THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- State Treasurer—J. S. BEACOM, of Westmoreland. Auditor General—LEVI G. M'CAULEY, of Chester. County Sheriff—CLARENCE E. PRYOR, of Scranton.

The friends of Will E. Langstaff do not need this assurance, but nevertheless, we take this occasion to say that the Republican organization is not supporting Mr. Langstaff as earnestly as it is supporting any other candidate on the Republican ticket.

Make It Complete.

There is good reason to believe that the Republican party in Lackawanna county has its fight won, but it should not be satisfied with merely an average victory.

When the local Democracy under the whip and spur of the radical Bryan element rushed through at its recent convention a platform most conspicuously and emphatically endorsing the offensive policies advocated in the Chicago platform, a blow full in the face was struck at the 15,000 citizens of Lackawanna who twelve months ago signified at the polls their utter repudiation of Bryanism.

Furthermore, the firm and resolute support by Republicans of their present admirable county ticket and its election from top to bottom by large pluralities will exert a most wholesome influence upon the future local politics of our county, cleaning out the mercenaries and political soldiers of fortune who have sought to convert personal campaigns into profitable personal speculations regardless of the party's welfare.

Therefore let Republicans push on to victory and work without ceasing to make that victory complete.

Beating Around the Bush.

All kinds of versions of Spain's reply to the Woodford note are in circulation. Some of them represent that Spain is truculent; others, that she is conciliatory; but all agree upon the one point that the government at Madrid has in some manner conveyed to the government at Washington a suggestion of dissatisfaction with the manner in which the United States has enforced the laws of neutrality.

The law on the subject is plain. The ultra-conservative Philadelphia Ledger states it with judicial impartiality when it says: "Whatever protest Spain may present to the United States touching the escape of Cuban filibusters expeditions from our shores, our responsibility in the premises ends with the exercise of due diligence on the part of the federal government to prevent such escapes. The principles governing the subject were thoroughly discussed before the Geneva tribunal of 1871, selected by the United States and Great Britain to settle the dispute arising out of the Alabama claims.

Have the authorities of the United States exercised "due diligence" in trying to prevent the escape of lawbreaking expeditions from this country to Cuba? On this point we quote another Philadelphia paper of high standing, the Press: "The truth is that our government has been severely and sometimes justly criticised by its own citizens for going altogether too far in the efforts to aid Spain in Cuba.

On to Victory. Every indication points to a rising Republican tide for the entire ticket next Tuesday. The party's fighting blood is up at last and that portends a Waterloo for the enemy.

Vote for Pryor in spite of Schadt's campaign fund. The true Republican is the Republican who stands up when his party is assailed and shows the enemy what a fighter can do.

In Memory of Charles A. Dana. No finer tribute was ever paid to the memory of any man than was accorded in Chickering Hall, New York, on Monday night by the Cuban revolutionary clubs to the memory of Charles A. Dana.

Vote for Langstaff and the whole Republican ticket. Those persons in this community who desire a higher culture will welcome with pleasure the announcement of a fourth season of chamber concerts under the direction of Messrs. Theodore Hemberger and J. Willis Conant.

This is the season of the campaign. Therefore, don't be deceived, but stand by the party of clean candidates and honest principles—the one party after all that the people can trust.

Hyds Park will show Mr. Schadt what there is in his boast that he can buy it up.

No glad-hand Boland dynasty in Lackawanna! No Ballyezing the court house!

We had no scheme of conquest to advance, that we desired no acquisition to our territory; but when we had nothing to demand for ourselves, we insist that the children of men within sixty miles of our coast line shall not be hunted down like bulls by men without a conscience!

When the kind invitation from the patriotic societies of Cuba came to me to be present and say a few words about my friend to you, it came as an opportunity to be gloriously accepted, because I felt that you too loved him in his life and sincerely mourned him in his death.

Of such a man may it well be said that death is not the end; for his words, his thoughts and above all his spirit live on through all time.

Paramount Issue of This Campaign

From the Philadelphia Inquirer. The candidates of the Democratic party for state treasurer and auditor general are travelling over the state making frantic appeals for support of the voters on the ground that there is no national issue involved in the present campaign.

It is true there is no national candidate to be elected this year, but every political organization must stand or fall upon its record as a whole.

Here is the language in which the Reading Record expressed every thing that was objectionable in the campaign of 1896 and denounced the measures which have helped to restore prosperous conditions.

In view of these declarations, how can any intelligent citizen bring himself to believe that a vote for the Democratic candidates for state treasurer and auditor general is not an endorsement of every thing that was contended for by the Democratic party in the last presidential election?

A POLITICAL POINTER. If you endorse the free trade and free-silver Chicago platform as the Lackawanna Democracy does, "fully and without reserve," then work and vote for Schadt, Horn, et al.

Beautiful, But... Of course you wouldn't say anything unkind to one who was so dear a friend—oh, dear, no!

Inform the city hall gang next Tuesday that it has inflated itself big enough.

When the capacity of public gathering places is taxed by voters in an of year anxious to hear from merely local speakers a discussion of Republican principles, and when at these meetings

The interest is intense and the enthusiasm unbounded, it must mean something. Make the victory complete!

Beth Low appears to have the noise of greater New York, but it has yet to be shown that Benjamin F. Tracy will not secure a plurality of the votes.

Vote to rebuke the ghoulish assaults of the county's most efficient district attorney, John E. Jones.

Teach Schadt and his workers that money alone cannot win office in Lackawanna county.

Elect Clarence Pryor and the sheriff's office will not become a refrigerator.

The Republicanism of Lackawanna is proof against Boss Schadt's wad.

It is not Tom Platt's habit to hunt for victories with a brass band.

Teach Republicanism's defamers a lesson in good behavior!

Hit Bryanism hard by voting Republicanism straight.

TOLD BY THE STARS. Daily Horoscope Drawn by Anacbas, The Tribune Astrologer.

A child born on this day will notice that the throat of the Times editor is in danger of becoming fringed out from excessive yelling over a second election ticket.

Lackawanna Democracy is suffering from an over-supply of "organs" and journalistic "forescence."

Many good patriots, who are willing that others should bear the burden of the line which has some of us hurrah at the victory.

After November 2 it will no doubt be necessary for Candidates Okech, Westphal and Atterton to make an affidavit to determine where their feet are.

It is about time for our enterprising partisan evening contemporary to emit a squawk in reference to the evils of a high tariff.
