Misses Lizzie and Alice Hastings, of Dunmore, spent Sunday with friends in town.

The marriage of John Maloney, of York avenue, to Miss Celia Moon, of Scranton, is announced to take place on Nov. 25.

Mr. George Reese has removed his family from Dupont to Vandling. Miss Carrie McKan has returned to her home in Plains, after several days' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fitzsimmons and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rolley and family, and Miss Mame Ruche, of Pittston, spent Sunday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh. Mr. William Frederick,of Vine street, is seriously ill of threat trouble.

The viaducts on the N. Y. & S., con-necting it with the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern, are now complete and trains are running to the new junction. There are eight crews stationed under the direction of M. E. Johns, train dispatcher, and Charles Tuchem engine disparcher. The marriage of Michael McGowan, popular young man of this place, and Miss Mary Donnelly, of Pittston, is announced to take place this month. The marriage of Gustav Erhart, mailcarrier between Avoca and Dupont, and Miss Margaret Gries, of Pittston, took place at the latter's home on Saturday evening. Miss Anna Rowe, of Wilkes-Barre, was a visitor in town on Sunday. Rev. G. T. Price, of Scranton, will deliver the second of a course of lectures this evening in the Methodist Episcopal church for the benefit of the Epworth league. Subject, "Personal Reminiscences of the Late War," Mrs. A. McAlpine has returned from Marathon, N. Y., after several months' visit. She was accompanied home by Mrs. L. E. McAlpine and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Miller have returned home, after spending a few days with friends in Ranchdale. The case against Ignatz Bolan, Anthony Slincoe, Anthony Gedareck, Simon Bernette, John Rose, John Baylack, John Visaple and Wadraff Carniski, charged with riot in connection with the recent strike at the Heldelberg, No. 2, colliery of the Lehigh Valley company, was completed before Judge Lynch on Saturday and a verdict of not guilty was rendered by the jury. The case was hotly contested and the verdict was important, as it involved the right of the men to gather on the premises of the company in order to persuade others not to return to work. Mr. John Mitchell, sr., of the West Side, is seriously ill of pulmonary trouble. The Avoca Argus, under its new management, has proved a most interesting journal. Its columns on Saturday were interesting and instructive and wisely dealt with all the important town topics, political and social, together with an amount of advertising from reliable business houses in this vicinity.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK

Wall Street Review. New York, Nov. 15.—Wall street has not een so dull a day in many months. Even he professional traders were almost out of the market, and there was absolutely o outside inquiry or sign of interest in market. A large proportion of the stock fell away at one time 2% points, but closed 1½ above that. The rally was due to a ruling by the treasury department to apply the countervalling duty of the tariff bill to refined sugars imported from Denmark. Total sales were 176,700 shares. Peter Casson is a butcher in the prohi-bition town of Escondido. He also has a cameh and a winery. It is related that last fall he made several thousand gal ions of wine, which he stored in his big vats. One holding 200 gallons was re-served for a higher price. Early in Feo-ruary tasson sampled this cask and felt it was going to be a money naker. The var had a small plug that projected near the floor. How this chanced to be pulled out by his herd of forty hers some time that day Casson does not know. But the following morning his cask was empty and his hors wallowed drunkenly about it. Only one was able to rise to its feet when it fell down again, completely
