THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-FRIDAY MORNING. NOVEMBER 5, 1897.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James Leyshon Celebrate the Rounding Out of the First Decade of Their Married Life.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leyshon, of 116 North Rebecca avenue, having passed through ten years of happy matried life, last evening observed the tenth anniversary of their nuptial day. They threw open their pretty home to their friends and after the usual congratulations had been tendered Mr. and Mrs. Leyshon another testimonial of the regard in which their friends held them was shown by the presentation of a beautiful cherry chiffoniere. Rev. Thomas De Gruchy was asked to make the presentation and he did so in an exceedingly happy manner. To this entirely unexpected part of the evening's pleasure Mr. Leyshor responded cheli of himself and wife.

The remaining hours of the evening were pleasantly passed. John T. Edwards gave several selections on the graphophone. Musical selections were elso given by a trio comprising Daniel Clement, violin: Fred Shorts Mandolin, and John Clark, banjo. Later refreshments were served. The guests who were present were! Rev. and Mrs. Phomas De Gruchy, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Phil-lops, Mr. and Mrs. David Jones, Mr. and Mrs. William V. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. David M. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Wil-ham E. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Tague, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leyshon, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE PARTY. The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shryer, or 311 North Main evenue, was prettily illuminated last evening and several invited guests were present in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Brackett, of New York city, who are visiting here. Tables were arranged and the evening was spent in the enjoyment of progressive eachre. At a seasonable moment refreshments were served. Miss Ella Williams assisted the hostess in receiving. The guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Brackett, Judge and Mrs. H. M. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Wentz, Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Gibbs, Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Phelps, Major and Mrs. M. L. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Benore, the Misses Auguswards, Edith Richards, Florence and sions proved pleasant enjoyment for Margaret Gibbs, Ella Williams, and Edward Thayer, esq., Harry Decker, Furt Andrews, Francis Wettling.

CHARGED WITH THEFT. The numerous petty thefts which have occurred from time to time on and near Luzerne street, at the Keyser Valley end, resulted in the arrest of Michael Maloney, of Sixteenth street, yesterday. The warrant was issued by Alderman Johns at the instance of George Firestine, of Luzerne street, who claimed that on the night of Oct. 20 the defendant removed from his premises one keg of beer, some cigars, This action was done after breaketc. ing a window. Constable John Walsh served the warrant and Mr. Maloncy will have a hearing today.

Anthony Cominsky, of South Washington avenue, was given a hearing before Alderman Kelly yesterday afternoon on a charge of false pretense, pre forred by Henry Schimberg, a clerk employed in Ignatz Oraza's of South Washington avenue. Cominsky was ommitted to the county jail in default of $200 ball to answer at court. Charles McGuire, of 1625 Luzerne street, was arrested Wednesday on a warrant issued by Alderman Moses at the instance of his wife who charges McGuire with non-support. Mrs. Mc Guire alleges that for fourteen years he has abused her and failed to provide sustenace for her and their four children. The defendant was committed to the county jail in default of $500 bail.

PAYING ELECTION BETS. The election is over and several bets are being made good. Last evening Thomas Thomas, a lucky young man had two of his bets paid in a humorous but not entirely novel manner. Harry Smith, a companion, who differed on the result of the district attorney's vote gave Mr. Thomas a wheelbarrow ride from Lafavette street to Washburn and return, a distance of four blocks Then Henry Wedeman, aneach way. other friend who believed Candidate Warnke could not get through, gave Mr. Thomas his second ride over the same route. The only condition were that the trip should be made early in the evening and without any tipovers.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harris, in Morris court, a large number of friends and relatives gathered on Wednesday evening in honor of the fifth anniversary of their marriage. The crowd gathered early and spent the evening in a most pleasant manner. The usual social diversions were indulged in and Messrs, Will James, with the accordeon and John Dennebaum on the violin furnished music for the dances. Mr. and Mrs. Harris were the recidents of a number of useful and valuable presents. At a late hour refreehments were served and the merry crowd left for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Harris many more such anniversaries. A PLEASANT HOME EVENT.

Miss Belle Blewitt, of Ninth street, entertained a large number of her friends at her home on Wednesday evening. Vocal and instrumental seta Blair, Helen West, Margaret Ed- lections, dancing and kindred diver-
