grand lodge elect the officers at its meetings. The report showed that a very small percentage of the past master workmen voted at each election; and that so little attention was given to the election that a very large number of lodges falled to have their votes counted because of the

At the Academy of Music meeting tonight the delegates were welcomed by Director of Public Safety Riter, in the absence of Mayor Warwick, Governor Hastings silso made an address, which dwelt chiefly upon the subject of patriotism. He was followed by Past Supreme Master Workman J. G. Tate of Lincoln, Nels, who spoke of the pro-gress the order has made and the priniples which have contributed so much to the success it has achieved. Then came a varied programme of song and recitation, after which the session adourned until tomorrow

CONVICTS MAKE QUEER MONEY.

Counterfeiting Carried on in the Riverside Penitentiary.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 19.—Warden E. Wright, of the Riverside penitentiary, has discovered that a number of the convicts confined in the institution have been manufacturing counterfeit 0-cent pieces. He has unearthed the metal from which the "queer" money was made, the moulds in which it was cast and the names of several convicts who were connected with the matter, but as yet he has been unable to find the man who originated and carried out the scheme

The counterfelts specimens of the coiner's art. The die from which they wave made is almost perfect and the milling of the coins, which is the government's chief protection of metal money from those who would imitate it, is as near perfect as it is possible for human ingenuity to make it.

HONESDALE CHILD ROASTED ALIVE

Terrible Fate of the Little Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pucata -- Dauger of the missionary union. Playing with Matches.

Special to the Scranton Tribune Honesdale, Oct. 19.-A terrible accident occurred here yesterday afternoon, by which the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley

Pucata, of South Delaware street, was literally roasted alive. The little girl had been taught by boarders to light matches. Yesterday her mother left her alone in the house asleep, and went to the butcher shop to get meat for supper. It is supposed the child awoke and having secured matches proceeded to repeat the fool-ish and dangerous performance that she had been taught. Her clothes became ignited and she crawled back into bed, setting that on fire also. The baby's screams were heard by a neighbor, who found her enveloped in flames and before the fire could be extinguished she was burned so badly that the flesh dropped from the body in Enterprise Hose company was called out and extinguished the fire in the ed. The little one's sufferings were terrible to witness. She died about 5 o'clock, three hours after the accident.

LOW MOVEMENT DWINDLING.

Reports of Canvass Made by District Leaders.

New York, Oct. 19 .- The campaign against the Citizens' Union and Tammany Hall is to be carried on with increased vigor from now until election day. The Republican leaders are inspired with fresh confidence. OPENING ADDRESSES AND PAPERS have made a real poll of voters in their respective districts, one that is accurate, reliable and complete. The count of noses" has been made through the election district captains, the Board of Directors Shows that their respective neighborhoods and thus have direct means of learning the preferences of voters in this campaign.

The reports received so far from ten > dicate that Mr. Low will not receive more than 5,000 votes in those districts, or, figured on that basis, 17,500 votes in the thirty-five. In many districts be will not average more than 300. In others he may get more than 800, A liberal estimate by the leaders places his average vote at 600 in each of the thirty-five districts, or 21,000 in all in the boroughs of Bronx and Manhattan. Some of the figures which were obtained from direct sources show the poll of the Low vote to be as follows: Fifth district, 400; Seventh, 300; Ninth, 400; Eleventh, 250; Twelfth, 300; Thirteenth, 300; Twenty-first, 800; Thirtieth, Thirty-first, 800; Thirty-second, of the thirty-five assembly districts in-

The vote for Henry George in the same districts, it was ascertained, will be larger, almost double that of Mr. Lowe's. The leaders figure out a highly encouraging result from this partial anvass. They declare that Henry George's vote will be drawn almost entirely from the Tammany ranks, whereas Mr. Lowe will not cut deeply into the regular Republican vote. According to the canvassers the men who will cast their ballots for Mr. Lowe are classified as "mugwumps, Cleveland Republicans and independents who seldom register and vote."

With the party vote almost intact and the votes of sound money Democrats, the Republicans spoken to today were confident of giving General Tracy a plurality on Manhattan Island, which, with the vote of Brooklyn, will elect ben. The defection from Tammany to George, based on calculations of expert observers, will make it possible for Re-publicans to win in spite of the fact that it is what Mr. Sheehan calls the minority party.

The above figures, by the way, as far as Henry George's estimated vote is concerned, are sustained by his own estimates of Mr. George's strength, Mr. Sheehan said today that Mr. George would get 40,000 votes. He asserts that the increased registration is favorable to Tammany and that Van Wyck will get 250,000 votes.

FRANKI, FRANK'S FATAL SHOT

An American Parallel to the Recent Fatal Shooting on the Stage in Germany. From the New York Sun.

The conviction of a German expert marksman in a Berlin court of the rime of "pandering to the public lust for excitement" was the result of an accident almost identical in every detail with a tragedy that occurred some years ago in this country. About six weeks ago in a Berlin music hall a marksman attempted to shoot an apple from the head of a young girl. He had frequently accomplished the feat before with success. But through some inaccuracy in aim the bullet, instead of passing through the apple struck the woman in the head and killed her instantly. He was sentenced for this to six months' imprisonment. ere was no charge of negligence o he had attempted to "pander to the

The victim of the American tragedy vas Annie Von Behren, and the man who shot her was Frank I. Frayne. who, when he retired from the stage had made a fortune through his expertness as a marksman. For many years he had traveled through the United States acting in a play called "Si Slocum." It was a rough-andready piece, devised chiefly to exhibit his skill in shooting, and in the man agement of wild animals. He carried a whole menagerie about with him, and jured and are now in a hospital in a this method of exhibiting his talents had been adopted after an unsuccessful career as an actor. His wife, Clara Butler, who used to sing in his plays and act the part of Mrs. Slocum, was for a long time the woman on whom his feats of shooting were tried. One of the best known of these was that in which, standing with his back to her, he shot an apple from her head, and as in the story of William Tell, been replanting the oysters taken from the riparian grounds in the cove. This is this incident was a crucial one in the to be made the beginning of an attack on play. On Thanksgiving Day there were more than 2,000 persons in the theater at the extra matinee. The play progressed to the scene in which the apple was to be shot from Mrs. Slocum's head, The apple was placed on the girl's head and Frayne took aim and fired. As they heard the crack of the rifle, the spectators saw Miss Von Behren fall to the stage with a spot of blood on her forehead. The actor turned and. seeing what had occurred, ran to the spot where the girl lay and fell fainting by her side. The curtain dropped suddenly, and the manager appeared before the curtain to announce that the play would be brought to an end immediately. Some of the audience had supposed that the scene was a part of the play. But it was soon whispered about that the girl had been killed. The holiday crowd in the streets heard the report, and before long several thousand people had gathered in front of the building, although nobody knew ertainly of the tragedy inside.

The girl died within a few minutes after the bullet struck her over the left eye. Frayne, who was frantic with excitement, was locked up. The apple was four inches above her head on a hat, and the accidental use of a defective cartridge was the cause of her death. Frayne protested that there was no danger in the backward shot as it had repeatedly been done without serious results. The coroner's jury released him and he declared that he would never shoot again. But after a brief retirement he returned to the stage and acted in his drama for nine years longer, although he never repeated the backward shot with a woman, and indeed abandoned the play in which the accident occurred. It is said of the German that he was the same story was told of Frayne and Miss Von Behren. He died about six makes fifteen." put in Elsie, "so that

CLOSE CALCULATION.

Natural witticisms are always repeaing themselves. Frances Power Cobb says that site heard two Irishmen in Lon don talking about the distance to Hamp-stead Heath. At length they met a stranger, and one asked: "Can you tell me how far it is to Hampstead Heath?"

"Ten miles," was the reply.
The Irishman turned to his friend,
"Five miles apiece!" said he. "We can easily do that." It was a little American girl who made similar calculation. She and her sisted were one morning so long in dressing that
