NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA FIRE AT FACTORYVILLE

The Barn of Horace Seaman Totally Destroyed—Live Stock Saved. Coming Foot Ball Contests—Andrew Rogers Ditches a 'Possum.

Considerable excitement was caused among our townpeople last Tuesday night at 12 o'clock by the alarm of fire, which proved to be the large barn and stio of Horace Seaman, which was situated just over the borough line and in La Plume borough.

Next Saturday afternoon at 3:30 Keystone foot ball team will meet the St. Thomas college team on the Keystone grounds. This will be another hotly contested game, as both teams are confident, but there is no question but what the Keystone will maintain their reputation and administer an humiliating defeat.

Rev. Frank Wedeman will preach in the six principal Baptist church next Sabbath at 2:30 p. m.

Rev. Albi Wrigley, of Carverton, spent a few days with friends in town this week.

J. K. Zurling was up from the Schuylkill coal regions and spent Sunday with his family.

Thieves are playing their depredations here of late. Tuesday night they tried to gain an entrance into the residence of Alice Reynolds, F. L. Foster & Co.'s store and the drug store of Charles Kilmefelter.

developed in the last forty-eight hours. The disease seems to be of a milder type than at first reported, and as the board of health and the people of the town are observing all possible precautions to restrict its spread, it is likely that the disease will be confined to the present number of cases.

ON TO VICTORY.

Every indication points to a routing Republican victory for the entire ticket next Tuesday. The party's fighting blood is up at last and that portends a Waterloo for the enemy.

THE PROFESSOR. He wasn't a Card Sharp Nor a Messenger. The train was about to leave the station, and a young man leaned over the seat, shook hands with the middle aged gentleman, and said:

"Good-by, Professor." A man with thin stripes in his shirt looked at him narrowly, and, after the train started, said:

"Kin ye do any tricks with cards?" "No; I never touched a card."

"Mebbe ye play the pianny?" "I know nothing of music, excepting as a mathematical science."

"Well, ye ain't no boxer, I kin see by yer build. Mebbe ye play pool?" "No."

"Er shufferboard?" "I never heard of the game before."

"Well, say, I've guessed ye this time. It's funny I didn't think of it before. You're a mesmerist."

"I'm nothing of the kind."

"Well, I'll give up. What is yer line? I know ye're in the biz, 'cause I heard that you're feller call yer 'professor.'"

"I'm an instructor in Greek, rhetoric and ancient history."

"An yer can't do no tricks, nor play music, nor hypnotize?" "Of course not."

The man turned and gazed out of the window on the opposite side of the car. "Well, he calls hisself 'professor,'" he said to himself.
