Oneida Combination Underwear

Ladies who have once worn combination underwear will never think of going back to the ill-fitting and uncomfortable two-garment system.

The reasons for this are obvious. The combination affords perfect comfort, without in any way marring symmetry of the figure, for there is not such a thing as a pleat or wrinkle from the neck to the ankle, while the elasticity and perfect shaping affords unlimited freedom of motion without the slightest interference. Perfection is not gained in a day, and the drawbacks that at first marked the introduction of combination underwear have now been completely overcome in the newly

BUNCOERS ABROAD: BEWARE!

It is the trick of the Bryanized Democracy this fall to make false charges against Republican methods, raise a big dust, hire Republican maicontents to organize Republican bolts and then coax individual Republicans to desert their party on the representation that "party ties needn't count for anything in an off year." By this trick, if it shall work, the Bryanites will get a footbold for a hopeful fight in national campaigns, and make just so much more trouble for McKinley, the Republican congress and the cause of sound r.cney.

You now see through this trick. Are you going to let it work?

THREE MEN COMMITTED.

Bixler, O'Neill and Johnson Given a Hearing Before Alderman Millar. They Had Nothing to Say.

Michael O'Neil and Henry Johnson, the suspected Bogart burglars, were com-mitted to the county jail yesterday in at about 1, the cost. It is a food drink, ful default of $1,500 bail each, fixed by Alderman W, S. Millar, of the Eighth ward. The hearing of the case had been announced for 10 o'clock a. m., and at that hour Alderman Millar's office was crowded with the curious.

The police, however, did not take the prisoners to the office until 2.30 o'clock p, m. The trip was made in the patrol wagon from the city jail, where the men were confined since their arrival cite wheelmen last evening at their club here. Chief of Police Frank Robling. jr., Lieutenant John Davis and Detective John Moir accompanied the prisoners. County Detective Leyshon, also, was present at the hearing.

The three crooks were handcuffed, but upon reaching the alderman's office one wrist of each man was freed. The hearing was brief. Alderman Millar called upon the prisoners to stand. They did so. Bixler, who was questioned first, said his home was in Youngstown, Ohio.; age, 27 years; occupation, iron worker. He was born at Brier Run, Ohio.

O'Neil gave his age as 29 years; oc cupation, a weather-strip maker. He, too, lives at Youngstown. Henry Johnson gave his age as 20 years. He lives at Chicago. The prisoners were asked if they wanted a hearing and Johnson replied that he wanted an at-

Chief Robling stated that O'Neil had written a letter to his relations at Minneapolis, asking for funds to secure a lawyer. Detective Moir and Mr. Bogart testified to what they knew of the burglary and the connection of the three men with it.

Alderman Millar then held each in $1,500 bail. The prisoners were taken in the patrol wagon to the county jail to await trial.

THE WELSH PRIZE SINGERS.

A large and enthusiastic audience greeted the Welsh Prize Singers last evening at the Lyceum. The programme given was exquisite in taste and refinement and the method employed was beyond adverse criticism in any sense, but the house was so villainously dark that much of the enjoyment of the entertainment was lost in being unable to decipher the programme and distinguish the favorites who furnished it.

The glees and part songs were rendered with exceptional effect. The double quartette of voices sing in beautiful harmony and give evidence of excellent training. The first number, Gwllym Gwent's "Yr Haf," aroused the wildest enthusiasm from the staunch idmirers of the dead composer 'Watching the Wheat" was a Welsh melody that brought forth hearty applause and in fact every number was nsistently encored.

Perhaps of all the part-songs the weird, lovely giee, "Sea Hath its Pearls," with its close harmonies, was most warmly appreciated.

The solo and duet work has seldom seen equalled on a Scranton stage, Each one of the singers has attained distinction by the possession of a voice of unusual quality, and to hear eight such artists in the numbers given was really a rare privilege. Madame

Miles Beynon, in the song "By the Fountain," displayed a beauty of technique and a limpid quality of tone, which were a delight to hear. She was most charming in the duet with Mr. Thomas. Miss Beatrice Evans also has a powerful, sweet soprano and sang "Angels Guard Thee" with fine effect, being heartily encored.

One of the prime favorites of the ompany was Madame Annie Lewis whose rich and tender contralto rang so thrillingly in Cowen's "Never Again." For an encore she sang the ever dear old French song, "Jeanette and Jeaunot," with its plaintive touching melodies. Madame Blodwen Jone sang delightfully "Down the Long Avenue" and was encored again and again. Mr. Tom Stephens scored great success with his flexible melodi ous tenor in the solos and duets in which he sang. Mr. Richard Thomas also has a powerful and carefully mod ulated voice, and his enunciation was very pleasing in his numbers. Mr. Doughter sang the "Storm Flend" with intelligent interpretation of that difficult number and responded to an en-
