COST OF PAVING PROVIDENCE ROAD

Would Be from $88,053.40 to as High as $160,805.40.

IT DEPENDS ON ROUTE AND TRACKS

City Engineer's Estimates and Letter Were Submitted to Select Council Last Night--The Hill at Tripp's Ravine Is Private Property and May Make Necessary a Route via Diamond Avenue and Wood Street Through Park Place.

City Engineer Phillips has made surveys and prepared estimates for paving Providence road and North Main avenue from the Sandy Banks bridge to the city line. His letter and figures were last night submitted to select council and referred to the pavements committee.

The proposed paving would involve one of the biggest and most expensive improvements in the city's history. The distance is over three miles, and the paving would cost from $88,053.40 to $160,805.40, according to whether asphalt, brick or stone block is used, whether single or double tracks are laid, and whether the Diamond avenue and Wood street route is followed through Park Place in lieu of the hill at Tripp's ravine.

With an abstract of any estimate on the hill route from Tripp's ravine to Bull's Head, the straight Providence road route, shows a cost of several thousand dollars less than by Diamond avenue, but a necessary retaining wall and the paving along the former would probably amount to several times the difference in cost between the two routes.

CITY ENGINEER'S LETTER.

The following letter from City Engineer Phillips to councils will give a comprehensive idea of the proposition:

Gentlemen of Councils—I have made a survey of Providence road from Sandy Banks bridge to Bull's Head, or North Main avenue, and of North Main avenue from Bull's Head to the city line at Dickson City.

From Sandy Banks bridge to Tripp's ravine I find no trouble, and have agreed with the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company for a 50-foot street. From Tripp's ravine to Bull's Head the street line and width of street are very indefinite, being in some places fifty feet and in others forty-five feet wide, and property owners still claim to own more of the street. Between Tripp's ravine and Court street considerable grading would have to be done, and very expensive retaining walls would have to be built before this portion of the street could be paved. The street car track between the last named points is on private ground. The property owners on east side of said track claim to own some land between the street car track and the road proper.

As a suggestion to your honorable bodies, so as to avoid the trouble with the street lines, grading and the expensive retaining walls between Tripp's ravine and Bull's Head, mentioned above, I have made a survey from Providence road along Diamond avenue to Wood street, and Wood street from Diamond avenue to North Main avenue, near Bull's Head and find a 50-foot street all the way with much less grade than on Providence road.

LIST OF ESTIMATES.

Enclosed you will find a list of estimates for paving the said Providence road and North Main avenue, based on the following:

Asphalt—6-inch concrete base, 1½ inches of binder and 2 inches of wearing surface.

Stone block—6-inch concrete base, 2-inch sand cushion and tar filling.

Vitrified brick—6-inch concrete base, 2-inch sand cushion and tar filling.

All of the estimates include ordinary grading, curbing, the drain and incidentals, but nothing for grading or retaining walls near Tripp's ravine.

Very respectfully,
Joseph G. Phillips,
City Engineer.

The estimate of cost of the several plans, routes, track arrangement, etc., is as follows:

Approximate estimate of cost for paving Providence road and North Main avenue from the Sandy Banks bridge to the city line; roadway figured at 34 feet between curb lines:

How Calculated.	Asphalt.	Brick.	Stone Block.
With single track and switches at present deducted	$150,848 20	$119,628 80	$148,246 60
With double tracks for whole length of street deducted	108,747 40	88,053 40	167,022 80
Via Diamond avenue and Wood street, with track and switches as at present deducted	109,805 40	127,384 20	158,020 30
Via Diamond avenue and Wood street, with track and switches as at present, and single track on Diamond avenue and Wood street deducted	156,557 40	124,198 20	153,860 80
Via Diamond avenue and Wood street with double tracks on whole length of street and double tracks on Diamond avenue and Wood street deducted	111,922 20	90,721 80	110,155 50

Wood street runs west from the Lackawanna river to North Main avenue. It is three blocks north of Court street and lies between Jones and Philo streets.

COMPANY WILLING.

Well posted members of select council are The Tribune's authority for the statement that the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, which owns the land on each side of Providence road for about three-quarters of a mile across the Diamond flats, is willing to join in a petition for the pavement if it is wanted by a majority of the property owners.

The difficulty experienced by the city engineer in making the asphalt estimate is indicated in the fluctuating bids of two paving companies, the Barber, and the Columbia, who have done much work in this city. The Columbia company has in Reading secured a contract on a bid much lower than was made for paving Mulberry street and the Barber company has in other cities recently made correspondingly low proposals.

DONATIONS FOR THE HOME

Worthy Institution Was Remembered in a Very Substantial Manner. Those Who Contributed.

The annual donation day at the Home for the Friendless was not greeted by the sunshine usually bestowed on this occasion, but there was sunshine in the hearts of the managers and the destitute old people and little children who know no other home, as they saw the proofs of remembrance pour in from the hands of loving friends all over the city and even from beyond its limits.

The face of Mrs. Walker, the faithful little matron glowed last night as she said, with tears in her eyes: "Oh I am so happy this night! Just see how good the people of Scranton are to us. I wish we could thank them, every one. Such lovely things as they have sent, and the blessing they will be to us this long winter!"

It was indeed a sight to make one glad, the parcels of groceries, the barrels of fruit and vegetables, the warm clothing and the many other most welcome gifts. Then there were mysterious letters, the contents of which caused Mrs. D. E. Taylor, the treasurer, to smile with much satisfaction as checks and bank notes dropped on the table.

The amount received up to last evening was $572.87, which will be a great help in bearing the running expenses during the coming months. There are others yet to hear from who never fail to remember the Home on donation day, and there are still others who have never contributed but who wish to send their gifts at this time. The names of these will appear later.

There were many generous donations of goods of various kinds. Potatoes were not sent in by the car load, however, and it is hoped that many contributions of these and of soap, sugar and, indeed, any articles useful in a home, will be sent in today or later. In order to give others an opportunity to contribute to the cash fund or to the store of necessaries, arrangements have been made to receive gifts today and tomorrow, the acknowledgment of which will appear appended to this list. The following was received yesterday:

The first thereof being all those four contiguous lots as the same are plotted and defined upon a certain chart or map entitled a map of Mrs. O. Carpenter's Addition to Dalton," as surveyed by Isaac Ellis on the 22d day of October, 1892. Said four lots as one tract being bound as follows:

Beginning at a point in the center of the public road leading from the village of Dalton to Franklin's, at the line of lands of W. A. Dean; thence south three-fourth (¾) of a degree west, four hundred and twenty-five (425) feet to a corner; thence north seventy-four and one-fourth (74¼) degrees west, seventy-four (74) feet to a corner near a butternut tree; thence north fifty-four (54) degrees west, one hundred and fifty-three (153) feet along land of one Stell to a corner; thence along other land of said Emma Carpenter, north three-fourth (¾) of a degree east, three hundred and twenty-seven (327) feet to a point in the center of said public road first mentioned; thence south eighty-eight and one-fourth (88¼) degrees east, two hundred (200) feet along the middle of said public road, to the place of beginning.

The second thereof, beginning at a point in the public road two hundred (200) feet in a westerly direction from lands of W. A. Dean; thence running south three-fourth (¾) of a degree west, three hundred and twenty-seven (327) feet to line of land belonging to Fisk; thence north fifty-four (54) degrees west, one hundred and twenty (120) feet to a corner in line of lands of Mrs. Jane Bailey; thence north three-fourth (¾) of a degree east, 190 hundred and fifty-five (255) feet to said public road; thence along same north eighty-eight and one-fourth (88¼) degrees east, one hundred (100) feet to the place of beginning; being lots five and six on the plot of Mrs. Oscar Carpenter's addition to Dalton.

The third thereof, beginning at a point in the center of the public road, leading from Dalton to Franklin's at the bridge commonly called "Tinkham's Bridge"; thence along the said road, north seventy-seven and one-half (77½) degrees east, two hundred and five (205) feet to a corner; thence along other land of said Emma Carpenter, south three-fourth (¾) of a degree west, two hundred and fifteen (215) feet to a corner in line of land of Mrs. Jane Bailey; thence along same line, north eighty-four and three-fourths (84¾) degrees west, sixty-seven (67) feet to a corner of lands of said Mrs. Jane Bailey and Parkton; thence along land of said Mrs. Parkton, north eighty-eight (88) degrees west, forty-three (43) feet to a corner of lands of said Mrs. Parkton and J. L. Tinkham; thence along lands of said J. L. Tinkham, north two and one-half (2½) degrees west, one hundred and sixty (160) feet to the place of beginning. Being lots Nos. eleven (11), twelve (12), thirteen (13) and fourteen (14) on plot or map entitled Mrs. O. Carpenter's addition to Dalton.

The fourth thereof, being lots Nos. seven (7), eight (8), nine (9) and ten (10), of Mrs. Carpenter's additions to Dalton, bounded northerly by public road leading from Dalton to Franklin's; southerly by a creek, easterly by lot No. six (6) of said plot sold to Mr. Simrell, and westerly by lot No. eleven (11), sold by deed dated July 29th, 1893, to B. C. Smith, et al. Each of said lots are fifty (50) feet in front on said public road, and lot number seven (7) is two hundred and twelve (212) feet in depth and lot number eight (8) is two hundred and three (203) feet in depth; lot number nine (9) is two hundred and thirty (230) feet in depth, and lot number ten (10) is two hundred and fifteen (215) feet in depth to said creek.

Seized and taken in execution at the suit of S. B. Price vs. Emma Carpenter. Debt, $115.00. Judgment No. 721, April Term, 1893. Vend. ex. to November Term, 1897.
