West Side and City Suburban

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

Several Important Matters Discussed and Acted Upon.

The West Side board of trade met last evening in regular monthly session and transacted but a small amount of business. There were no committee reports of any moment and the session was short. President A. B. Holmes presided.

A committee was appointed, consisting of Dr. J. J. Carroll, D. D. Evans and Jenkin T. Reese, to confer with Street Commissioner Dunning relative to the laying of a sidewalk at the Brown property, abutting on Jackson street. No sidewalk was ever laid at that place, owing to some misunderstanding in reference to the land, and though the attention of the councils has been repeatedly drawn to the existing state of affairs, no action was taken. At present the traveling public is compelled to use the street, with risk of life and limb at this point.

A communication was read from a joint committee located at Chicago, who are urging the co-operation of various organizations throughout the country in favoring a bill which was submitted to the senate last year by Hon. William P. Frye. The bill is seeking the creation of a department of commerce and industry for the direct purpose of caring for the country's domestic trade relations. The committee is C. F. Quincy, chairman; Frank Barry, Elliott Durand and Leonard Tillotson, secretary. The communication was not acted upon.

President A. B. Holmes made some statements in reference to the two industries which the board had recently tried to locate on the West Side. No capital had been taken by West Scranton business men in the carpet industry, which is to be located on the Tripp tract.

CANDIDATES FOR WARD OFFICES.

They Have Already Begun to Announce Themselves.

In February next when the local spring elections take place several councilmen for both branches and school controllers are to be elected. In West Scranton two councilmen each from the Fourth, Sixth, Fourteenth and the Eighteenth wards are to be elected and one school controller from the Fifth and Fifteenth wards.

In the Fourth ward the present representatives are W. J. Thomas in the select and Simon Thomas, of the common branch. It is probable that Mr. Thomas of the select, will try for re-election. At any rate, Mr. Thomas of the common, will run for the select councilmanic seat and has already announced his candidacy and begun his canvass.

To succeed Common Councilman Thomas, William V. Griffiths, who ran two years ago; W. W. Evans, who made a similar attempt four years ago, and James Leyshon, who makes his first attempt, will be in the field. Each of the three will make a strong canvass. Simon Thomas, who wants to go into the select council, has served an apprenticeship of six years in the common branch. Common Councilman Thomas has done much not only for his constituents, but for the city in general during his several terms. Evan P. Davis is also a candidate for select council in this ward.

In the Sixth ward uncertainty exists. The intentions of neither the selectman, M. E. Clarke, nor his colleague, John E. Regan, are very pronounced. However beneath this seeming indifference lies the almost positive purpose of Mr. Clarke to succeed himself and of Mr. Regan to succeed Mr. Clarke. No candidate has appeared to succeed Mr. Regan, as yet, in case the above takes place. It is whispered that a Republican will try and may not try in vain this time.

In the Fourteenth nothing appears to be about to change. P. F. McCann, selectman and P. J. Nealis, commoner, will run for re-election to their present holdings. They will however be opposed, it is said, by Peter Ross, of West Lackawanna avenue, and M. H. Rinehart, of Eighth street, for select and common council respectively.

As for the aspect of affairs in the Eighteenth, little can be said other than a similar circumstance exists as in the Sixth. M. J. Burns, selectman, will endeavor to succeed himself and may have to try against the endeavors of Common Councilman J. F. Noone along that line. As in the Sixth also, no candidate for Mr. Noone's toga has as yet crept out into the open.

The contest for the school controllerships may be heavily charged with the possibility of the naming of six candidates for the city at large. At any calculation George B. Carson, the present controller from the Fifth ward, has said he will not run for re-election, and three candidates are already in the field. Two of them, D. I. Phillips and Edwin G. Hughes, have been actively at work for several months, but the third, Edward Thomas, outside boss at the Hyde Park shaft, has not positively said no or yes. Mr. Phillips makes a strong bid, having resided in the Fifth ward for nearly 30 years and was born in West Scranton. He has never run for office, though always active in party efforts and has a staunch backing.

His probable opponent, Mr. Hughes, the well known contractor, has always been identified with the workers for his party and has many friends. He was pitted against Mr. Carson once and did not run very far behind. The scarcity of Democratic votes makes it doubtful as to a Democratic candidate for this office.

John H. Williams, of Williams & Co., is the present controller from the Fifteenth and it is entirely probable will run for re-election. A possible candidate so far is Elias E. Evans, of Evans & Powell, shoe dealers. The two men were opposing candidates at the last election and it is rumored that the order of succession will be reversed this time. Lack of Democratic strength will probably not bring out a Democratic candidate here.

AN ENJOYABLE SMOKER.

The members of the Electric City wheelmen enjoyed a smoker at their cosy club house on Jackson street last evening. A short business session was held with President W. S. Mears in the chair. Five new members were enrolled which indicates the popularity and growth of the club. At the conclusion of the business, cigars were passed by Frank De Pue and Guy Ralph, and everyone smoked. Thomas Evans, of the Suburban wheelmen, of Olyphant, and E. Finn, Anthracite wheelmen, of North Scranton, were visitors. Mr. Drinker gave several selections on the mandolin and the club double quartette gave several numbers.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL OPENED.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Welsh Baptist church opened their fair and festival last evening in the church basement. Despite the inclement weather a goodly number were in attendance and in addition to the serving of supper to many, ample sales were made from the several booths placed here and there about the room. The affair will be continued tomorrow evening and those who attend will find everything to suit their tastes either in dainty eatables, articles of worth or fancy bric-a-brac.

TWO ACCIDENTS.

Stanley Maloski, about 18 years of age, and employed in the Bellevue slope workings, was badly injured yesterday by being kicked in the right jaw by a mule. The lad drives a team and while attempting to unhitch the mules from a trip, the "breeching" mule inflicted the kick. He was removed to his home on South Washington avenue and given medical attendance.

William Davis, of Snyder avenue, employed as a driver in the Bellevue mines, had his arm badly bruised yesterday by being caught between the topping on a loaded car and the roof. He was taken home and his injuries dressed.

FUNERALS OF YESTERDAY.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Wiklund, of 2024 Washburn street, was interred at the Washburn street cemtery yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the family residence and many friends of the bereaved parents were in attendance. The floral offerings were very profuse. Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D., pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran church, officiated. The pallbearers were: Mary Shugg, Lena and Selma Johnson, Adeline Price, Carrie McCloskey, Julia Mulrooney, Gertie Johnson and May Bushner.

The funeral of the late James Phillips, who died at the Lackawanna hospital Sunday night, occurred yesterday afternoon, Rev. C. E. Robinson, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, officiated. Interment was made at the Washburn street cemetery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Job Harris, of Eynon street, is seriously ill at her home from an attack of pneumonia and asthma.

Gomer and Gwylim Jones, of South Hyde Park avenue, are quite ill at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Harding, of Barton, N. Y., are the guests of Rev. and Mrs. F. P. Doty, of North Ninth street.

George Milbaum, of Jackson street has returned from a visit with friends in New Jersey.

Miss Genevieve Gaynor, of North Lincoln avenue, is seriously ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts of Garfield avenue, visited friends at Moscow yesterday.

Thomas McGuire, of North Lincoln avenue, has returned from a trip to New York.

C. S. De Puy, Edward Hallock, and Moses Stanles, of this side, returned yesterday from a successful two days hunting trip near Gouldsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Myles Gibbons, of Lafayette, have as their guests James Langan and daughter Agnes of Rutland.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

R. L. Thomas, of New York city, will deliver an illustrated lecture on Bunyan's "Pilgrims Progress" at the Hampton street Methodist church next Thursday evening, Nov., 11th. The funds obtained are for the Sabbath school library. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

In honor of her guest, Miss Ella Hancock, of Eynon street entertained a few friends Monday evening. The usual pleasantics were indulged in and later refreshments were served. The guests were: The Misses Maud Lewis, Lizzie Jenkins, Alice and Kate Warner, Abbie Hancock; Messrs. C. J. Compton, Jacob Karchar, James Lawson, Lewis Hancock, jr., and John Richards, of Taylor.

Patrick Rainey, of Luzerne street, waived a hearing yesterday before Alderman Johns and entered bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court. The charges against him were abuse of his wife and daughter, threats and non-support. His wife preferred the charges.

The Woman's Guild of St. Mark's Lutheran church served supper to a large number of persons last evening at the residence of Mrs. Fred Fritz, of North Sumner avenue. Supper was served from 5 until 9 o'clock and all the choice viands of the season were laid before the patrons by the charming corps of waiters.

Many of the visiting delegates attending the Epworth league convention held yesterday at the Elm Park church were informally entertained at the Simpson Methodist church yesterday afternoon by the Simpson chapter of that church.

The benefit concert for John T. Davies, at present a student at Factoryville, will be given this evening in the First Welsh Baptist church. An excellent programme has been prepared and the friends of Mr. Davies who are engaged in this commendable work promise an enjoyable concert.

The foot ball eleven of St. Leo's Battalion have issued a challenge to the eleven of St. Brenden's council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, for a game to be played on the Mullen field Nov. 14. The challenge will in all probability be accepted and an interesting game is bound to result. St. Leo's team is made up of the following players; Saul, center; Gaughan, right tackle; Kadgen, left guard; Kelly, right tackle; Cavanaugh, left end; Neville, right tackle; Gilroy, right end; Lonergan, quarter back; Burnett, left half back; Flaherty, right half back; Murphy, full back; McAndrew and Reap, substitutes.

SOUTH SCRANTON

The fair in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church will close this evening after a most successful course. It has been a source of gratifying financial profit to the church treasury and of social pleasure to all who attended. Among those who have won valuable prizes are Miss Julia Dankivertz, John Boulanger, Edward Schmidt, August Miller, Mrs. Charles Naegh and Charles Leerman. The young Maennerchor will entertain the people present this evening and the list of articles to be chanced off contain many of value. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Haas, is highly grateful for the success of the fair.

The funeral of Samuel Green who died Sunday, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of his daughter Mrs. F. P. Henderson, of 429 South Washington avenue. Interment was made in Washburn street cemetery. The deceased is survived by his wife and a family of eight, as follows: Curtis and George, Mrs. Henderson, and Mrs. James Lovelass, of Scranton; Mrs. Jacob Kromer, of Dalton; Samuel, of Oneonta, N. Y.; Isaac, of Winton; and William of Scott township.

Tillie, 7-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Fred Snyder, of 901 Pittston avenue, died Monday afternoon. The funeral will be held at two o'clock this afternoon. Interment will be made in the German Catholic cemetery.

The approaching marriage of John Maloney, of Pittston avenue, and Miss Cecelia Noone, of South Wyoming avenue, has been announced.

A meeting of Roaring Brook conclave of Heptasophs will be held this evening in Storr's hall.

The funeral of William McTighe will be held this morning from the home of his sister, Mrs. Patrick Gibbons, of Cedar avenue, and Maple street. A high mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. John's church at 9 o'clock, and interment will be made in Hyde Park cemetery.

John Collins who has been an inmate of the Hillside Home for some time, died there Monday morning, and the funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. Brian Collins, of Stone avenue, interment being made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery.

An entertainment will be given on Thanksgving night in Pharmacy hall under the auspices of the St. Irene's Ladies T. A. B. society.

GREEN RIDGE.

Rev. F. S. Ballentine, of the Church of the Good Shepherd, has gone to South Bethlehem to spend a few days.

All ladies of the Green Ridge Christian Endeavor society who wish to act as conductors on trolley day, will please report to A. B. Dunning not later than Wednesday evening.

Mrs. S. Charlesworth, of Marion street, has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in Honesdale.

Mrs. Harry Foster, of Syracuse, is visiting friends here for a few days.

Mrs. J. H. Fare, of Washington avenue, is spending a couple of months with relatives in New Jersey.

A happy surprise party was tendered Miss Leora Johler at her home on Sanderson avenue, Monday evening, in honor of her tenth birthday. A delightful evening was spent with music, games and recitations. At a seasonable hour the young folks marched to the dining room where a supper was served. Mrs. Johler was assisted in entertaining her guests by Mrs. Julia Bird, Mrs. Agnes Reed, Mrs. Heckman, Miss Jessie Wilbur, Mrs. Downing, Mrs. A. E. Brooks and Miss Lillian Brooks. Besides these there were present: Misses Manette Collins, Edna Hurbert and Roy Heckman, Franklin Jones, Oscar Brooks, Asa Gillette, Roxford Johler, Austin W. Moore, Willard Blackman, Emma Patch, Daisy Gillette, Pearl Henry, Lena Ellsby, Gertie Bell, Pearl Rendols, Maggie Thomas, Jennie Rain, Ethel and Charlie Green Adam Bird, Grace Shimer, Lulu Davis, Leona Vidaver, Ruth and Elwood Richmond.

OBITUARY.

John Atticus Robertson, who held the distinct honor of becoming a naturalized American citizen by a special decree of congress, died at noon yesterday at his home, 1624 Sanderson avenue. He had been a sufferer since December 23, 1896, from pneumonia which caused his death. Drs. John W. Coolidge and Frederick Sureth were the attending physicians. His wife and several intimate friends were at the bedside at the last moment.

A life sketch of the deceased is one of unusual variety and romance. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Jacob Robertson, were appointed missionaries to Athens, Greece, by the American Episcopal church. Their duties were not exactly evangelical but was of a higher importance befitting the character of John Jacob Robertson, who in the early forties was well known throughout the country for his scholarly attainments.

While Mr. and Mrs. Robertson were in Athens their first son—the subject of this sketch—was born. As a boy he was taught in the Grecian schools and afterward the family, numbering also three daughters who are now living in the west, removed to Constantinople, when J. Atticus Robertson, whose middle name was given in honor of the Greek state, was 12 years old. A few years afterward the family returned to America. J. Atticus Robertson was placed in Trinity college, Hartford, where his education was finished. After leaving school his father by his personal influence with the United States congress secured the naturalization of the son by a special act. The family then lived at Saugertier-on-the-Hudson.

Mr. Robertson came to Scranton in 1867 and opened an office as a civil engineer. The year following he surveyed the old Uionn railroad line—now the Delaware and Hudson—from Scranton to Wilkes-Barre. Mr. Robertson was superintendent of the road for several years after its construction.

In later years and up to the time of his death Mr. Robertson was a member of the firm of Robertson & Hitchcock, real estate and insurance men with office on Lackawanna avenue. His death yesterday created widespread regret. In business circles the deceased was respected and admired and as a member of the Church of the Good Shepherd he was known as a sincere Christian. He was warden of the church since its organization in 1868. Mrs. Robertson and three sisters—Mrs. William S. Johnson, Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Guy D. Penfield, Los Angeles, Cal., and Miss Mary K. Robertson, of Oakland, Cal., survive.

The funeral service will be conducted at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. F. H. Ballentine, the pastor, officiating. Burial will be made in Forst Hill cemetery.

ARRESTED WHILE AT WORK.

John Kilrain Waited in Vain All Day for a Bondsman.

John Kilrain sat in Alderman Millar's office yesterday from 10 o'clock in the morning until 8.30 o'clock in the evening. He wore his sooty working clothes and his face was black from toiling at the South steel mill, where he was arrested in the early morning.

At 8.30 o'clock last night Kilrain was taken to the central police station, where he spent the night. He is 30 years old, tall, raw-boned, honest and innocent in appearance. The only relation he has in the world is his mother, who is in Ireland.

Kilrain bade good-bye to his native land about two months ago and came to Scranton. He got a job at the South mill and secured board in Moosic. Last Friday night a freight car standing on the Delaware and Hudson tracks, near the steel mill station, was broken into and three kegs of beer stolen. The company detectives discovered Kilrain, Hugh Brady and several others drinking beer from the kegs.

Kilrain, Brady, Patrick McCann and Hugh Foley were arrested by Detective Martin Crippen and the four were taken before Alderman Millar yesterday. McCann and Foley were discharged.

Alderman Millar listened to the evidence and held Brady and Kilrain under $300 bail. Brady's friends furnished the security at once and they left the office with Kilrain sitting in his chair and waiting for some good angel to come. Alderman Millar gave him until 8 o'clock before sending him to jail. Dinner hour passed and Kilrain expressed the wish that his "dinner" pail, left at the mill, was with him. The big fellow cried at times and kept himself busy looking at the clock and listening for footsteps on the stairway. Everybody pitied him.

The venerable Constable Carman gave him a clay pipe and Special Officer Byars shared his tobacco with the unfortunate and at 8.30 the magistrate of the Eighth contributed from his own purse the money to buy Kilrain a meal.

Kilrain pleads innocence and says he was not one of the gang who committed the theft. He was invited to join them in drinking the beer.

THE GREATEST EXCITEMENT

On Washington Avenue This Morning--Crowded and Jammed--People Flocking from All Over This County--The Rain Did Not Interfere.

Notwithstanding the heavy rain of this morning thousands of people from all over this county flocked to 211 Washington avenue, where the Chicago Combination Clothing Co. are now closing out the stock of the bankrupt Monitor Clothing Co. of Wilkes-Barre. This stock is being slaughtered right and left. It must be gotten rid of in order to make a final settlement. This is the first time a sale of such extraordinary magnitude has taken place in Scranton, and it may never occur again.

That this concern is strictly living up to advertisement is evidently by the tremendous crowds. Never in Scranton's history has a sale been so bonifide, but you must get there and not delay before some of this stock will be sold. Remember the place. Chicago Combination Clothing Co., 211 Washington avenue, directly opposite the Court House, Scranton, Pa. Store open evenings until 9 p. m. Postively no mail orders filled but car fare allowed to all out of town buyers. **

Over Studied.

A YOUNG LADY'S HEALTH RUINED PREPARING FOR GRADUATION.

Was Over-ambitious and Went Beyond Her Strength. Constant Pain and Misery—Her Critical Condition.

From the Democrat, Shelbyville, Ind.

In one of the main streets of Shelbyville, Indiana, resides Mrs. Emily Edwards and her seventeen year old daughter, Cora. The young lady is one of the charming misses of the city, she being known for her beauty, and perfect health.

"Although enjoying good health now," said her mother to a reporter recently, "she has not always been so fortunate. I suppose Cora, until two years ago last March, was as healthy and strong as any girl of her age. She was attending school and was studying hard. Perhaps she was too studious, for we noticed that the healthy color in her cheek was rapidly disappearing, and she was becoming pale and sallow. Dark, swollen circles began to appear under her eyes, and she rapidly became worse. We were living in Franklin, Indiana, at the time, and Cora would have graduated that Spring. She stopped attending school and endeavored to get a rest, but her health kept failing. Her blood was colorless and impure. She would also have sick headache, could scarcely eat or sleep, and was almost continually in pain. Nothing which we did for her seemed to do any good.

"Different physicians treated and prescribed for her, but she kept getting worse. She had formerly weighed 109 pounds, but during her illness her weight had dwindled down to 79 pounds. We began to think there was nothing we could do for her benefit, when I happened to notice an article in a paper regarding the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I thought that if there was ever a pale person it was certainly Cora, so I decided to buy a box of the pills and let her try them. It was the first of last May when she began, and near the middle of June when she stopped using the pills. The first dose helped her, and after the first box had been taken, she was a different girl. She continued with this medicine and when she had taken eight boxes a complete cure had been effected.

She is now stronger, can eat more, sleeps better, and weighs more than she did before she was taken sick. I am sure too much cannot be said about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in her case, as they undoubtedly saved her life. We have recommended them to a number of sufferers."

The young lady, said a word of approval, and that she felt very grateful for the benefit received through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. "I agree with my mother," said she, "that I would not be living to-day had I not used these pills."

To leave no doubt as to the truthfulness of her story Mrs. Edwards cheerfully made the following affidavit:

SHELBYVILLE, IND., May 13, 1897.

This is to certify that the above story concerning the illness and subsequent recovery of my daughter, Cora, is an exact and truthful representation of the facts in her case.

Only Once In a While

It is not very often that we see our way clear to slaughter prices in staple Black Dress Goods. There's a good reason for this, but once in a while we get things in such shape that we can offer you something really worth having, and that's just where we're at now.

This Sale of Staple Black Dress Goods

Begins today (Tuesday). The details of an advertisement are meagre and unsatisfactory at their best, but to our patrons we would say, come in and see these goods—they are really surprisingly cheap, and as the quantities are limited, number of pieces stated, delays are dangerous.
