HINGES ON A NEW QUESTION IN LAW

Is an Action for the Recovery of a Penalty a Civil or Criminal Proceeding?

MR. SOPER RELATES HIS MANY WOES

Had to Drive Twenty-five Miles Into the Country with the Client and a Bard Wagon Lond of Witnesses to Defend a $3 Civil Suit -- Whole Raft of Divorce Cases Were Handed Up. Other Doings in Argument Court Yesterday.

All the long winded cases on the list being dispessed of, court yesterday took up the minor numbers, and before adsurning time was reached, forty-three tses were gone over.

One of them, too, was a rather important one. It was the case, or rather cases, of the Griffin Lake Fishing esociation against John Hernehan, Patrick Davitt, Michae Hernehan, Michael Cost-llo and Patrick Moran The defendants were last summer arested for fishing in Griffin lake, which s now controlled by a private corportion, the plaintiff in question, and up a being arranged before Justice of the Peace Lamoreaux, of Scott, were fined $100 each under the act of 1878. Their attorney, Hon. J. C. Vaughan, took a ertiorari and on this the cases came up yesterday.

Vosburg & Dawson, attorneys for the plaintiff, moved to quash the certiorar alleging that it had not been taken until after the prescribed twenty days had elapsed. Senator Vaushan admitted that this assertion was true but held that the offense was a criminal one and hence the twenty day limit does not hold. The plainting attorneys contended that it was not a criminal, but civil offense and on this point court will decide the case. This is a new question and its decision will establish a precedent. If it is decided that an action for the recovery of a penalty is a criminal proceeding, then the defendants win and vice versa.

MR. SOPER'S WOES.

Mr. Soper varied the monotony of a ery dry afternoon with an interesting recital of an experience he had with "Simms or Simons or some such squire" up back of LaPiume some twenty or twenty-five miles. Mr. Soper it appears was attorney for one was represented to be and it was reording to Mr. Soper's version, the defendant in order to have an offset ly brought suit against Dean for $3, instituting the proceedings in the office of the summons returnable on a Saturday ight between 6 and 7 o'clock.

To reach the office of the La Plume day. squire on Saturday night to defend a so civil sult is not an inviting task. It is impossible to get out of the town by train at night and as there are no funday trains the prospect of staying there until Monday was presented to Mr. Soper, his client and his witnesses all of which would cost $3 and upwards. However, if the willy defendant thought to thus secure judgment by default he reckoned without the indominitable Mr. Soper for at the apointed hour a band wagon drove up to the door of the 'squire's office and from out thereof filed the attorney, the defendant and his dozen or more witesses. The case was heard and the La Plume man won, being aided in winning, so Mr. Soper declares, by the remarkable respect the 'squire evinced for the suggestions of the plaintiff's attorney, R. H. Holgate.

REQUEST NOT GRANTED.

Mr. Soper certioraried th yesterday argued for a rule to take depositions that he might show to the court how justice is ladied out in the northern end of this county. The court was much amused at Mr. Soper's tale of woe but could not see its way clear to grant his request.

An evidence that Reiling, David and choon, of New York city, are anxious begin the erection of their silk plant in the Tenth ward was shown yester-day in the receipt of the floor plan of the plant at the office of the secretary of the board of trade. The plans were forwarded in order to aid the board of trade officers in their future steps toward securing better water service in that locality,

FOUL PLAY HINTED.

Suspicion That Bolandey's Body Was Placed on the Rails to Hide a Crime.

There was no further disturbance sterday on the Pittston line of the Scranton Rallway company as a consequence of the effort made by a crowd of excited foreigners Tuesday night to mob the crew of the car which ran over and is supposed to have killed one of their number, John Bolandey. Motorman John James and Conducor Coggins of the car which ran over Holandey have not been arrested nor is it probable that they will be. There has been expressed an opinion Charles Robinson, of this city, who by several motormen and conductors bought a cow from one C. W. CLOTHES LINE THIEVES AT WORK

Operating on Gibson and Pine Streets Between Washington and Jefferson.

THE POLICE ARE AFTER THEM

Up to This Time Several Hundred Pollars Worth of Goods Have Been Taken and the People of the Neighborhood Where the Thieving Is Being Done Are Much Annoyed. Officers in Citizens Clothes Patrol. ed the Territory Last Night.

Clothes-line thieves are on the ramage in the vicinity of Chief of Police Robling's residence on Gibson street. Last Monday night a half-dozen lines were robbed of their goods and the police department in trying to bring about the capture of the culprits adopted unusual methods. The raided territory is that section between Gibson and Pine streets and Washington and Jefferson avenue. Among the back yards that have been visited are those in the rear of the residences of Mrs. C. A. White, 705 Adams avenue; F. Gross, 619 Adams avenue; Mrs. Westgate, 621 Adams avenue, and H. Bradley, of 625 North Washington

It is supposed that the work is being done by residents of the locality. Five patrolmen were stationed in the territory during Tuesday night and last night. Licutenant of Police John Davis and Desk Sergeant Charles Ridgeway, in citizen's attire, patroled the neighborhood. Up to midnight no arrests had been made. The boldness of the gang is remarkable. The Bradley clothes were taken during Tuesday night while Mr. and Mrs. Bradley were in the kitchen within a half-dozen yards of the maraud-At dusk the clothes-consisting of a dozen pair of stockings and a lot of underwear-were seen on the line, About 9 o'clock Mrs. Bradley went to the rear window, facing the line, and drew the curtain. A short time after this the clothing was missed and it is supposed that the thieves waited until after the curtain as drawn before making the haul. The goods stolen already has reached the value of several bundred dollars.

On the latter resolution there is sound to be a bitter fight led by Sebethan Kearney, of the Third ward, who is at loggerheads with his colcague in the lower branch, Mr. Grier, who is furthering the resolution. The
