HAVE CALLED A PASTOR.

Congregation of St. David's Episcopal Church, Desire Rev. E. J. McHenry, of Grace Church, Great Bend.

The vestry board of the St. Davids' Episcopal church yesterday signed and forward a call for a pastor to succeed Rev. M. H. Mills, resigned. The call was forwarded to Archdeacon D. Robert Cox, of Alden, Pa., who has charge of the archdencourv of Central Pennsylvania for his action. The call asks that Rev. E. J. McHenry, at present paster of the Grace Episcopal church Great Lend, be sent here. St. David's church has been without a paster new for nearly seven months.

It may be snother month before a pastor will be in charge here, as considerable work hinges upon the appointing of a new paster to a charge, or the answering of the call of any church or mission for a paster. The reverened gentleman who has been e-ked for repently preached here and the congregation was greatly pleased

The yestry board and congregation are unanimous in their desire to have Eav. Mr. McHenry come here.
