Over Two Hundred Delegates Assembled at Harrisburg.

INTERESTING SESSIONS ARE HELD

Addresses by Mrs. Mary C. Bassett, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Thurlow, of Pottsville and Other Well Known Leaders—Important Papers Discussed—Programme for Last Evening.

Harrisburg, Oct. 27.—The second annual convocation of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women convened this morning in the Y. M. C. A. hall, with over two hundred delegates and guests in attendance. Mrs. George H. Stewart, of Harrisburg, pronounced the invocation. After which the annual reports of Mrs. Horace Brook, president, and other officials were read. This was followed by an interesting social session. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Hastings at Bethlehem, the reception to have been tendered the ladies tomorrow evening at the residence of Mrs. Brook is abandoned.

Mrs. Mary C. Bassett, of Pittsburg, state chairman of the correspondence committee of the national federation, made an address at the afternoon session on the aims of women's club federation. Miss Lowell, of Lancaster, next sang a solo after which Mrs. S. A. Thurlow, of Pottsville, delivered an address on "The Women's Mission in the Home." Mrs. E. H. Hite, of Pottsville, read an interesting and instructive paper on "Voice Culture in Clubs." "The Literary Club as a Factor in Woman's Life," a composite paper, written by the Woman's Literary club, of Bradford, was read by Mrs. Mary E. Kelly, of Bradford. This was followed by an informal conference on club problems led by Miss Alice Nevin, of Lancaster. The afternoon closed as it opened—with music. "Forestry," by Mrs. Myra Lloyd Brock, of Harrisburg; "Woman in the Municipality," by Mrs. Cornelia Stevenson, of Philadelphia; and "The Home in the School," by Mrs. J. P. Mumford, of Philadelphia.

The programme for this evening included excellent music and three lectures, "Forestry," by Mrs. Myra Lloyd Brock, of Harrisburg; "Woman in the Municipality," by Mrs. Cornelia Stevenson, of Philadelphia; and "The Home in the School," by Mrs. J. P. Mumford, of Philadelphia.

Adjutant General Stewart Will Issue Orders of Transportation. Harrisburg, Oct. 27.—Adjutant General Stewart will issue orders next week to fifteen hundred Pennsylvania soldiers for free transportation to Chattanooga and return, to attend the dedication on Nov. 15 of the Chickamauga battlefield. The Chattanooga and Atlanta battles will participate in the ceremonies along with representatives of the national government and the Pennsylvania battlefield commission.

The adjutant general received a telegram this afternoon from John A. Beall, Philadelphia passenger agent of the Southern railway, stating that the conductors of the Southern railway had been instructed to permit, upon application, three stop-overs between Washington and Chattanooga on each soldier holding a Chattanooga excursion ticket.

ACCUSED OF FORTUNE TELLING.

Two Women Under Bail on Charges Preferred by a Policeman. Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—In the central police court yesterday Martha Schermerman, known as "Madame Cattel," and Mary Foster, alias "Madame Lovanda," were arraigned before Magistrate South charged with obtaining money by telling fortunes. They were arrested by Policeman Shear, of the Sixth district. He testified that the Foster woman had in her room a large ink-bottle which she said was made of bringing good luck to its possessor, and that she sold pieces of the skin for various prices, according to the size. The policeman said further that she gave her to tell his fortune. The Schermerman woman did not give him a sitting, he said, but offered to do so for the same sum he had paid "Madame Lovanda." Both women were held in $500 bail for trial.

The Wife of the Bishop of Iowa Passes Away. Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—Mrs. Sarah Allen, wife of Rev. William Stevens Perry, President Episcopal bishop of Iowa, died today in this city at the residence of her aunt, Mrs. William Bacon Stevens. Bishop Perry and his wife had just returned from Europe, whether they had gone for the benefit of the invalid wife's health. They arrived in New York on the Lucania on Saturday and came to this city on Monday. Mrs. Perry was very ill at the time and a physician was called but he could do but little for the patient. Services will be held at the residence of Mrs. Stevens Friday afternoon, conducted by Bishop Hale, of Illinois. Mrs. Perry was the daughter of Dr. Cotton Mather Smith, president of Kenyon college, before his death, and Dr. Cotton Smith, late rector of the Church of the Ascension, New York.

THE NEW ENGLAND COTTON MEN MEET

Semi-annual Convention Opens at the Philadelphia Textile School.

WELCOMED BY MAYOR WARWICK

Three Hundred Delegates Present. President Theodore Search Delivers an Address on the Subject of American Goods Abroad—American Manufacturers Responsible for the Small Export Trade.

Philadelphia, Oct. 27.—The sixty-third semi-annual convention of the New England Cotton Manufacturers association began today in the Philadelphia Textile school and will continue until tomorrow. Today's proceedings opened with an address by President Russell Eaton, of Brunswick, Me. In which the speaker congratulated the association upon its membership. Mayor Warwick extended the 300 delegates the welcome of the city, after which Theodore Search, president of the national association of manufacturers, delivered the address. Mr. Search devoted himself to the subject of American cotton goods abroad. He spoke of the remarkably large export trade held by Great Britain as compared with the United States, notwithstanding the fact that over one half of the cotton produced in the world is produced by this country. He charged the American cotton manufacturers with being responsible for the small export trade because our manufacturers at their selling agents have failed to appreciate to the full extent the possibilities of the foreign trade in cotton goods. Banking facilities, American steamship lines and quick postal communication, the speaker held out as inducements to help our trade abroad. Above this he advised that our men be sent out to study the markets and people of other countries. After Mr. Search had concluded, several technical papers were read. These papers dealt with a visit to Cram's ship yard. Tonight an informal smoker was held, at which a number of papers were read.

JOE PATCHEN'S RECORD.

The Big Black Gives a Fine Exhibition at Louisville—Other Trotting Events.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 27.—Joe Patchen's record trials today attracted to the Driving and Fair association track 6,000 people who witnessed an excellent exhibition of speed, although the big black failed to place any world's records to his credit. Patchen has been substituted in the place of Star Pointer to go against the high wheel sulky record of 2:05 1/2 made by Johnson, and his own wagon record of 2:04 1/2. Paced by a runner, he tried first in a sulky, and after scoring twice started with a five wheel sulky, making the quarter in 31, the half in 1:02 and the three quarters in 1:34 3/4. The last quarter was slow and the mile was finished in 2:07 1/2. After a rest he went against the four wheel wagon record and paced the mile in 2:05 1/2, which is better than any previous record except his Joliet record of 2:04 1/2.

Two races and an unfinished stake event, 2:12 pace, filled out the card. Lady Nottingham, with two heats from yesterday, won the stake after a hard battle with Woodford Jay. As usual the favorites had comparatively easy victories and the fight for second money furnished the excitement. Joe Patchen won the 2:22 pace, making the two first heats easily, though owing to a crowd in the third he narrowly escaped being distanced. Alives had an easy thing in the 2:40 trot, never being troubled by the field. Nobly won second money from the Astell colt, Acts Tell. A cake walk finished the day. Summary:

TRACK WAS NOT ELASTIC.

No Records Are Broken by John R. Gentry and Robert J. Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—This afternoon more than 5,000 persons were at Cumberland park to witness the race between Robert J. and John R. Gentry. The track was smooth, the day perfect and no wind, but the track lacked elasticity. The long continued drought seemed to have absorbed all the moisture, leaving the track hard like a stone. The two horses got off well and it was a race in each heat until the stretch was reached when Robert J. broke badly each time. Summary: John R. Gentry (Horn)..... 1 1 1 1
 Robert J. Gentry..... 2 2 2 2
 Time, 2:07 1/2, 2:05 1/2.
