ANNIVERSARY OF RED BANK BATTLE

Gathering of Patriotic People at Philadelphia.

Guests from Society of American Revolution and Grand Army Members -- Addresses Made by General

Whitehead, of Morristown.

INSPECTION OF THE BATTLE-GROUND

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.-The anniversary of the battle of Red Bank was celebrated today. Members of the Red Bank battle anniversary committee, guests from the society of the Ameri-can Revolution and Grand Army members, journeyed to the historic battleground a few miles below this city on the New Jersey side of the Delaware river. After an inspection of the battleground and the monument to Colonel Green, the party returned to Camden, where a mass meeting was held, at which addresses were made by General James F. Russell, of Trenton, and Judge John Whitehead, of Morris-

The battle of Red Bank was one of the most glorious victories of the Revclutionary war. In the holding of Fort Mercer lay the key to the recapture of the continental capital. It was held by 400 patriots under command of Colonel Green, against 1,200 Hessians. Ir the terrible conflict one-third of the acsaulting troops met death. Only thirty-seven of the Americans were lost. For this victory Colonel Green received a vote of thanks and a sword from the continental congress.

The celebration concluded with a banquet in the Masonic temple, presided over by Supreme Court Justice Garrison.

Forfeited Lands.

Harrisburg, Oct. 22 .- Robert J. Godfrey, of Pittsburg, has filed information with Auditor General Mylin alleging escheat to the state of the money, funds, property and assets of the defunct order of Solon in the hands of Receiver William H. A Chicago Architect Will Superintend the Capitol Building.

THE DESIGNS OF THE EDIFICE

Various Departments Are All Under One Roof -- The Meagre Appropriation Will Not Permit Completion This Season -- Future Legislatures Will Be Obliged to Provide for Wings.

Harrisburg, Oct. 22.-The capitol uilding commission today elected Henry Ives Cobb, of Chicago, as the architect for the new capitol, and adopted his design. Mr. Cobb will at once go to work on the drawings, and will have them ready in about six Two weeks will be allowed contractors to bid on the construction, so that it will probably be Jan. 1 before the work is under way. Mr. Cobb says the work can be completed in a year, and the building ready for occupancy by the next legislature, which meets Jan. 1, 1899. The successful architect designed the fisheries building at the World's Fair and is at present supervising architect of the United PENNSYLVANIA States postoffice building at Chicago. BUNCOERS ABROAD: BEWARE

It is the tilck of the Bryanized Democracy this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican malcontents to organize Republican bolts and then coax individual Republicaus to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a foothold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound morey.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

SEIDMAN LOST GOODS AND MONEY.

Cruel Treatment of a City Business man by Alder, of Carbondale.

Wolf Seidman, the storekeeper, who has many times before appealed to the law and from the law in this city, had another case before Alderman Millar yesterday. He charged M. L. Alder, of Carbondale, with receiving money on a false pretense.

The story of the case is that Seidman purchased goods to the value of $40 from Alder, who also was in business. Each man, it appears, fistrusted the other and the purchase money was placed in the hands of a third person, Merchant Clark. About the same time John Murrin, owner of the building wherein Alder conducted his business, was worrying over rent money which Alder had not paid, and when he heard of the sale of the goods he had an execution issued for back rent. Constable Neary served the writ at Jermyn, where he overtook the goods.

Seidman accordingly caused Alder's arrest. Alderman Millar postponed the hearing of the case until a week from yesterday.

KOERMER'S APPEAL.

Convicted of Shooting Rosie Reagate in New York.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—The court of appeals today heard arguments on the appeal of William Jay Koermer, of New York city, and formerly of Pitts-burg, of his conviction of the crime of nurder in the first degree.

Koermer was convicted for shooting and killing Rosie Redgate in New York city in September, 1896, and was sentenced to be electrocuted in Sing Sing during the week commencing April 19, 1897. His counsel put up the defense of his being temporarily insane when the crime was committed.
