In the case of Dr. W. E. McDowell against W. P. Joyce, Judge Archbaid yesterday granted the petition made last week for a new trial.

The bonds of A. L. Siglin, collector of Clifton township, and William A. Price, collector of Sterling Cycle works. Continued or Settled.

With a deep-heaved sigh of relief the jury in the celebrated McHugh case, at 5 o'clock last evening, left the box, wherein they had been patiently sitting five hours a day for five days, and retired to the jury room to weigh which they have been assailed during sel.

Colonel Fitzsimmons, for the defense, spoke all merning long. Then from about 1.30 o'clock until 4 o'clock Mr. O'Erien argued for the plaintin. An-Gunster in delivering the charge.

After a little over an hour's deliberation the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $500, the amount awarded by the arbitrators. This means, likely, that the award of the arbitrators in the other cases will be accepted.

THE WEBSTER CASE.

Only one new case was started yesterday. It was that of M. O. Webster against Fred J. Wldmayer and others and was tried before Judge Archbald. presiding in the main court room. COAL COMPANIES AT ODDS.

Developments Awaited in a Contest at Luzerne Borough.

The Raub Coal company and the Waddell Coal company at Luzerne borough are at loggerheads and as a consequence the Raub company has been compelled to suspend operations at the new breaker which was started last

The breaker is built close to a boiler room owned by the Waddell company and on land leased by it. An injunetion was served on the Raub company. but no attention was given to it, and on Saturday morning the railroad track was blocked by the unloading of about twenty loads of coal and by placing a mule and eart across the The breaker and boiler room are only twenty-five feet apart, and as It is centrary to law to have them earer than 100 feet the Waddell company decided to start the boilers with a view of having the Raub company stop operating its breaker. Further developments are being awaited with interest,-Wilkes-Barro Record, the eyes seem to possess most people until the time comes when hendaches, imperfect vision, or other results of such neglect give warning that nature is rebelling against such treatment of one of the most precious gifts. Normal vision is a blessing unappreciated until it has been lost and restored; its full value is then realized. Therefore, you should not lose a day before having your eyes examinad. This service we gladly render free of charge.
