THOSE ALDERMEN AND JUSTICES AGAIN

Grand Jury Says It Believes They Are Pulling the County's Leg.

In Its Ffual Return to Court the Grand Inquest Takes Occasion to Pays Its Respects to Mugistrates Who Send in Trivial Cases for the Purpose of Securing Costs -- True Bill Found Against Mike Koket Who Killed Andrew Novack.

The grand jury, which made its final return to court yesterday afternoon, took occasion, among other things, to roundly denounce the practice of magistrates in transmitting trivial cases for the purpose of getting costs. The uncomfortable furnishings of the grand jury room and the necessity of a telephone in the district attorney's office are once more touched upon. The report in full is as follows:

Third-That an iron gate be substituted in place of the wooden gate at the main entrance to the fail. Fourth—That waste baskets be placed on the third floor of the court house. Fifth—That coat hocks be placed in water-closets in court house. We endorse the recommendation of the last grand jury in regard to matting or seems suitable covering being placed upon the floor of the grand jury room, Cov-ering for floor and new chairs in grand jury room are imperative. The chairs new in the grand jury room are a great torture to the grand jurors, We denounce the practice of many al-

FIGHTING FOR HORSES.

The possession of two horses was he bone of contention in an unusually interesting case tried before Judge Archbald yesterday. Dr. W. A. Mc-Dowell, as plaintiff, and William P.

Joyce learned that Holmes was about to fall and thinking to fortify his bill for rent had an execution issued, with instructions to the sheriff to proceed with its service the next morning.

In the meantime Joyce went to Holmes and made a pressing demand or the rent. Heimes gave him no satstaction and thereupon Joyce told him of the execution. Holmes then agreed to meet him at the Valley house at 9 clock in the morning and make a set tlement. The settlement did not eventuate so Deputy Sheriff J. D. Ferber proceeded to attach Holmes' effects, among them a team of horses, which were kept in Swartz' livery, near his

Arriving there he found that the horses had been removed during the morning and was told that they had en purchased by Dr. McDowell and delivered to him. The sheriff did not succeed in getting the horses although he sought out Dr. McDowell and tried to secure possession of them. The horses are now on a farm somewhere and Holmes is in New York state oyce in the eyes of the law is the wner of the team. Dr. McDowell is ombatting this or an interpleader, arruing that he bought the team before he execution was issued against them
