POCOHONTAS ORDER FINISHES ITS WORK

Philadelphia Selected for the Next Place of Meeting.

LEGISLATIVE QUESTIONS DECIDED

Mary Keeney, of Old Forge, Elected Great Minnehaha, Which Means Yearly Graduation to the Most Exalted Office, Great Prophetess. Committee on Monument to Pocohontas Continued—Proposition to Establish a Great Council.

The convention of the Degree of Pocohontas ended yesterday with a morning and an afternoon session behind closed doors and an evening entertainment at which the visiting delegates were entertained by Nay Aug tribe, Independent Order of Red Men, in Natter's hall, on the South Side.

Business matters of importance occupied the whole of the day. Much time was consumed in the disposition of legislative questions and a spirited election. The retiring great Pocohontas, Emma A. Diener, of Pottsville, presided.

The following officers were elected: Great Prophetess—Emma A. Diener, Pottsville; Great Minnehaha—Mary Keeney, Old Forge; Great Pocohontas—Emma Keek, Allentown; Great Wenonah—Ada Tyler, Hallstead; Great Minnehaha—Mary Keeney, Old Forge; Great Keeper of Records—Paulino De Daurfe, Philadelphia.

The great strife was for the office of great Minnehaha, an election to which means a yearly graduation up the scale of offices to that of great prophetess, the most exalted of all. Mary Keeney, the successful candidate, was opposed by Mrs. Thiele and others, who will give a recital in the lecture room of the Elm Park church this evening at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Epworth League.

On next Thursday evening, Oct. 23, will occur the second lecture in the Penn Avenue Baptist church lecture course. It will be given by the eminent Dr. Paxton, of New York. The following officers for the Scranton Christian Endeavor union have been chosen: President, Rev. George E. Gault;

BUNCOERS ABROAD! BEWARE! It is the trick of the Bryanite Democracy this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican malcontents to organize Republican boits and then coax individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound money.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

DRIVING PARK SITE. Will Be Inspected Today by Mr. Brock, the Yorkshire Woolen Mill Representative Who Is Here.

There were no new developments yesterday in the efforts of W. L. Brock, of Huddersfield, Yorkshire, Eng., who is here to arrange for the establishment of a woolen mill plant as the agent of a large Yorkshire firm. As related in yesterday's Tribune, Mr. Brock has been in the city two weeks, during which time he has looked with favor on a site offered by the West Side syndicate and is situated at the north-eastern corner of the park proper, near the river.

Mr. Brock was yesterday in consultation with Secretary D. B. Altherton, of the Scranton board of trade, and an engagement was made for this morning to inspect a site in the North End. The plot is offered by the Driving park syndicate and is situated at the north-eastern corner of the park proper, near the river.

Officers to induce manufacturers to locate in the northern and West Side sections of the city is explained in the fact that labor, particularly unskilled female labor, is more plentiful in those localities than in the central city or on the South Side, where so many silk mills have been established.

Agent Brock comes here with approved credentials and does not seek local capital, two conditions which the Scranton board of trade have for two years exacted from prospective manufacturers. It is believed that the city's cheap fuel, plentiful labor and unexcelled shipping facilities will result in securing the Yorkshire firm. Mr. Brock will, however, visit several other cities before making a recommendation to his employers.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The editor will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.

CONCERNING ADVERTISING. Editor of the Tribune. Sir: In your issue of today you have an editorial headed "Making Things Hum" which to our mind is very inconsistent for this reason. In the same issue you print one of the biggest fake advertisements that has appeared in any newspaper published in this city for years.

Why do you do it? Simply because you are paid 15 or 20 cents per line for it. Our mayor and councilmen advise us not to do business here without paying the license prescribed by law, and the newspapers of the city tell their readers (who do not look at the date of the issue, but at the reliable news and ads) that this firm are making a $25 suit for $3.38 or some such ridiculous figure—thereby not only deceiving their readers but doing an injustice to the legitimate advertising merchants of the city, who treat the people right and place a nearby advertisement with the hope, thereby, of doing a good deed for their fellow citizens. Such fakirs always do some business, and much damage, and the newspapers who publish their ridiculous ads, and who only deceive their readers, but help along such fakirs. Kindly publish this at your regular advertising rates. Respectfully, Boyle & Mucklow.

A Tribute to Mrs. Bulkeley. Dear Sir: In the deep sorrow that has come upon you by the death of Mrs. Bulkeley, we desire to express to you our heartfelt sympathy.

We know human sympathy is entirely insufficient in such a bereavement, but we believe your faith and courage will take hold of the Omnipotent Helper, and that His sustaining grace will be all sufficient for you.

We desire to bear testimony to the loss our society sustains, to the ever ready and glad response Mrs. Bulkeley always made to the calls of her fellow citizens. No one, who was poor and needy, no cause of philanthropy or home charity, but found in her ready and willing succor, and there are many who could show the "coats and garments" which her kind heart has provided, like the Dorcas of old, for their necessity.

Her cheerful, happy greeting was always the same, and your home a particularly attractive place to her younger as well as her older friends.

Musical and the "voice of song" she always loved. May the God of all comfort, comfort you in your loneliness, and give you strength to bear His will, till you can get on that you cannot be very far off, where the many mansions are being prepared and where earth's loved ones are gathering home.

We are yours in deep sympathy. The Ladies' Aid society of the Dunmore Presbyterian church, Mrs. A. D. Blankinton, president; Mrs. M. Powell, Mrs. J. C. Close, vice presidents; Mrs. H. Higgins, Mrs. J. Comstock, secretaries; Miss N. King, treasurer. Dunmore, Oct. 20, 1897.

A Cooling Drink in Fevers. Use Harsford's Acid Phosphate. Dr. C. H. S. Davis, Meriden, Conn., says: "I have used it as a pleasant and cooling drink in fevers, and have been very much pleased."

Interference. Helen—What makes you think that Eve rode a bicycle in the Garden of Eden? Larkina—Merely inference. The Bible says she was the first woman to fall.—Towa Topics.

To Cure a Cold in One Day. Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

SYNOD OF REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Annual Sessions Begin in Grace Church Yesterday.

THE DELEGATES IN ATTENDANCE

Others Are Expected to Arrive Today. Number of Reports Heard Concerning Various Departments of Church Activity—Addresses at Evening Session by Dr. Sabine, of New York and Dr. Dager, of Philadelphia—An Important Resolution Offered.

The New York and Philadelphia synod of the Reformed Episcopal church began its council yesterday morning in the Grace Reformed church, Bishop Nicholson presiding. On the platform were: Rt. Rev. Bishop William R. Nicholson, of Philadelphia; Rev. W. Miller Magrath, of Brooklyn; Rev. T. Mason, of Wilmington, Delaware, and Rev. W. D. Stevens, of Newark, N. J., son of Bishop Stevens. An unusually fine looking body of men composed the delegation.

After devotional exercises Rev. Mr. Stevens delivered the address of the morning. It was an eloquent effort on the subject "Prove All Things." At the afternoon session the order of business was taken up. The following officers of the previous year continued in their positions as election of the new officers of the council will be made tomorrow: President, Bishop Nicholson; vice president, Dr. L. Reynolds; secretary, Rev. Robert L. Rudolph; assistant secretary, George W. Douglas; treasurer, Joseph Barton.

At roll call the following answered to their names: Bishop W. R. Nicholson, Philadelphia; Rev. Forest E. Baugher, R. V. William A. Freemantle, Rev. H. S. Hoffman, D. D., Rev. J. Howard Smith, Rev. G. W. Huntington, Newburgh, N. Y.; Rev. W. A. L. Lett, Murray Hill, N. J.; Rev. Euclid Phillips, Brooklyn; Rev. Thomas J. Mason, Wilmington, Del.; Rev. Robert L. Rudolph, New York; Rev. William T. Sabine, D. D., New York; Rev. George Savory, Boston; Rev. Alex. Sloan, Philadelphia; Rev. Sidney N. Tisher, West Chester; Rev. W. Miller Magrath, Brooklyn.

LAY DELEGATES. The lay delegates are: Redeemer, Wilmington, Frank P. Harrar; Grace, Collingdale, L. P. Stradley; Grace, Brooklyn, George L. Ogilvie; Covenant, Wilmington, G. Bailey, William Greenwell, George Wetherell; St. Paul's, Philadelphia, William H. Allen, Samuel Ashurst, Jr., D. Joseph B. Wheeler; Grace, Scranton, Calvin A. Bonn, A. P. Tutill, David Hill, J. R. Lawson, Frederick Hatch, William Bell, V. W. De Wilde, John Berks, C. T. Hess, J. E. Chandler, W. N. McCulloch, R. H. Frear, David Reed, W. T. Hackett; corner Stone, Newburgh, Justin Van Bunkirk; Our Redeemer, Philadelphia, W. A. Staunton, Joseph Barton, C. Sargent, S. E. Ray; First Church, New York, Theo. R. Shear; Emmanuel, Newark, George W. Douglas, G. C. Miller, Joseph MacAvoy, P. D. Foxcroft, W. E. Townley; Emmanuel, Philadelphia, Ralph White, Henry Sinnaman, William Husband.

A number of delegates are expected to arrive today. Many churches were unrepresented yesterday, although the names of delegates were announced. The report of the treasurer was then heard. The receipts were $2,696.83. Disbursements, $2,738.37. Since printing the report pledges to the amount of $263.35 had been received, making a balance of $221.87. Of this sum $250 was received from Grace church, this city, including a donation of $50 from Mr. G. W. Fritz.

The Episcopal report of the bishop was read. It included confirmations, 224; ordination, 1; deacon, 1; Presbytery, 2; ministers dismissed to other churches, 2; lost by death, 1; received, 1; new edifice, 1; corner stone laid, 1; parish received, 1; number of deacons, 6; Presbyters, 28; total, 34; parishes, 25.

MEMORIAL READ. The bishop then read a touching memorial of Samuel Crawford Brickett, M. D., of Wilmington, Del., who died Aug. 25, and of Dr. Mason W. Gallagher.

The report of the Bassinger Home for aged and disabled ministers was then read by the assistant secretary. The reports of the standing committees, the trustees and treasurer of special synod trust, committee on special synodical expenses and trustees of the synod were read and approved.

The synod voted to send a telegram of greeting to the Chicago synod, Epiphany, 6; I. Thessa, III; 11-12. Adjourned.

"Foreign Missions" was the subject of the evening meeting, which was largely attended. Bishop Rushton opened the services. Dr. J. Howard Smith offered prayer.

Dr. Sabine, of New York, gave a brilliant address. His impassioned words stirred his audience with the importance of the theme. He spoke of the voices beckoning God's people to the work. The voice of Christ and the voice of opportunity called continually.

Christian Endeavorers spent $5,250,000 in getting to and from San Francisco for the thirty days' meeting, more than all the Christy church spends on missions. It shows the enormous amount of money in the possession of the church. This amount was spent not by the rich but by the young people in moderate circumstances, by the poor even throughout the land. It means that if interest were really awakened the world could be soon evangelized.

Among the public men the feeling is growing that one religion is about as good as another. This feeling has been (Continued on Page 2.)

Shoes

Of the kind that bring increasing trade. SHOES OF THE KIND THAT GIVE SATISFACTION.

Our fall offering contains the most varied assortment of Footwear. It represents perfection, whether viewed mechanically or in point of style, comfort and elegance, are rarely combined in footwear. Our shoes are the embodiment of both. Our prices are always right.

Without disparaging in any way the efforts of our competitors still, in justice to ourselves, we must say that in many ways we have surpassed them. Our increasing trade has shown that our method of selling reliable goods at a small margin of profit is the right one. Our system of paying cash for all our purchases exerts a powerful influence in securing for us the lowest prices in the great shoe markets in this country.

Buying and Selling for Cash Only. Explains, in a great measure, why it is that we are always able to sell reliable goods below prevailing market prices.
