The borough council met in adjourned session on Tuesday evening. After ordering several bills paid, the question of lighting the town was again discussed. Several stormy arguments were used on each side, which were encouraged by the large number of spectators present. Secretary Little has not yet signed the ordinance, although five members voted for the measure at the last meeting. Attorney J. M. Garman, representing A. H. Squiers, of Tunkhannock, was present and related that it was necessary to obtain Mr. Little's signature and that after the ordinance would be published and confirmed by the courts, the company securing the franchise could then go on with the privileges granted them. Un-ness strong opposition is met with by the citizens of the town, the borough will be lighted in a few months.

STATE GRANGE MEETING.

Proceedings at the Sessions Held at Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Nov. 10.—At the morning session of the State Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, today, an address was made by J. T. Rothrock, State Forestry commissioner, on colony organization. He gave a history of the Grange movement in this state, and its connections with the various departments on Capitol Hill.

Secretary J. T. Aliman submitted his annual report, which showed that 1,500 new members were admitted during the year, and that nine Granges were reported to have been organized.

The opening session of the National Grange was held in the Supreme court room, at Harrisburg, this morning, and consumed in making up the roll of delegates and arranging other preliminaries.

Auditor General Mylin made an address at the afternoon session on the tax conference revenue bill question. He thought it a matter of doubt as to whether the passage of this act would insure to the farmers the benefits they expected to derive. Ex-Senator Gerard C. Brown, of York, presented the report of the legislative committee.

Mr. Rhoads stated at the session of the State Grange this morning that there was no politics in the Grange, notwithstanding the reports contained in newspapers.

This evening the State Grange conferred the degree of "Flora." Tomorrow evening the National Grange will confer the seventh degree.
