WILL ERECT A CHURCH.

Decision of the Congregation of St. Mark's Lutheran Church.

A special meeting of the congregation of St. Mark's Evangelical Lutheran church was held Wednesday evening to hear the report of the ways and means committee of the church upon the advisability of erecting a new church. The committee reported favorably and the report was adopted by an almost unanimous vote. Further action was taken by selecting a building committee to select plans and other accessories and a meeting will be held next Thursday evening to hear its report. The committee is composed of the following: D. W. Moser, chairman; Charles Schuster, Magnus Wilson, William Grass and A. L. Meyers.

The action taken Wednesday evening is the outgrowth of the proposal submitted by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Ramer, Ph.D., at the semi-annual congregational meeting last July. Though the purpose of the committee is incomplete at present, it is expected that the new structure will be Gothic in style and will accommodate 600 persons. It is to be built early next spring.

PUT HER HAND IN THE STOVE.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, residing on Twelfth street, near Hampton, caused great excitement among her neighbors by her peculiar actions here yesterday afternoon. So strange did she act that several children were frightened by her chasing them. Patrolman Hart was notified and when he attempted to take the woman into the house she fought him. With a little patience, however, she was quieted and taken into the house where neighbors cared for her. It was then found that her right hand was severely burned. The woman said she had stuck her hand into the fire and burned it.

LADIES' AUXILIARY SOCIAL.

The monthly social meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Railroad Conductors was held last evening at the residence of Mrs. Adam Praunfelder, 329 South Hyde Park avenue. The attendance was very large and an enjoyable evening was spent in conversation, games and other diversions customary on such occasions. Mrs. Praunfelder was assisted by several ladies in receiving, and later dainty refreshments were served.

SENT TO HILLSIDE HOME.

Charles Graff, eighteen years of age, residing with his mother on North Garfield avenue, was examined and declared insane by Dr. M. J. Williams and Dr. G. B. Reynolds recently. Yesterday the young man was removed to the Hillside Home. He was steady and industrious, but for some time past his actions have been such as to cause his mother much anxiety as to his mental condition.

RELAYING THE SEWER.

The residents of that portion of South Garfield avenue lying midway between Jackson and Washburn streets are elated over the fact that after long delays, steps toward relaying the sewer were taken yesterday.

Extremes Never Last

There's bound to be a reaction, and that is exactly what has taken place in

The Russian Blouse Craze

The idea hit the popular fancy when first introduced, but the almost hideous appearance of over-baggy fronts, and the ungainly shapeliness which it imparted to figures of even perfect proportions, at once led the way to modifications and changes, for let fashion call for what it may, no woman of taste and ordinary perception can afford to sacrifice her personal appearance to any passing whim or momentary craze which if adopted would simply make them look ridiculous, consequently

Fashion Has Changed

her fickle mind, and the extreme Russian Blouse is no longer in vogue. All that was half good about it has been preserved, and robbed of its hideousness. Some really smart and shapely garments have been evolved that are certain to please well dressed women.

All of the Airy Trappings and richness of detail in braidings, applique work, elaborate stitching, piping, ribbon work, etc., have been retained and embellished somewhat, and the result is the

Nobbiest Blouses

And Nattiest Jackets

that have been offered to the public in many, many years. As to the tailoring, linings, etc., it is unnecessary to say one word. They're fully in keeping with the excellence of the garments referred to, and we would earnestly advise our patrons to come in and get a look at the new

Modified Fashion Models

which in several cases we have had especially designed and made up to our own order, to meet the requirements of a demand that we knew could not long be delayed.

By the Way the Children want Blouses and Jackets as well as their mothers and elder sisters, and we would simply say that we have a line for juvenile wear that is equal in every respect to the best we can show for ladies' wear, and well worth looking at by people who do not believe that any old thing is good enough for the little folks.

DUNMORE, JERMYN AND PRICEBURG

UP-TO-VICTORY.

Every indication points to a rousing Republican victory for the entire ticket next Tuesday. The party's fighting blood is up, and that portends a Waterloo for the enemy. But no individual Republican should relax his efforts. This is the chance of a life time to rivet and clinch Republican supremacy in once Democratic Lackawanna.

UP-THE-VALLEY REPUBLICANISM.

The reception given the speakers at Jermyrn and Priceburg, the unbridled enthusiasm, the densely packed halls and the undisputed spirit of Republicanism which featured the two meetings, all combined to make another link in the chain of evidence that the towns in the upper valley are going to stand firm for the Republican ticket next Tuesday.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Thomas Evans, of Wayne avenue, is suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia. The Sunday school children of the Welsh Congregational church will give an entertainment on Nov. 3 in the auditorium of the edifice.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The marriage of Miss Mary Eleanor Hines, of West Scranton, to Joshua Bachman, of Jeansville, Pa., occurred Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the parsonage of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church. The pastor, Rev. J. P. Moffatt, performed the ceremony. The couple were unattended and departed later for Jeansville, where they will reside.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The funeral of Anna L., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, took place yesterday afternoon from the family home, 331 North Fillmore avenue. The service was private and interment was made at the Washburn Street cemetery.

MR. SNYDER IN THE CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Snyder, who is a new figure in the campaign, was late in reaching Scranton and was able to get to Jermyrn only a short time before the meeting closed. Though his address was brief, he had time for an engaging and brilliant speech in which he outlined the Republican principles represented by the present county ticket in such a way as to call forth loud outbursts of approval from the audience.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

A military ball will be given in Natter's hall this evening by the Patriotic Guards. St. John's society will hold a ball in its hall on Stone avenue this evening.

POLITICAL JOTTINGS.

John M. Garman, of Nanticoke, chairman of the Democratic state committee, is expected to visit the city tomorrow. E. Ritter, the Democratic candidate for state treasurer and auditor general, respectively, were in the city yesterday for several hours. They came from Wilkes-Barre, where they attended a meeting Wednesday night. Mr. Ritter in conversation with a Tribune reporter, said: "I will not make any speeches here, nor will I make any campaign tour around the state, but we don't believe we could do any good here. As I understand it there is a war in the air here and the people are not in the mood for a campaign. We feel that we could do nothing here to help the good work along."

GREEN RIDGE.

Edward Jones, of Blakely, spent last evening in the village with his wife. Henry Hart has accepted a position with H. Shellschase, grocer, on Larch street.

OBITUARY.

Samuel Jones, a highly respected young man, of North Scranton, died last evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Jones, on East Market street, after an illness of about three weeks. Typhoid fever was the cause of death. The deceased was about 22 years of age, and had resided in North Scranton since childhood. His many friends will be pained to hear of his untimely death. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

His Start Stopped Him.

"Do you know," said old Farmer Corn-fodder to his wife, "I half believe that fellow is a swindler."

"Why, that fellow that advertised a sure way to kill potato bugs?"

"Yes, you know him?"

"Got his letter right here," answered the old farmer, "I sent him 65 cents in postage stamps, just as he asked, and he sent me this here printed slip."

"What does it say, Hiram?"

"Hiram, it read 'I thank you, but it doesn't seem to start out just right. It says: 'First catch your bug.'"

MOCKS IN THE CABINET.

There has been a large number of Mocks in the cabinet. McKinley is the first Me to be president, but Mc in the cabinet are no novelty. Washington had one in his second cabinet, being James McHenry, of Maryland, who was appointed secretary of war under President John Adams. The name Me to be chosen to a cabinet position was John McLean, of Ohio, who was appointed postmaster general for President Monroe June 26, 1823. President John Quincy Adams continued McLean as postmaster general during his administration.

THE PARTY UNDER FIRE.

An incident of the meeting was an effort by Democrats to end it through an alarm of fire. The alarm caused possibly two-score of persons to leave the hall for a moment, but they soon returned and Mr. Robathan, who was presiding, made an incident a medium of telling Republican argument. The party, he said, had been under fire before in '61, for instance—and on that occasion it stood the test and could do so again in '17 if necessary.

UP-THE-VALLEY REPUBLICANISM.

The reception given the speakers at Jermyrn and Priceburg, the unbridled enthusiasm, the densely packed halls and the undisputed spirit of Republicanism which featured the two meetings, all combined to make another link in the chain of evidence that the towns in the upper valley are going to stand firm for the Republican ticket next Tuesday.
