CITY NOTES.

Several applicants for appointment as night school teachers were examined yesterday. Ex-Assistant City Solicitor D. J. Davis has established his office in the commonwealth building. The Delaware and Hudson Canal company paid yesterday at No. 3 and Boston collieries, Plymouth. Three committees of the board of control will meet tonight, the high and training school, building and text book committees. Invitations have been issued for a reception to be given by the members of the Elizabeth Lewis Monday night class in the school hall Monday evening, Nov. 29, from 8.30 to 10 p. m. The Teachers' Mutual Benefit association will meet for general business in the board of control rooms at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning, Nov. 29. All members are urged to be present. The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary O'Malley of Little England will take place tomorrow morning at 8.30 o'clock from St. John's church. Interment will be made in Duane's cemetery. Thomas Davis, of the West Side, was arrested before Alderman Miller yesterday on a charge of abusing a horse owned by Patrick Conkley, the prosecutor. Davis was held for a further hearing. Communion services will be held in the Evangelical church, Little England, on Sunday at 2 p. m. Quarter conference Friday at 8.45 p. m. after services. Rev. H. W. Buck, P. E., will be present to officiate. A splendid display of vegetables grown on the Utah farms of the Bear River Irrigation and Ogden Water works is on exhibition at the company's Scranton office, corner of Washington avenue and Spruce street. There will be a social this evening at the home of Mrs. Colvin, 123 Mulberry street, for the benefit of the Penn Avenue Baptist mission. There will be a literary and musical entertainment after which refreshments will be served. H. E. Paine delighted an audience at the Penn Avenue Baptist church last evening with the recitation of war reminiscences, under the subject head: "An Old Army Shirt." Besides Mr. Paine there were several other participants in the interesting programme. One of the prominent events of the coming week will be a subscription dance to be given in Sweeney's new hall on Penn avenue Tuesday night. Bauer's orchestra will furnish music. Hanley will be caterer and McClintock will do the decorations. It bids fair to be a most pleasing social success.

Do You Need a Coat?

Saturday morning we open a great variety of stylish Coats for ladies' misses and children; no abridgment; every garment well made of good material. We bought them cheap and can give you a bargain. Come and see. Mears & Hagen.

TONERY'S FATE MARKED FOR TODAY.

His Case Will Be Laid Before the Poor Board. Edward Tonery, whose brother wanted to have him incarcerated at the Hillside Home as an insane patient, is still at the police station. Chief of Police Robling at first intended to secure an opinion on the case from City Solicitor McClintock. The poor board, however, will meet in regular session today, and Tonery's case will be presented. The hitch in the proceedings is over the doctor's fee for examination of Tonery's mental condition.

COLUMBIAS HAVE A BIG CELEBRATION

New Chemical Engine Formally Presented and Accepted.

GALA NIGHT IN A HOSE HOUSE

There was eating and speaking and music and a general all-round good time. Fred Durr, chairman of the Select Council Fire Committee, made the presentation and A. B. Holmes accepted on the part of the company.

Many times have the friends of the fire-laddies of Columbia Chemical Engine company, formerly Columbia Hose company, been entertained by them, and in first-rate manner, too, but the reception last evening eclipsed all of the company's former efforts.

As the guests arrived they were taken in hand by the company, which had resolved itself for the nonce into a committee of the whole, and after a short tour of inspection they were taken to the large meeting room on the second floor. There at a convenient moment, Toastmaster A. B. Holmes, in behalf of his fellow-members of the company, welcomed the visitors and bade them make themselves at home.

Said he: "We are proud to have you with us; glad to know that our pleasure is a mutual source, and that the city at large reaps the reward. Here we, a company of twenty active firemen, have been given the finest machine in the state and the first of its kind in the country. We appreciate more fully than words can express the honor conferred upon us and the kindness of your councilmen in this matter. Here you have a company of which I am proud to be a member. Firstly, because it has no factional trouble, and is ever ready to do its duty; secondly, because my father-in-law, Mr. Corless, is one of the oldest firemen in the city and still in service; and lastly, because of the recent addition to our apparatus. Consequently, I am free to say welcome to all of you, and your pleasure be as deep as ours."

Mr. Holmes' remarks were received with hearty applause. Frederick Durr, chairman of the fire committee of select council, arose and in a few terse remarks presented the new machine to the company in behalf of council. Though the wagon had been formally accepted, this idea of making a formal presentation of it to the company proved a happy one. Mr. Holmes accepted the tender, in behalf of the company. Short speeches were then made by the visiting councilmen, Chief Hickey and others.

The speech making being over with the guests were escorted to the bottom floor where two large tables laden with the season's delicacies were placed, and being seated they were served by a corps of the wives of the company members.

The remainder of the delightful evening was spent in the enjoyment of an impromptu musical programme. Among the many guests who were present were: Clerk of the Courts, T. P. Daniels, Dr. M. J. Williams, William B. Williams, John J. Davies, Stephen Dyer, T. Fellows Mason, Ben Griffith, D. D. Evans, Morgan Thompson, Edwin G. Hughes, Chief P. J. Hickey, Councilmen Moir, William Thomas, Jurr, Fellows, Coyne and Frable, of the select, and Walker, Leese, Tridler, Jackson, Sheridan, Oliver and Gordon, of the common.

The ladies who assisted were: Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. David J. Davis, Mrs. Samuel Harris, Mrs. Stephen B. Price, Mrs. Edward Prechard, Mrs. Harry Meyers, Mrs. Harry Kinsley, and Miss Celia Bassett.

DOBBS-WHITE FIGHT A FIZZLE.

White Laid Down and Quit in the Third Round. What was to have been a 29-round fight before the Carbonate Athletic club last night between Bobby Dobbs, late of Minneapolis and who is now instructor of the club, and Joe White, of Boston, both colored, proved to be a big fizzle. White laid down for eight seconds in the second round. In the third round he ran away from Dobbs and then quit and was counted out.

The first round opened at 8.50 o'clock and was fought by few exchanges. Dobbs landed two or three light blows on White's chest. In the second round Dobbs forced the issue and planted one or two rib-roasters on White's side and some on his neck. White got clear of the bombardment but when Dobbs advanced to repeat the dose White crouched down in the ring and remained down for eight seconds arising just before the gong sounded.

There was an exchange at the opening of the third round following which White quit. He lay down on the floor and did not arise until he was counted out amid much confusion on the part of the 200 spectators. He had not been even slightly punished. The only reason that could be attributed to his action was that he was afraid of his lanky opponent.

W. F. Walker, of Olyphant, was referee and John Kelly, of Philadelphia, timekeeper. "Kid" Brown, of Scranton, and J. Turner Hall, of New York city, were in Dobbs' corner, and Red Connolly and Charles Lavin, of New Jersey, looked after White. Before the fight began White's manager announced that the winner would meet "Pepper" Griffin, of New York city.

A "battle royal" among four Scranton colored men and vocal selections by the Florida quartette, also of Scranton introduced the star event.

PAY CAR DEMOLISHED.

Run Into by a Wildcat Engine on Wilkes-Barre and Eastern. The pay car of the Wilkes-Barre and Eastern railroad was demolished in a wreck at a coal junction of the connecting railroad, Wednesday morning. Paymaster Demarant reached Wilkes-Barre Tuesday evening, and the car was returned on the train leaving at 11.10 in the morning. It was left on the main track at the junction and was run into by a wild cat engine. No one was injured.

ELKS' LODGE OF SORROW.

It Will Be Held Sunday Evening, Dec. 5, at the Lyceum. The annual Lodge of Sorrow, or memorial service, of the Scranton lodge of Elks, will be held Sunday evening, Dec. 5, in the Lyceum theater. The memorial address will be delivered by Attorney D. J. Reedy.

THREE BURGLARS ARE UNDER ARREST

Two Were Taken Into Custody in New York State.

THEY WILL BE BROUGHT BACK

Miles Stacey Was Captured at Binghamton and Le Roy Carroll at Elmira—Both Had Goods in Their Possession Similar to Those Stolen from George Felton's Store—Daly Is Still in the Central Police Station.

Three crooks are now under arrest for the burglary, Wednesday morning, of George Felton's cutlery store, corner of Penn avenue and Spruce street. One man, Miles Stacey, was captured in Binghamton yesterday morning and almost at the same time Le Roy Carroll was arrested in Elmira. Daniel Daly, the third man, was captured yesterday, Tribune, was secured at Wilkes-Barre, Wednesday, by Chief of Police Robling and Detective Moir.

According to the clue which has been so successfully worked there is one more crook still at liberty who was concerned in the Felton burglary. Mr. Felton left yesterday afternoon for the New York cities with two warrants for the formal arrest of the suspected men if the goods found on their persons prove to be Mr. Felton's property. The laws of the Empire state six thirty days as the maximum term a prisoner arrested for an offense in another state can be held. As soon as requisition papers are obtained the two prisoners will be brought to this city.

DALY IS A BARBER.

The man Daly, arrested in Wilkes-Barre, is a tramp barber. In looking over the records yesterday it was found that Daly under the alias of "John Prince," committed a burglary on Sept. 8 at Little Valley, Cattaraugus county, New York. His booty then was razors, etc. When arrested in Wilkes-Barre, Wednesday, it was merely upon suspicion. Cutlery and revolvers found in Daly's possession were identified by Mr. Felton and the prisoner was brought to this city.

It was learned yesterday that Daly came to this city the forenoon of last week from Binghamton. He secured work at the barber shop of J. M. Moran, on lower Lackawanna avenue, Daly, after a few days, became intoxicated and was discharged. About 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Daly called at the shop and while he was there he presented a man named May, one of the barbers, with a knife. This man also, it later appears, Daly confessed to participating in the burglary. Mr. May, however, did not take upon himself to inform the police until after Daly was arrested and safely in jail.

HAD A DESCRIPTION.

The way the capture was effected was through a description of four crooks given to the police by two men who saw them looting about Felton's place Wednesday night. The principal clue, however, was given by Mr. Felton. Tuesday morning two tough looking men entered the store and inquired the prices of a number of costly knives. They left the place without making a purchase and on the outside the two tough looking men were joined by two others, similarly suspicious in appearance. When Mr. Felton discovered the burglary the police were at once informed of this visit and upon the description of the four men given by Mr. Felton notices were sent to Elmira, Binghamton and other cities. Yesterday afternoon at about 1 o'clock a telephone message from Binghamton was received.

AGED MAN ARRESTED.

Serious Charge Preferred Against Richard Walsh, of the Flats. Richard Walsh, aged 63, was arraigned before Alderman W. S. Miller yesterday on a serious charge preferred by Miss Bridget Garvey. Both live in Bellevue. Walsh denies the charge. Alderman Miller held him under $500 bail for a hearing on Tuesday, Nov. 30.

SECRETS OF THE GREAT REBELLION.

Important Revelations by a Distinguished Officer of the Confederate Army. General Bradley Tyler Johnson, among the most distinguished of the surviving officers of the Confederate Army, has reviewed the new life of Robert E. Lee for The Philadelphia Sunday "Press" of November 21. It is a most important article, brilliantly written in lively style, and will prove of particular interest to every reader, North and South, who is interested in the Civil War. General Johnson's remarks on the Battle of Gettysburg are certain to attract widespread attention.

The most distinguished statesmen, and prominent officials in every state, have sent to the Philadelphia Sunday "Press" signed statements giving the reasons why every person should celebrate Thanksgiving Day. These statements will be printed exclusively in next Sunday's "Press" (Nov. 21) and will form the most remarkable feature of the kind ever printed.

On Saturday, the 20th inst., the great football games of the season will be played. These will be fully reported by experts and elaborately illustrated in next Sunday's "Press," and in addition a beautifully colored picture of the Pennsylvania-Harvard teams at play will be given free to every reader.

Next Sunday's Philadelphia "Press" will have many other great and exclusive features. If you want the best Sunday paper you had better order "The Sunday Press" today.
