RACES AT ANTHRACITE PARK.

There were some fine trials of speed at the park on Wednesday. The track was in good condition though the gloomy clouds kept some away who would have enjoyed the sport. In the 2.28 class Nellie B proved faster than Maggie Davis and took the prize. In the free for all Harry West won three straight heats, but was well contested by Maud L. The last mile in the race was done in 2.17% which is the fastest time ever made on the track. In the team race there were five heats. Crawford's team took the fourth and fifth heats and won the race. The horses finished in the events as follows:

2.38, mile heats-Nellie B Patterson, Carbondale... 1 2 Maggie Davis, Davis, Taylor-Myrtle S. St. John, Scranton .... 2 edellia, Dunn, Scranton . . . . . 4 2 4 4 Time-2.294, 2.294, 2.284, 2.284, Purse.

BUNCOERS ABROAD : BEWARE !

It is the trick of the Bryanized Democracy this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican maicontents to organize Republican bolts and then coax individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that 'party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound money.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

MOSBY'S MAGNANIMITY.

An Interesting Story of the Noted Confederate General.

From the Washington Post. J. Fraise Richard, of this city, tells an interesting story showing the mag-nanimity of Col. John S. Mosby, the fanous cavalry leader. He says: "About 1857-58 F. C. Flanegin was the proprie tor of a hotel at Harrison City, Westmoreland county, Pa. One of his guests was a young man of industrious habits and studious disposition, of the name of John Singleton. He had come to the town to spend his vacation in replenishing his finances in order that he might complete his legal studies in Virginia. He was the proprietor of some patent right for painting business signs n a new and acceptable manner. was, indeed, quite popular with the oung people with whom he became ac quainted and with whom he joined in many practical jokes.

"Two of the boys of the community were Joshua Biechley and Robert Allen. the latter being a shoemaker. With these young men and their associates Repanno Chemical Co.'s EXPLOSIVES, John Singleton, the sign vender, be came quite a chum, and upon them perpetrated his numerous tricks.

"Time passed, and Singleton left the town to return to his native State, The war broke out, John Singleton became widely known as Col. John S. Mosby, the leader of an independent cavalry command in the mountains of Virginia. Flanegin left his hotel to other managers, and, having formed a company of cavalry, was sent for duty to Virginia.

"Now, it occurred in the winter of 1864-65 that some of Captain Flanegin's men, scouting through the region of Loudon county, Va., passed beyond the proper picket limits and were captured Mosby's command. Brought into the presence of the ubiquitous colonel these captives were closely scanned by the stern officer. Calling up one of th prisoners, Mosby said: 'Sir, what is your name?

'Biechley," replied the soldier. Where are you from?

" 'Harrison City, Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, was the response, The next soldier called to the front was Allen. The same questions were asked. Finally the dashing colonel said: 'Didn't I know you in Pennsylva nia? 'I think so,' replied Allen,'for I halfsoled your shoes when you roomed at Capt. Flanegin's hotel.'

"To what command do you belong" " 'Capt, Flanegin's,' replied the sol dier "'All the members of Capt. Flane gin's company will step aside,' said Moshy, Some 15 men responded, These were taken by an officer to the picket line and permitted to return to their command, bearing from Col. Mosby this message: 'Please give my compliments to Capt, Flanegin, and say that I shall be pleased to have a visit from him, not as an officer, but as an old

Such acts of kindness and mag nanimity are pleasant features in a war that had such ill-feeling, suffering and destruction of life and property and serve an important purpose in ce menting the ties of friendship and pa triotism between the boys in blue and the boys in gray."
