HARVEST HOME FESTIVAL.

Held Last Night in Jackson Street Enptist Church.

congregation of the Jackson street Baptist church held their annual Harvest Home festival last evening in the church auditorium. The pulpit platform and inside the altar ralling were artistically decorated by a unique arrangement of all kinds of vegetable and flowers, The national colors formed a pretty background.

E. R. Griffith's presided and introduced each participant on the program-me in a happy manner. The exercises were opened with a selection by the church choir and Sabbath school children. Recitations were given by the Misses Nellie Lance, Ethel Lewis, Cora Jones and Master Willie Nicholls, Short addresses were made by the pastor Rev. Thomas DeGruchy, Howard Criffiths and Miss Anna Thomas. Miss Martha Nicholls sang a solo and was joined in the chorus by the Sabbath chool children. The singing was in charge of Professor Lewis Davies and was no small part of the entertainment. There was a large attendance.

PROGRAMME ARRANGED. Tomorrow evening St. Leo's Tourist club will hold its first musical and literacy entertainment in St. David's hall, The following programme will be ren-

There's bound to be a reaction, and that is exactly what

The idea bit the popular fancy when first introduced, but the almost hideous appearance of over-baggy fronts, and the ungainly shaplessness which it imparted to figures of even perfect proportions, at once led the way to modifications and changes, for let fashion call for what it may, no woman of taste and ordinary perception can afford to sacrifice her personal appearance to any passing whim or momentary craze which if adopted would simply make them look ridiculous, consequently her fickle mind, and the extreme Russian Blouse is no longer in favor. All that was half good about it has been preserved, and robbed of its hideousness. Some really smart and shapely garments have been evolved that are certain to please well and richness of detail in braidings, applique work, elaborate stitching, piping, ribbon work, etc., have been retained and em-

Every indication points to a rousing Republican victory for the entire ticket next Tuesday. The party's fighting blood is up at last and that portends a Waterloo for the enemy. But no individual Republican should relax his efforts. This is the chance of a life time to rivet and clinch Republican supremacy in once Demoeratic Lackawanna.

"LITTLE JOE" SERIOUSLY CHARGED Held for Court in the Sum of $500 by

A warrant calling for the arrest of 'Little Joe" was served on a man at 105 Lackawanna avenue last night. He was charged with a most serious offense and when taken before Alderman Howe, Katie Hulte, the girl who had sworn out the warrant, took the stand against the man. "Little Joe" said that his last name was Eroleoko. He denied the charge but nevertheless was held in $500 ball to appear at court. He furnished the necessary security.

ELEVEN MEN HEARD HIM.

Candidate William R. Thompson Spoke in Fuller's Hall.

William R. Thompson, the independent candidate for state treasurer, was in the city yesterday looking over the ground for the purpose of ascertaining the sentiment here in favor of his candidacy. He was accompanied by Hugh O'Donnell, of Homestead fame, who came over from Hazleton with Mr.

to some of the labor leader's Scranton friends.

A meeting was arranged for last night in Fuller's hall which was attended by eleven men. Mr. Thompson addressed them for upwards of an hour The burden of his lay was that corruption is rampant in this state and the time is ripe for the independent voters to assert themselves. To give them an opportunity to do so he has consented to sacrifice himself as a candidate for state treasurer. He leaves this morning for York where he will speak to night.

Mr. Thompson resides in Pittsburg which is the home of the reform move ment he represents.

ABT THE MANDOLIN VIRTUOSO.

Good Sized Audience Heard Him in

Y. M. C. A. Hall Last Evening. A good-sized audience was attracted Y. M. C. A. hall by the Valentine Abt concert last night. The music was of a high order and greatly delighted those present. Mr. Abt's performance is a revelation of the possibilities of the mandolin. He produces a clear, singing tone, unmarred by the rasping metallic sound so generally character-istic of the instrument he plays. His performance was exceptionally effective in the andante movement of the Mendelssohn Concerto. All of his numbers received hearty encores, to which he graciously responded.

Miss Tillie Lewis recited "Henry the Fifth's Wooing," in such an excellent manner that the audience demanded another selection. J. Willis Conant's piano number was one of the distinct treats of the evening.

Several well executed numbers were rendered by the Philharmonic quartette, consisting of A. E. Morse, first mandolin; R. B. Ashley, second mandolin; R. W. Neubauer and John A. Foote, guitars,

Funeral of Authory Regan.

want Blouses and Jackets as well as their mothers and elder sisters, and we would simply say that we have a line for juvenile wear that is equal in every respect to the best we can show for ladies' wear, and well worth looking at by people who do not believe that any old thing is good enough for the little folks,
