HALLSTEAD.

The funeral services of the late Mrs Byron Tanner were held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon There was a large assemblage of people present, showing the high esteem and respect in which the deceased was held. Rev. L. W. Church preached a very impressive sermon from the text "Her sun is gone down, while it is yet day." Rev. A. F. Harding, of Great Bend, also assisted in the services, The dec-ased was an exempliary Christian lady. She always had a kind word and cheering smile and was ever ready to do good to all. She will be greatly missed in the church, Sabbath school and all enterprises for good, where she was always willing to render her efficient service. Interment took place Rose Hill cemetery, She is survived by her husband and two sons. her father and mother. Rev. R. N. Ives and wife, of Binghamton; one sister, Mrs. L. G. FLYING WITH FEET TIED. Farmer Dunning, of Great Bend, is now positive that hawks can fly with their feet tied. He built a trap for the big birds and succeeded in catching three. When Dunning discovered the three fine birds safely lodged in the lecture room of the Presbyterian the enclosure he entered the trap and caught each of the hawks, desiring to cage them, and tied their legs to gether. After the three were tied he threw them out upon the ground, and by the time he got out himself the old birds had recovered their cunning. To his utter astonishment he saw them away across the Susquehanna river. The next day a neighbor, residing two miles away, saw one of the hawks feeding in his barnyard and shot it.

Farmer Youngs, of Harmony, has oticed that his cows have come up at night with the appearance of having been milked. He got tired of it, and sent his hired man to the pasture to county, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. arise, bound as they were, and sall catch the thief. He spent the day near enough to the cows to watch them, he hought, but at night it was still evident that the cows had been milked again. He was reprimanded and sent back with them the next day. At about Il o'clock, he says, a cow went into some brush near a small lake. He crept through the grass and caught the thief in the act, and he proved to be a large muskrat. The muskrat was hanging on to the cow's udder, and seemed to be enjoying his dinner immensely. When the rat disappeared nto the swamp the cow was angry, and was driven back into the pasture with great difficulty.

COUNTY CURRENCY.

In the county court last week, Morris and Charles Potter, of Jackson, were convicted of larceny, It was strictly a Pennsylvania verdict, "Not guilty, but pay the costs." Rev. J. C. Hogan, of Forest City, Liberty party candidate for state treasurer, received $42 votes in the state. A Harrisburg preacher "Swallowed" the remainder of the Prohibition vote. All the same, that will never discourage Brer Hogan. In his bright lexicon there is no such word as discouragement. A new postoffice is to be established at East Springville. It will be called "Aineyville," in honor of our able and popular district attorney, W. B. D.

Ainey, of Montrose, There is red blood on the face of the moon! The great war between the Great Bend Plain-Dealer and the Hallstead Herald is still on. Suffering Moses, let's arbitrate!

Matters at the Deep Hollow terra otta mine are dormant. Unless the capitalists of Hallstead and Great Bend get a hustle on themselves and form a stock company the mine will get milldewed.

Albert Newton, Inte of Montrose, has reached Dawson City, after the usual hardships and mishaps. In a letter written home he advises people who intend going to Klondike in the spring o start with $1,000 at least.

Mrs. Ann Pease, of Jackson, has reurned home from a visit with Wyoming county relatives. She is seventyfive years of age, the mother of thirteen children, twelve of whom lived to grow up. She can now do more work than any of her daughters or grandgrandchildren in the west.

A PAINFUL REALITY. It has been observed that "the man who wants to lick the editor" is by no means a myth, as many people sup pose, but a painful reality." Painful is used in reference to the condition of his troubled brain. In a well-regulated newspaper office he is seen almost daily. Usually he is an unshaved, unkept looking man with blood in his eye, and carries unconcealed an odor of bad whiskey, with muscles "strong as iron bands." He pounces upon the inoffensive, undersized editor with a determination to eliminate him forevermore. But the scene changes. The editor calls upon his vocal powers, and "in a few well-chosen words" shrinks his adversary to the size of a pigmy, while in this wordy war he assumes the size of a giant, and the scrapper" sneaks down the stairs, feeling very much like a bird that has won second best in a cock-fight.

BEAUTY IN MATURITY. A Woman Is at Her Best Late in Life.

Some Notable Examples. From the Chicago Chronicie The physical beauty of women should last, growing more and more mellow, until the end. That the beauty of women, like that of men, should be determined from the standpoint of advancing maturity cannot be disputed. It is absurd to claim that the ripe, rich beauty of forty is less attractive than the budding immaturity of sweet sixteen. When women live in harmony with nature's laws each stage of life as its own charm. The fullness of eauty does not reach its zenith under the age of thirty-five or forty. Helen of Troy comes upon the stage at the age of forty. Aspasia was thirty-six when married to Pericles, and she was a brilliant figure thirty years thereafter. Cleopatra was past thirty years when she met Antony. Diane de Poictiers was thirty-six when she won the heart of Henry II. The king was half her age, but his devotion never changed Anne of Austria was thirty-eight wher described as the most beautiful woman in Europe, Mme, De Maintenon was forty-three when united to Louis and Catharine of Russia was thirty three when she seized the throne she ccupled for thirty-five years. Mile, Mar was most beautiful a forty-five, and Mme. Recamler be tween the ages of thirty-five and fifty five. The most lasting and intenpassion is not inspired by two-decade beauties. The old saw about sweet six teen is exploded by the truer know edge that the highest beauty does no lwell in immaturity. For beauty doe not mean alone the fashion of form and coloring as found in the waxen dol The dew of youth and a complexio of roses are admirable for that peried but a woman's best and richest year are from thirty-six to forty. It is an arrant error for any woman to regard herself as passe at any age, if she grows old gracefully.

SHE WAS SHOCKED. A few mornings ago Mrs. Chaffle, who believes in keeping Lent very strictly was shocked by her son, Johnnie, who was looking over the paper at the break "Jee whilikens!" exclaimed the youn eprobate. "What is it, Johnnie?" Johnnie then read a short article about now the tame bear of a traveling Italia howman killed his master, and, after evouring the legs, hid away the truni nd intellectual development for nex "What?" gasped Mrs. Chaffle, "not it thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stumach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery only a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symp toms and cures nervous headaches, that i seems to have almost "a magic touch."

DR. HILL & SON will do all kinds of Dental Work at lower prices than any other Dentist in Scranton. FULL SET TEETH.

TEETH EXTRACTED.. We have been in Scranton over 16 years; we are here now—we intend to stay here. Our business is not a mere experience. We will not do work today that you can call us to account for tomorrow. We compete with the cheap advertising dentists who are here today and gone tomorrow, but we do not compare—our work is a contrast. So do not make a mistake; all our operators are experts of skill and experience, and not mere students. Still our prices are lower than the lowest. Beware of imposters and chariatans who can afford to ruin your teeth because they are not financially responsible. How can we do better than they? The answer is easy; We have a dental office in nearly every city in the United States, and we buy our supplies at wholesale for cost. No wonder we can give better prices than anyone else, therefore. Experience counts also, and we have the experience besides our diplomas. Don't be buncoed; get the best, the most reliable, the most comfortable and the most durable. The newst methods, the latest applications, the best materials. These are attractions worth considering. Besides nervous people and those with ueart weakness can have their teeth filled or crowned with absolute safety and positively without pain, we are the only really up-to-date Dental Establishment in Northeastern Pennsylvania. Teeth extracting in the morning and a new set furnished in the afternoon in the afternoon is an old practice of ours, original. All others are mere imitators. GOLD FILLINGS .... .. 75c OTHER CROWNS.
