Susquehanna Residents Lose No Sleep .- Marty Ryan's Good Showing ns a Candidate -- A Few Lodge Notes -- Raitrond News and Personal Gossip.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Susquehanna, Nov. 9,-Edward Lagrew, a sportsman residing near Sum-nersville, this county, is in possession of a dog whose general knowledge of what is required of him while hunting cannot be equalled by any other canine. The owner of the dog has had a contrivance made which is fastened to the dog's back, in which he places his shotgun, both barrels loaded heavily, and the hammers at full cock. To the trigger is at ached a string which is placed in the dog's mouth. When all is ready the dog starts for a flock of partridges, and when within a few yards of them, he crouches down and for the dog recently.

AND HE RAN WELL.

Martin J. Ryan, Susquehanna's popular postmaster, was the Democratic candidate for prothonotary of Susquehanna county, and, although defeated, he made a splendid run, forging considerably ahead of his ticket. In Susquehanna, where he was born, he had a majority of 244, the largest majority ever received by a candidate in the place. Mr. Ryan has made a model postmaster, and he would have made a first-class prothonotary.

Other Bradford County News. A fatal gunning accident occured in Fast Towarda on Saturday after-noon about five o'clock, which cost the life of 11-year-old Fred Coon of this borough. He and another companion had been out hunting and had stopped to a friends house. As the boy went to open the gate with the butt of his 22-calibre rifle it was discharged, the contents striking his left temple and coming out on the oppo site side. Frevious to his death at seven o'clock the same evening he was unconscious. Undertaker A. Campbell was called and removed the boy's remains to his late home. The lad was a member of the Episcopal Vested cheir from which church funeral services were held today, Tuesday. His ompanion has been nearly crazy over the sad mishap of his playmate, and has been suffering with convulsions since the accident.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. New York, Nov. 9.-The tone of the market for stocks during the latter part of the day's trailing was generally strong. There was steady buying of a good character all day which seemed to be for long acter all day which seemed to be for long account, and in the final transactions the shorts were diven to cover quite urgently, carrying the level of prices strongly above last night's close so that the net gains in nearly all active stocks are over a point in many cases, notably the Grangers, and some of the southern stocks are near two points. The total sales were 379,100 shares.

We have been in Scranton over 16 years; we are here now—we intend to stay here. Our business is not a mere experience. We will not do work today that you can call us to account for tomorrow. We compete with the cheap advertising dentisis who are here today and gone tomorrow, but we do not compare—our work is a contrast. So do not make a mistake; all our operators are experts of skill and experience, and not mere students. Still our prices are lower than the lowest. Beware of imposters and charlatans who can afford to rain your teeth because they are not financially responsible. How can we do better than they? The answer is easy; We have a dental office in nearly every city in the United States, and we buy our supplies at wholesale for cost. No wonder we can give better prices than anyone else, therefore. Experience counts also, and we have the experience besides our diplomas. Don't be buncoed; get the best, the most reliable, the most comfortable and the most durable. The newest methods the latest applications, the best materials. These are attractions worth considering. Besides nervous people and those with heart weakness can have their teeth filled or crowned with absolute safety and positively without pain, we are the only really up-to-date bental Establishment in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Teeth extracting in the morning and a new set furnished in the afternoon is the afternoon is an original. All others are mere imitators.

FINE RUGS AT BARGAIN PRICES.

That chance is here now, but quick buying is necessary, for there's only a few of them, and the reason for selling them at such absurd prices is simply this: A water pipe burst on our third floor. The Rugs soaked, and they're very slightly water stained, althought the damage is not sufficient to do them any real harm or spoil their appearence in any way. These are not Jute Rugs, but fine finished East Indian goods.

The Home of Mme. Patti-A Museum of Priceless Mementoes-How the Diva Shows Her Loyalty, Though Thousands of Miles May Intervene-The Latest Is an Autograph Letter Sent from Wales.

Craig-y-Nos Castle in the heart of the picturesque Swansca Valley, the home of Mme. Patti, contains some of the most priceless heiricoms and bric-a-brac in Great Britain. Within its walls are souvenirs from every clime gathered by the diva during the journeys of her wonderfu

To receive a letter confirming the high opinion that she pronounced eight years ago is no common occurrence, and yet she has recently repeated a previous honor, Mme. Pattl was the great artist who first indersed the Kimball piano, one of excellent condition doing good service. Since the t stimonial then given the Kim-ball piano, she has indorsed no other. Mme. Pattl his now placed in her castle one of the new style Kimball baby grands, and this is the letter she writes concerning its arrival. Craig-y-Nos Castle, Ystradgynlais, R.S.O., Breconshire Scuth Wales, July 28, 1897. Dear Mr. Kimball: It is with great pleasure that I write to acknowledge the safe arrival of the Kimball baby grant plano. It is indeed a beautiful plano and has an exquisite tone. It has already been greatly admired by many connois urs who are all united in pronouncing to be a chef-d'oeuvre. With kind regards, believe me, yours very truly,
