BEFORE BREAKFAST.

It is a very graceful thing which Colonel and Mrs. H. M. Boies will do in opening their conservatories this afternoon and evening to the public for the benefit of the Homoeopathic hospital. It is a rare treat to see these five hot houses at any season of the year, for so complete is their collection of flora that either roses, orchids, azaleas or some other lovely display of bloom may be seen, but it is at this season when the queen of autumn, the chrysanthemum, is at its best, that the visitor is most delighted with the color effect. Colonel Boies has one of the finest collections of rare chrysanthemums in the country and the privflege of viewing the exhibition, so advantageously placed, is especially de-

Visitors will be received from 4 to 6. and from 8 to 10 this afternoon and evening. Entrance will be given at the side gate. The sum of 25 cents will be charged for the furnishing of the hospital operating room. No doubt throngs of people will see this exhibition, not only for the pleasure it will afford to the aesthetic taste, but also for the assistance thus bestowed on a most worthy object. . . .

The First Presbyterian church was thronged with patrons of the supper last evening which was served from 6 to 8 o'clock. The expeditious manner in which the multitude was fad was most commendable. The menu was exceptionally attractive. chairman of the committee was Miss Caro Dickson. Others who assisted during the evening were: Chairman, Mrs. B. E. Watson; Mrs. F. D. Me-Gowan, Mrs. LaRue, Mrs. Willis Kemmerer, Mrs. F. E. Platt, Mrs. F. H. Kingsbury, the Misses Archbaid, Kingsbury, Hunt, Matthews, Seybolt, Burns, McLeod, Coursen, Mattes, Vickery, Dunham, Barker and Spurl.

The Young Women's Christian as sociation has an A shaped bulletin board much in use and very popular as the enterprising secretaries keep the public informed of the many interesting incidents of that organization through this convenient medium Yesterday it figured in a scene which, for a moment, attracted more attention than even a sensational Sunday paper bulletin has ever been able to accomplish. It wasn't because of the sentiment inscribed thereon, which was regarding Mrs. Norvell's work, although it is certainly uplifting enough. Instead it was a gust of wind which came along and the bulletin board took a fiyer settling down promptly with decision and considerable accuracy of position on the back of a horse belonging to a team tied at the curb. The animal's surprise was instantenous and active, and it required much quick work on the part of passers-by to prevent a catastrophe on the crowded

BUSINESS MEN AND THE TARIFF

Scranton Board of Trade Will Consider the Matter. INFORMATION AT HAND

Pariff Commission League Wants the Board's Support in the Effort to Be Made to Have a Non-Partisan Tariff Commission Appointed. Scranton's Delegates to Favor the Scheme at the Meeting of the National Board of Trade.

At the last meeting of the board of trade the delegates to next month's neeting of the national board at Washngton were directed to support a resolution to be presented to congress favoring the creation of a mariff commission. Within the past three years the Scranton board has frequently received and discussed many communications on the subject from the Tariff Commission league and other organizations favoring a non-partisan tariff commission. In view of the interest taken by Scranton manufacturers and merchants the following letter will be of interest:

Newark, N. J., Nov. 1, 1897. To the Commercial Organizations of the United States. Gentlemen-We hand you herewith opy of a bill having for its object the copy of a bull having for its object the taking of the tariff question out of pol-ities and placing it in the hands of a court or ornamission created on the same plan as the United States supreme court. It has been thoroughly proven by the discussion of this question during the past four years that before such a court or commission can be of any practical service the government must establish a permanent policy under which our tariff must be adjusted and the revenue collected. With a principle once established that will apply with equal justice to each and every industry alike then the arrangement of schedules under such a law could be arranged by a court or commission much more scientifically and equitably than under the present sys-tem and at the same time put a stop to all uncertainty and agitation. WORSE THAN PRESENT SYSTEM.

Any commission that must report to congress and depend upon that body to carry out their findings would be much worse than the present system, for then congress would have the question brought before them every session and always open up a profilic field for campaign pyrotechnics with much less certainty as to their final action than under the present system, so that such a commis-sion is to be discouraged at every point. It has also been proven that this gov-ernment must have revenue and that the best way to raise that revenue is by a tariff for revenue so adjusted as to afford needed protection to our madu-facturing and agricultural industries. and the bill herewith presented is framed on those lines.

Please have this question taken up at the next meeting of your organization. Have this bill thoroughly discussed in all its details and if any amendments all its details and if any amendments are recommended please send us a copy of them; also please decide upon what action, if any, your organization will be willing to take in helping to carry the measure through concress at the coming session, December, 1897.

It is our desire that every voter in district be requested to write a personal letter to your representatives in congress that he had been apportant to the proposition of the proposition of (both branches) urging them to support it; also that your organization appoint a committee to see that these letters are written; also that said committee call upon your representatives in a body be-fore they leave for Washington this fall and urge them to vote for that you send a delegation to Wash-ington to appear before the committees of congress to urge its passage or that ou unite with other organizations in our vicinity and send such a committee to Washington jointly.

Over 800 organizations throughout the country have already officially endorsed this movement, and we hope that every one will unite in the effort to perman-ently settle the question at the coming ession of congress.

Please notify us as soon as possible w at action you have already taken and ar willing to take in the future in regard to the matter. United action means ertain success.

Trusting we will receive a prompt and favorable reply, we remain.

Respectfully yours.

The Tariff Commission League.
S. B. Archer, Secretary and Treasurer. THE PROPOSED ACT.

An idea of the proposed net may be had from the following excerpts from the bill now before the ways and means committee: A bill for the raising of revenue and the creating of a tariff commission, and for other purposes. Whereas the difference in the cost of production in the United States and for-eign countries is the only equitable and just basis upon which the rates of duties n imports should be levted; and Whereas this difference in the cost of Whereas this difference in the cost of production is necessary to promote and enecurage domestic industries, and has proved to be the most satisfactory way of providing revenue to pay the expenses of the government: Therefore, Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled. That the duty levied on all goeds imported from any foreign country into the United States and coming into competition with States and coming into competition wit States and coming into competition with similar goods manufactured or produced in the United States shall, in all cases, be an amount fully equal to the difference in the cost of producing such goods in the foreign country where produced and the cost of producing such goods in the United States. That all goods imported from any foreign country into the United States which do not come into competition with similar me into competition with similar roods manufactured or produced in the United States may be admitted free of duty unless a duty on such goods may be considered necessary for the purpose of revenue, or as hereinafter specified in

Sec. 3. That for the purpose of de-termining what is the difference in the cost of production and arranging the schedules under which said duties shall be levied and collected, a commission is hereby created and established, to be known as the tariff commission, which shall be composed of one chief commissioner and six associate commissioners who shall be appointed by the president, with the advice and consent of the sen-ate. That said commissioners shall hold their office during good behavior.

HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS.

Sec. 8. That it shall be the duty of the emmission to appoint one or more com-nittees from among its members who hall visit the different sections of the country and hold public hearings so as to better ascertain the needs of the dif-ferent sections as well as to become themselves more familiar with the pro-cess and cost of production, also the conditions of labor, and that all such information shall be put in proper shape for the future use of the commission. Sec. 11. That each commissioner shall receive a salary of seven thousand five hundred dollars per year, except the chairman, who shall receive eight thousand dollars per year. The commission shall appoint a secretary, who shall receive a salary of four thousand dollars per year, and such clerks and employes as may hereafter be authorized by law. That the chairman of the commission shall appoint a private accretical at shall appoint a private secretary, at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per year, and each of the associate commissioners shall appoint a private secretary, at a salary of one thousand two hundred dollars per year.

MEETING OF THE POOR BOARD.

Men Who Left the Institution Cannot

Get Bnek. The board of poor directors met in regular session yesterday afternoon. Among the many applications for relief was that of Mrs. Novack, widow of the Priceburg Polander who died recently in the Lackawanna hospital from the effects of a murderous blow on the head. The man charged with the crime is now in the county prison awaiting trial.

Mrs. Novack has three small chillren. She came to Scranton a few days ago to seek aid from the city poor nuthorities and has been sheltered by friends on the South Side. The board decided to send her back to Priceburg as she is not a charge on this district. The late election entired a number of the male inmates from the Hillside Home. A batch of them appeared bebe returned to the institution. They offered various excuses for leaving the place, but in each case the request to e returned was refused. The case of a demented Polish woman, who with her child had for several days been wandering about the city's streets, was reported by the Associated charities. The board de-fore the board yesterday and asked to

The report of Superintendent Beemer, of the Home, showed that 375 inmates were in the institution Sept. 30. During October 18 were admitted, 4 died, S were discharged and 381 were there at the close of the month. Of the latter number 211 were insane,

HUSBAND WAS DUPED.

Mrs. Leach, by a Clever Scheme, Got Her Husband to Pay Her Lover's Fine.

When the police Thursday night wooped down on the dive of Mabel West at 18 Lackawanna avenue, one of the women arrested was Mrs. Arthur Leach, formerly of Plymouth, who had been an inmate of the house for some time. It was at the instance of her husband the place was raided.

Another person arrested in the house was Thomas Simons, a young man of 20, who says he is employed by Miss than the youth, but is madly infatuated with him.

who induced his wife to leave Plymouth and enter upon a life of shame in this city and that he has letters Simons sent to Mrs. Leach, to prove that fact. Simons' home is in Pittston, and Mrs. Leach before her marriage was Miss Maggie Thomas, of Plymouth. She said yesterday that she loved Tommy and wants to secure a divorce from her husband.

When the raid was made Simons had 3, which he gave to Mrs. Leach to pay her fine in the morning. Her stock of cash amounted to $2. Mrs. Leach did not propose to see her heroic lover languish in jail because of his generesity in giving her his money, and yesterday, after a $5 fine was imposed on her in police court, she sent for her husband. He came with his father and Mrs. Leach professed sorrow for her past conduct and agreed to forsake the het husband and their child, if she was taken out of prison. Leach was pleased and with his father left the police station to get money to pay her fine. As soon as they were gone Mrs. Leach called to her lover, who was locked in one of the cells in the men's department, twenty feet away:

"Cheer up, Tommy; I'll soon get you out. Leach's going to pay my fine and as soon as I get down town I'll slip him and send the $5 I have here up to get you out."

And she did. Fifteen minutes after Mr. and Mrs. Leach left the police station a messenger boy arrived with the 5 necessary to discharge Simons' indebtedness to the city, "If I want to see her and she wants to see me, I don't see how Leach is going to prevont it," he said as he departed. Leach in paying his wife's fine really paid Police Are Making an Effort to Piace Him Under Arrest.

The police are looking for a small, swarthy-looking man who has been frightening women on the Hill. His field of operation is bounded by Linden and Mulberry streets and Madison and Clay avenues. He skulks in alleys and behind tree boxes, and when he sees a woman walking along the street unaccompanied after nightfall, he springs out on the sidewalk in front of her and after some disgusting actions runs BWBY. One courageous servant girl he stopped the other night gathered several stones in the roadway and threw them after the brute.

SPRING ELECTION IS NEAR AT HAND

Councilmen and School Controllers to Be Chosen.

BOTH PARTIES WILL BE ACTIVE

Political Complexion in Councils on Joint Battot and in the Board of Control Now Favors the Democrats. Twenty Conneilmen and Eleven Controllers Are to Be Elected. Many Aldermanic and Constabulary Terms Expire.

At the coming spring elections ten select councilmen, ten common councilmen and eleven school controllers are to be elected. Aldermen and constables are to be chosen in several wards, Prospective candidates of both parties have already begun to canvas or are mapping out a line of action with their friends. By the first of January the pot will be boiling with uncided to send the woman to the Hillusual vigor.

It is not difficult to foresee that the side Home pending an investigation of strife will be turbulent, as both Democrats and Republicans will have opportunity to change the political complexion of the two branches of council and the board of control. This fact makes it certain that rivalry will assume something of a general nature and extend throughout the city and not be confined solely to ward fights. At present there is a Democratic majority of two in councils. Out of twenty-one members of the select branch eleven are Republican, but there are twelve Democratic commoners. New councilmen are to be elected in all the even numbered wards, the Second, Fourth, Sixth, etc. In the select branch it is a stand-off as to which party will have the advantage, as the ten members whose terms expire include five Democrats and five

REPUBLICAN OPPORTUNITY. In the elections of common councilhave a decided advantage. Of the ten members whose terms expire eight are Democrats. By electing a Republican to one of the eight Democratic vacan-West. Mrs. Leach is six years older cles the Democratic majority in the common branch would be reduced to one vote and the two branches would be a tle on joint ballot. If two Republicans can be elected in as many wards now represented by Democrats there would be a Republican majority of one in the lower branch and two on joint ballot, whereas the joint ballot is at present in favor of the Democrats by two votes.

When councils reorganize after the election, the only city officers to be elected by them are a city clerk, who clerk of the select branch, and a clerk of the common branch. Whatever the political complexion of counclis may be, City Clerk M. T. Lavelle is sure to be re-elected. He is a Democrat, but councilmen of that faith and Republicans, too, have, on account of his fidelity, competence and non-par-tisanship, for many years been content with his administrations and it is probable that he will be city clerk until he retires of his own violition. Common council Clerk Mahon is satisfactory life she has been leading and rejoin to the Democrats of that body and is sure of a re-election unless the Republicans attain a majority.

SCHOOL BOARD. In the board of control the Democrats have a majority of votes. Of the eleven members from the odd-num-bered wards whose terms expire in the spring, seven are Republicans and four Democrats. This will give the latter the better chance to retain the major-
